Ye Smudge Pot

By Arthur Perry.

The tariff issue is again before Congress and the American public. This is a topic upon which anyone can talk at great length, without knowing anything at all about the subject, and with no chance of being successfully disputed.

Patcoo Arbutle has finally been acquitted. The verdict so upset him that he threatened to go to work, without conferring with his attorneys.

Coman Doyle, creator of the Sherlock Holmes stories, now the leading spiritualistic authority of the world, is in America, on a lecture tour and brings cheerful tidings. Sinners, of whom there is an alarming scarcity, according to Mr. Doyle, do not spend eternity frying in their own grease while acting as their own firemen.

The national chairman of the democratic party announces a "victory for forces of democracy in November." This sounds something like the "drift to Cox," which was so noticeable in 1920, till the votes were counted.

Add Wild Statements of Tame Citizens: "I'd rather be in the rain of the valley than in the sunshine of Florida"—(Rosie Rosenbaum, Espee hiring).

HELP! AND STEP LIVELY! (Ozark Spectator) Mr. Henry McCartney had the misfortune of busting a rim off last Monday.

Champion Jack Dempsey, who called Tuesday, with the delayed threat "to clean up everything in Europe," will visit the battlefields of France. When there was considerable activity on said battlefields the champion was shackled to a rivet showered shipyard at home.

In a spirited debate in the Nash dist. Wed. eve, one of the leading miners was hit in the lumbar region with a platinum mine, hurled with deadly accuracy from a hippocket.

Ben H. Lampman, who was sentenced by the Oregonian to go around the world with Julius Meier, boosting for the 1922 fair, surrendered at Shanghai, China, and is coming home. A gifted and a clever writer, Benjamin described delightfully and accurately what he saw, without hair-raising publicity for his host or his dream.

L. D. Mumpower and Fred Vallet are among those busy preparing the gardens in Gladstone—(Oregon City Enterprise). The first named can never join a 4-um.

The first spring carnival is upon us, and cannot be averted. The last one that came resulted in old men with whiskers riding so much on the merry-go-round, the rising generation never had a chance.

Feels Like a New Woman "I was a sufferer from kidney trouble for several years," writes Mrs. Arthur Demille, R. F. D. 1, Grasmere, N. H., "and suffered so much I felt completely lame all over. Since I have been taking Foley Kidney Pills I am not so lame. My back ached all the time and my eyes were all a blur. Now I can see fine and feel like a different woman. Since I have taken two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills I don't have that tired feeling. I can do my own work now." They bring quick results. Sold everywhere. Adv.

REVIVING THE OLD MEDFORD SPIRIT.

ALL CITIZENS should get behind the Chamber of Commerce program to revive the old Medford spirit. Medford established the reputation many years ago, of being the "biggest little city on the Pacific Coast." This was not a tribute to numbers, but a tribute to spirit—the spirit of doing big things in a big way.

"Doing big things in a big way," that is the most valuable asset a community can have. It doesn't mean a mere revival of the old-fashioned booster bunk, exaggerated values and exaggerated claims, it means first of all the elimination of petty personal quarrels and neighborhood squabbles, it means that good citizens lay down their hammers, abandon this trivial controversy and that, and all get together and work together for the betterment and development of Medford and the Rogue River Valley.

It isn't an easy job. Friction and hostility seem to be in the air, not only here but everywhere else. General economic conditions moreover have created an atmosphere, in which the fine old spirit of community loyalty finds it difficult to thrive as it did a decade ago.

But just as the old Medford spirit allowed Medford to make the most of her opportunities then, so the revival of that spirit can allow Medford to make the most of her opportunities now.

By all means make the effort, and hit the line hard. This may not be the age of marvels, but marvellous things can be done by any community that gets together, forgets its trivial differences, and unites under the banner of "doing big things in a big way."

Quill Points

The mist that hides the sunshine of prosperity is the pessimist. We fear the Irish Free State will be of feud days and full of trouble. You can hear almost everything on the radiophone now except a Hollywood party. At this season of the year, conjugal bliss is largely a matter of spring hats. There is a general suspicion that hands across the sea itch a little in the palms. The poet who sings of "the shade of night and the eloquent palm" knows the great American porter, all right.

People seldom object to the length of a sermon, however, if it has depth as well. Some marriages are happy, and some people think two families can live in the same house. Another good way to expand the chest is to carry a roll of long green in your pants pocket. Almost any minor statesman can tell you that the first essential to success is a majority following. Somehow we have a notion that a slow motion picture of a checker tournament would be good for the nerves. Effort to raise bonus money by taxing beer is merely an effort to make the bonus measure a liquid measure. Now that Uncle Sam is pressing for payment, we expect any day to see Germany put in a bill for brides taken.

The inalienable rights with which man is endowed are seldom worth much unless he is endowed with a fighting spirit as well. After a time the small boy begins to understand that it is wrong to tell lies unless you are a parent talking to a small boy.

I TAKE pink pills to cure my ills, my gout and flu and tetter; I swallow ten, and now and then I think I'm feeling better. I read the boast of Dr. Yost, who does much advertising; his pills, he claims, cure gents and dames with quickness most surprising. His ads appear throughout the year in every moral daily; his pills will cure the rich and poor, he tells us, proudly, gayly. The village doe is prone to knock the pills he sees me taking; "These healing guys, who advertise," he says "are always faking. Oh, come to me, my friend," says he, "when you are sick and jaded; I'll feed you pills of nux and squills that have the Yost pills faded." But old Doe Yost he gets the most of all the coin I'm earning; he takes his stand, throughout the land he keeps his lantern burning. In every sheet I chance to meet, his pills are recommended; day after day we hear him say, "My pills are truly splendid. My pills are made of junk and jade, of barks and buds and simples, they'll cure catarrh and leave no scar, they'll banish boils and pimples." Physicians roast this Old Doe Yost who keeps on advertising, and still he trills about his pills, whose sales are most surprising.

One Fold—One Shepherd

Catholics pray constantly that all Christians may soon be united and have "One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all." (Eph. 4, 5-6). The Catholic Church invites all Christians to return to that great Mother Church, which teaches today the same unchanging faith taught by Christ and the Apostles. (John 17, 11). "Holy Father, keep them in Thy name which Thou hast given me; that they may be ONE, even as we are." THE FIRST HOSPITAL IN THE NEW WORLD WAS A CATHOLIC HOSPITAL IN MEXICO CITY, IN 1524. These advertisements inserted daily and paid for by two native Medford Catholic business men who believe in their religion.

GENOA MEETING BEING HELD IN GORGEOUS PALACE

ROME, April—It is difficult to imagine a city better adapted to princely hospitality than Genoa, where the great economic conference is being held for it contains the superb palaces built mostly during the sixteenth century to satisfy the sense of luxury, the appreciation of art and beauty of the merchant princes of Genoa.

There are no palaces in Italy, perhaps in the whole world, so magnificent in themselves and that form such a suitable background for the treasures of art, the Van Dycks, the Rubens and the delightful pictures of the Venetian school that adorn their walls.

The Royal Palace where the conference is held, in addition to its sumptuous furniture, its glorious marble staircase and balconies, has a beautiful garden with green lawns and walks shaded by a variety of trees and shrubs.

The members of the different delegations aggregate at least 2000 persons, who are lodged in Genoa's palaces and in the lovely villas that surround the town. When one realizes that all this beauty is bathed in the sunshine of an Italian spring, it is difficult to imagine a better preparation for the equanimity and pleasure of Italy's guests.

In addition Italy has exerted herself to provide for the conveniences of life needed by those who attend the conference. The road along the Lirurian Riviera has been relaid for a distance of about 25 miles. Additional telephone and telegraphic circuits have been constructed and a special telephone line has been set up for the service of the delegations and newspaper correspondents. Reading and writing rooms also have been prepared for delegates and reporters.

Sports

CAMP LEWIS, April 12.—A school for umpires is being held this month in preparation for the opening of the league of army baseball teams here. All enlisted men desiring to qualify for this dangerous arm of the sport are welcomed at the school. Extra compensation of $1.00 per game is provided umpires in addition to regular soldier's pay.

WICHITA, Kan., April 12.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, world heavyweight wrestling champion, will defend his title against Earl Craddock, former champion, here tonight. Lewis won the championship from Stanislaus Zbyszko here six weeks ago.

The match will be to a finish, two falls in three, for a purse of $20,000. Craddock and Lewis have met four times, both winning twice. Lewis, weighing 229 pounds, will have a thirty pound advantage over the challenger.

TULSA—Captain Bob Roper of Chicago won the referee's decision over Carl Morris, Sapulpa, in the third round of a scheduled 12 round bout when Roper's claim of a foul was upheld.

TOPEKA—Alan Eustice, Kansas heavyweight wrestling champion, won two straight falls from Jatrin Gobar, East Indian champion. Cliff Binckley, claimant of the Ohio heavyweight championship, defeated John Grandavich, in the same order.

SEATTLE—Bobbie Michaels, New York lightweight, knocked out Joe Harraban, Seattle, in third round of a four round event. Young Gardeau, Boise, Idaho, was given decision over Boy McCaslin, welterweight, Bremerton, Wash.

Priscilla Dean Scores Priscilla Dean added another triumph to the series of her screen successes here, when her latest photodrama, "Wild Honey," was shown at the Page theatre yesterday.

"Wild Honey" is a thriller. It grips the imagination by the force of its situations, and no more than lies down from one thrill before it carries one into another gripping suspense.

Miss Dean is supported by an excellent cast. Robert Ellis, Lloyd Whitlock, Percy Challenger, Helen Raymond, Landers Stevens, Carl Stockdale, C. J. Frank and Harry de Roy.

Spider Logic

A man once wrote to Mark Twain as follows: "I found a spider in my morning paper. Is that good or bad luck? What does it signify?" The great humorist answered him: "Finding a spider in your paper is neither good nor bad luck. The spider was merely looking over the paper to see what merchants were not advertising, so he could go to their stores, spin a web across the doors and live a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

PHOENIX SCHOOL NOTES

The following students will represent the Phoenix high school at the contest which will be held at the Medford high school in May: Tom Coaster and Floyd Watkins in book-keeping; Margaret Sheets and Lella Nicholas in shorthand and typewriting. This contest will be held by the commercial departments of the high schools of Jackson county to stimulate the students in this particular high school work.

Mrs. Blake's Favorite Recipe for Scalloped Potatoes

This economical way of preparing potatoes removes them from the "side dish" class and makes of them a dish of distinction. 1 tbs. salt, 4 medium sized potatoes, 1 1/2 cup water, 1 cup Carnation Milk, 1/2 tbs. butter. Wash, pare and cut potatoes in thin slices. Put a layer in buttered baking dish, sprinkle with salt and dredge with a small amount of flour. Add milk and butter and bake until potatoes are soft. This recipe serves six people.
