EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. G. Kewitt

Just received a note from my wife who is visiting our daughter in Portland in which she said that one of our old neighbors and at one time a student in our school, Robert Pelouae, had called on her while she was in Portland and had a very pleasant visit with him and how glad he was to meet some of the old Eagle Point friends.

He sends his regards to his host of old Eagle Point admirers, for notwithstanding the fact that the Medford scribblers for the Mail Tribune used to try to make it appear that he was a Medford boy because he was so bright and beat the champion swimmer in a contest when he was a mere boy in his teens, he always claimed Eagle Point as his home. He is now married and the head of a family of three and his many friends here and elsewhere are glad to hear from him.

J. W. Hovey, the superintendent of the Allvesta orchard and his nearest neighbor, R. A. Petty were here on business Saturday.

Mr. Muskopf, one of our enterprising citizens was patching up the roof of our blacksmith shop Saturday and the next day was helping Rudolph A. Weidman put up some more wire fence. He seems to be able to turn his hand to almost anything to keep things moving.

Thomas Cook, formerly of Eagle Point but now of Butte Falls, was a passenger on the stage for home, and Sam Oeser, one of the P. & E. R. R. men was also a passenger on the stage for Derby.

Lucius Kincaid and wife came out from Butte Falls on the Geo. Albert motor Saturday, took dinner and went on out to Medford to see Mrs. Kincaid's parents, returning Sunday morning and Mrs. Kincaid went on up to Duprey's mill to take charge of her school. Her husband remained until Tuesday.

J. F. Johnson of Reese creek, was also a business caller Saturday.

Easter Sunday was a passably fair day and the exercises were well attended, although there was not the general union of the schools that was anticipated as the Brownsboro school failed to unite with the Brownsboro and Eagle Point schools owing in part to the inclemency of the weather and bad roads, but there was a good attendance and the program was very good. The ladies with the assistance they could get from the men and boys had the church beautifully decorated and after the usual Sunday school exercises was followed by a short address by the pastor, Rev. H. G. Adams, he taking for his subject, "Life." This was followed by a bountiful lunch served by the ladies and it is not necessary to add that the only trouble with the lunch was that it was too good, taking in the thought of health, and comfort immediately after, for there was more than one person felt like loosening their belt.

The program: A short address by the superintendent, H. E. Campbell, and this was followed by an address by Rev. H. G. King, the Sunday school evangelist for the American S. S. Union. Song by Eagle Point school; song by four boys, Easter Blossoms. Then we had a duet by Mrs. R. G. Brown and Mrs. R. A. Weidman. Recitation by Reese Creek school. This was followed by two recitations, one by the Reese Creek school and one by four boys. Then a recitation by Miss Lois Robinson, then another by the Reese Creek school, besides several short exercises by the Reese Creek Sunday school. A song, "Shout and Sing," and a quartet by H. E. Campbell, Mrs. R. G. Brown, Mrs. Lottie Vanscoy, and Rev. H. G. Adams. This was followed by a few remarks by the superintendent and the benediction.

It was universally agreed that the Easter exercises were a glowing success.

When I reached home at the close of the morning services there were twenty-three seated at the dinner table and among them were several town-folk among them Mrs. R. G. Brown, Wm. H. Brown, wife and two of his sisters, Mrs. Sarah Guerin of Oakland, Calif., who is here visiting her brothers, Frank, William and R. G. Brown and her sisters, Mrs. Lottie Vanscoy and Mrs. S. B. Holmes, and Mrs. Lottie Vanscoy, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. West and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hubbs, Medford, Mrs. Alina Boland, Miss M. E. Lemmon, Mr. L. B. Walther and S. M. Scott of Medford.

The funeral of Harvey B. Smith who died at the home of his brother Corbet near Butte Falls, took place at the Butte Falls cemetery Sunday afternoon and the services were conducted by Mr. Jones at the grave. Mr. Smith was 35 years old and leaves a wife and two children besides his father and several brothers and sisters. He has been in very poor health for the past several years.

Mr. McDougal and A. J. Florey of Medford were among the diners at the Sunnyside hotel Monday.

There has been another change in the business management of the T. E. Nichols store. Something like a month ago I announced that F. J. McPherson had taken charge of the store, at that time he took it over with a view of purchasing the stock of goods provided the business proved to be such as would justify the move, and after a month's trial and at the end of the specified time Mr. McPherson decided that he would be justified in making the investment, so took over the stock of goods and entered into the entire management and control of the business on Monday, April 17. He tells me that he has already ordered a full line of groceries and dry goods.

Mrs. Amos Ayres of Medford, came out Monday morning on the Butte Falls stage and went up to Elk creek to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Trusty, on the Persist stage.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ayres who own a farm and orchard on the P. & E. R. R. on Reese creek were business callers Monday.

A. L. Young and his son-in-law, L. V. Ferguson were among the business callers Monday. They have leased the Frank Rhodes ranch for a term of five years and intend going into the dairy business on quite an extensive scale.

Everett Culbertson of Lake creek, was trading with our merchants Monday.

V. Johnson of Medford, and George Smith of Derby, C. H. Natwick, the contractor on the Butte Falls extension of the P. & E. R. R., and A. E. Hildreth of Butte Falls, the deputy assessor who is measuring the stock-meg north and east of here were here Monday night.

Miss Clara Foerat visited at the Wm. Head home Sunday.

Frank Woolridge was a Sunday caller at the Seyferth home.

George Wickstrom who has been visiting with his folks for several days has returned to his home in Aberdeen, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pernoll visited relatives on Applegate Monday.

Mrs. Florence Wilbur and family of Grants Pass spent Easter at Lester Layton's.

Mrs. Harry Kincaid and children attended the Easter services at Williams.

Miss Audrey Layton and Mrs. Joe Seyferth spent Friday and Saturday in Grants Pass.

Billy Welch has moved back to Medford after spending the winter in the valley.

A large attendance was present at Sunday school last Sunday. Diamina was followed by an egg hunt in which the younger generation joyously participated.

Miss Roberta Clute is absent from school because of illness.

Donald Hayward visited at the Layton home Monday afternoon.

Sunday school was held in the school house Sunday.

An entertainment, box social and free dance is to be held at Applegate hall Saturday night, April 22.
