

Local and Personal

Rev. J. Randolph Sarnett left this morning for Roseburg to attend the convention of the Southern District Epworth League, of which he is president. Mrs. Sarnett accompanied him on the trip. The local Epworth League will be represented by a delegation of twenty-three young people, and they expect to bring home the banner for the largest attendance. The league is also planning to have a large delegation at the institute to be held at Ashland in July. Rev. Sarnett, who has been elected dean of the institute faculty is very anxious that Medford bring home the honor from the institute as well as from the convention.
