KENTUCKY PASTOR OPPOSES COLLEGE IDEA RELIGION

COLUMBUS, O., April—Asserting that "nature cannot lift itself by its own boot-strap," the Rev. W. N. Hickey, pastor of Broadway Christian church, Louisville, Ky., told the congress of Disciples of Christ (Christian church) here today that "any theory of evolution that derives man from the lower orders of creation is unscientific and tends to destroy faith in the Christian religion." "The president of one of the oldest and best known colleges of Virginia," said Rev. Mr. Hickey, "wrote me this word recently: 'I know of many tragic instances of the utter loss of faith by young men and women who have come under the teaching of evolution.' Prof. James Laska of Bryn Mawr college, in 'The Belief in God and Immortality,' gives this conclusion: 'My data would indicate that from 40 to 50 per cent of the young men leaving college entertain an idea of God incompatible with the acceptance of the Christian religion, even as interpreted by the liberal clergy.' "The writer of this paper makes no claim to be a scientist. All he claims for himself in this proposition is the ability to make use of common sense, to employ accredited processes of reasoning, and to consider and weigh such evidence as is at hand."

For when beautiful Pain, the adopted American daughter of a Chinese pearl smuggler, received the Thirteenth Pearl, she was to marry! This is the idea behind Thomas H. Ince's compelling drama of the Orient and the deep sea. You've seen Hobart Bosworth in fighting, crashing roles. In "The Cup of Life" he again demonstrates his remarkable talent for the interpretation of vivid rugged studies. A distinguished cast assists him. It is a picture marked for its adventure and thrills and opens a two days engagement at the Page theatre tomorrow matinee.

Theatre

That admirably conceived and deftly executed revue, the Greenwich Village Follies, comes to Medford for the first time next Monday night at the Page theatre. The "Follies" comes with its original Greenwich Village theatre company and production intact. The revue will be presented here identically as during its memorable runs in New York and Chicago. It has not been altered or diluted in any respect for its trans-continental tour. In its gay and antic company are to be found Bert Savoy and Jay Brennan, Pee Wee Myers and Ford Hanford, McCarthy Sisters, Phil Baker, James Clemens, Louis Herkoff and Sister Frieda, Collins and Hart, Julia Silvers, Russell Scott, Virginia Bell, Hap Hadley, Harlette Gimbel and Olga Zieva. The models of thirty famous artists are the highlights among the decorative features of the spectacle.

Notice of Settlement of Receivership NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the undersigned as Receiver of the Oregon Gas and Electric Company, a corporation, to which Receivership he was heretofore appointed by an order of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Jackson County, in a cause therein and now pending entitled Anglo-California Trust Company, a corporation, as Trustee, Plaintiff, vs. Oregon Gas and Electric Company, a corporation, et al. Defendants, has filed his final account as Receiver of the Oregon Gas and Electric Company in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon in and for the County of Jackson, showing that said Receivership is ready for final settlement, and that said court has appointed Saturday, the 29th day of April, 1922 at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day as the time, and the courtroom of said court in the courthouse at Jacksonville, Oregon, as the place for hearing objections to said final account.

MEN SELECT COLORS FOR MILADY'S HAT

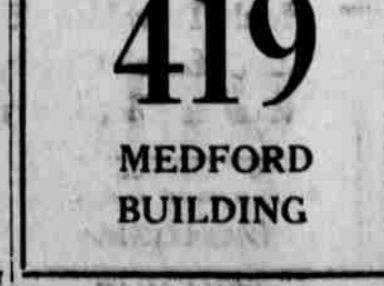

NEW YORK, April 21—Sand color and bright emerald green, will be the prevailing shades in women's mid-summer and fall millinery. These two colors have just been selected by the Metropolitan Display Men's club, as the ones to be featured in retail stores throughout the country. They are chosen from a group of twelve colors suggested by the Textile Color association of America.

SCREEN

At the Page In mixing the ingredients for their brand new comedy, "Red Hot Romance," John Emerson and Anita Loos headlines among continuity teams, which comes to a close at the Page theatre tonight, spilled their best romance over the plot, sharpened their epigrammatic twin pens to cunning sharpness and went to work. The result is side-splitting. The plot has so much action it makes a subway rush hour crowd look as passive as a flock of sheep.

The Thirteenth Pearl The Thirteenth Pearl! What mystery lurked behind those magic words?
