

START BUILDING NEW WAREHOUSE FOR LOCAL FRUIT

Announcement has just been made by William von der Hellen and Raymond Reter of the construction of a new fruit packing warehouse in Medford. The new warehouse will be located at the end of the pavement on south Central Avenue just south of the Knight Packing Company and will be of modern construction containing approximately ten thousand feet of floor space.

Construction will begin at once and the new warehouse will be ready for occupancy by June 15th in time to make preparations for the handling of this season's crop.

The warehouse will be leased to a new operating company recently organized by Mr. Reter. The new company will be composed of experienced men; the direct warehouse operations will be in charge of Mr. Dee Hendrickson and Mr. G. H. Maasdam. All of the above men have been actively engaged in the fruit business in Medford for the past several years.

The new company will be known as the Independent Fruit Company and as the name implies will be independent in every way. The company will engage principally in commercial packing and will pack fruit for any grower independent of any marketing arrangements, he may make. In other words, the grower will be assured of adequate warehouse and packing facilities without the necessity of contracting the selling of his crop to any particular marketing agency.

HALL CHALLENGES GUS NEWBURY TO SPELLING CONTEST

To the Editor:

I am happy to announce that my more or less esteemed contemporary, Brother Newbury, has at last posted a forfeit to meet me Thursday evening in the promised spelling contest and while he has ducked, side-stepped and evaded my every effort to get him in the spelling arena, I believe the forfeit posted will keep him from running out of this contest.

I dislike to recall old memories that may embarrass my contemporary, but his base ingratitude, leaves no course open to me other than to expose his pretensions. Down deep in the organ that drives the blood through his elongated frame, he knows that in the mental arena he has small chance with me.

I first met him thirty-six years ago when we were taking a county school examination for teacher's certificates. On that occasion I recall the woe-begone expression that mangled his youthful and hatched-like countenance as he vainly struggled to answer the simple and elemental questions propounded. Out of sympathy I looked over his spelling paper and corrected the all too numerous and ridiculous errors and I have often thought in late years, when reading some of King Lardner's character stuff, that somehow King must have inherited some of Gus' ancient spelling paper. It was entirely due to my kindness and pity that he got by that examination. I also recall how he went out into the rural districts and boarded "found with the patrons." In those days they fed teachers according to their standing and ability and Gus has had stomach trouble ever since. One only needs to look over the contenders to know who was who in those days.

So much for our early form, on present days no one should give him a look-in. Like some of the beautiful movie morons, of which he is the physical antithesis, he has degenerated rather than advanced as an evidence of which he has taken up the law as a profession.

Those of you who are without pity and figuratively do not object to the sight of blood should come out and see the slaughter which will surely come off on Thursday, April 27th.

JACKSON COUNTY FAIR BUILDING PLANS ARRANGED

The buildings that will be built on the fair grounds will be of a substantial character. This was the decision of the directors of the fair association at their meeting last evening. Rather than build a lot of buildings in a shoddy manner, they expect to construct a few in such a manner that they will not be a source of constant expense as the cheaper kind.

Preliminary drawings and construction estimates were submitted last evening and on account of fixed charges for fences, water mains and sewer, the original plans will have to be readjusted to come within the financial means available. The association now has the plans for a working basis and these were referred to the building committee at a meeting of the stockholders of the fair Tuesday afternoon at the Medford Public Library assembly room.

The permanent improvements, which are along plain lines, but are of good architectural proportions and designs. The directors feel that the citizens of Jackson county will be exceedingly proud of these buildings upon their completion.

The stockholders meeting next Tuesday afternoon is a most important one and all members of the association are urged to be present. The election of officers for the coming year will be a part of the program.

GOOD BASEBALL IS PROMISED AT GAME TOMORROW

The Medford city team which meets Jacksonville's nine on the Oak Grove diamond Sunday afternoon has shown real class in their recent workouts and the contest tomorrow promises some baseball thrills as the Jacksonville team is said to be above the average this year.

Medford has a bunch of players that are busy all the time and some of them would put pep into a game of chess. Frank Foley, member of a well known Rogue River valley family will probably twirl for Medford and if he is "right" few hits are predicted. Foley has spent several years in semi-pro ball and only recently returned here and it is hoped that he will locate permanently as his services go a long way toward making the team the fine aggregation it is.

Montgomery and Duchine are recent comers to Medford as are also O'Brien and Higgins and these players together with men who have been the mainstay of Medford teams in the past will make up the nine tomorrow.

The lineup has not been decided upon but the following men who have all shown up well in recent work-outs will be given a chance during the game:

O'Brien, Marshall, Foley, Montgomery, McIntyre, Seeley, Fitzpatrick, Coffeen, Clark, Duchine and Higgins.

START CAMPAIGN FOR CHILDREN'S PLAYGROUND HERE

An informal, off-hand movement was inaugurated today for the establishment of a city playground for the children of Medford, while John Perl, J. W. Dressler and Mayor C. E. Gates were in casual conversation on South Riverside ave. The subject turned to the new auto camp being established by the city and naturally gravitated to the necessity of a children's public playground in the city.

All three were unanimous that such a playground would fill a long felt want in the city, properly equipped with playing apparatus and under proper supervision, in that it would keep children from playing on the streets, would promote their health and afford care-worn mothers freedom a few hours daily by knowing that their children were enjoying healthful exercises under guardianship at the public playground.

"I tell you such a playground is an absolute necessity in Medford and would do untold good," said Mr. Perl. "All the larger cities have them and the smaller cities and towns are fast establishing them. It is something we must have. Probably the city can not afford to establish a playground just now, but it can be done by private subscription. Tell you what, just to get such a movement started, I will make a $25 subscription to the cause. A few such donations and we will have a playground."

"I will make a further suggestion," said Mayor Gates, "and that is that the city devote the south half of the city park beyond the fountain to use as a playground."

And there the matter rested with the admonition to a newspaper man present to start the ball rolling, by publication of the above.

OBITUARY

BRITTSAN—Isaac F. Brittsan was born in Ohio, November 29, 1849 and died at his home, 16 Park Place, April 19, 1922, aged 72 years, 4 months, 11 days. From his native state he moved to Missouri in 1876, where he remained until 1906, when he came to Oregon, where he has been a continuous resident of Jackson county. He was converted in Ohio 52 years ago and has lived a Christian life. After coming to Oregon he united with the Free Methodist church and for several years has been a local minister of that church. His greatest aim in his work was to get men and women to come to God and be saved from sin. When the call came he was ready to go, so we do not mourn as those who have no hope, for we know our loss in his name. Although we feel our loss, we feel and know, though the body lies here, the soul is safe in Heaven. He leaves to mourn, his wife, Addie L. Brittsan, and six children, all of whom are loving, three boys and three girls. Mr. Howard T. Brittsan, Braymer, Mo.; V. E. and J. A. Brittsan of Eagle Point, Ore.; Mrs. J. H. Baxter of Medford; Mrs. T. M. McClelland, Medford; Mrs. R. M. Martin, Medford, and one brother, T. W. Brittsan, of Rogue River, Oregon, and a host of friends to mourn. The funeral service was conducted by the Weeks-Conger company at the Free Methodist church, Rev. Sharp of the Free Methodist church officiating. Interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

SPENT HALF HER TIME IN BED

Farmer's Wife Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman

Carter's Creek, Tenn.—"Three years ago I was almost an invalid. I spent half of my time in bed, being afflicted with a trouble which women of a certain age are apt to have. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a well woman now and have been for two years. I can work as well as any one who is younger and as I am a farmer's wife I have plenty to do for I cultivate my own garden, raise many chickens and do my own housework. You may publish this letter as I am ready to do anything to help other women as I have been so well and happy since my troubles are past."—Mrs. E. L. GALLOWAY, Carter's Creek, Tenn.

Most women find plenty to do. If they are upset with some female ailment and troubled with such symptoms as Mrs. Galloway had, the smallest duty seems a mountain.

If you find it hard to keep up, if you are nervous and irritable, without affliction and out of sorts generally, give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. We believe it will help you greatly, for it has helped others.

Helped Her Mother Wonderfully

In these days of "flu," coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, it is well to know that every year there are used more bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar than of any other cough medicine. Mrs. S. L. Hunt, 515 W. 6th St., Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me of a hacking, cough, tickling in the throat, wheezing and pains in the chest. It is helping my mother wonderfully." That's why druggists recommend Foley's. Sold everywhere.
