The Massachusetts Forestry association will again conduct a tour to Oregon this summer, according to John D. Guthrie of the public relations department of the forest service. According to a schedule received, the easterners will spend July 19 and 20 in Portland, July 21 and 22 at Crater lake and July 23 at Klamath Falls. In Portland they will visit lumber operations and will ride over the Columbia highway. The entire tour of the association takes in most of the national forests and national parks of the country and consumes nearly two months, from June 26 to August 17.

Medford baseball fans will open their improved baseball park next Sunday when the Grants Pass locals journey to the upper valley town to play the ball team of the Bear Creekers," says the Grants Pass Courier. "This will be the first real game of the season for the Grants Pass team as well as for the Medford nine. A fast game is assured, Jud Pernoll going in the box for the locals. The lineup consists of players who have appeared on teams here during the past few years. It is planned now to have Pernoll in the box and Al Droulette behind the plate. Infielders will be Pruitt, Gale Smith, Sammy Marker, Fultz or Ray Turner, and probable outfielders will be Droulette, Cornell and Elvis Blevins."

On account of the absence of the pastor of the Presbyterian church on May 14th which is annually observed as Mother's Day, and other plans having been laid for May 7th, this coming Sabbath, April 30th, will be observed as Mother's Day. The pastor, Rev. E. P. Lawrence asks that every mother, having children connected with the church or Sunday school or young people's societies, remember the arrangement and plan to be present. This has come to be one of the great services of the year. Every mother is asked to wear if possible a white carnation or any other white flower, and every child and husband and father the same.

Fifty men from all parts of the state previously summoned for federal grand jury service, appeared before Federal Judge R. S. Dean, in Portland, on Monday afternoon. Upon instructions from the judge the clerk drew 22 names out of the 50, after which the court excused the remaining 28, Ross M. Plummer was then named foreman of the body, after which the grand jury retired to its secret chambers for consideration of cases involving the alleged violations of federal laws. A large number of liquor and narcotic cases have been referred to the grand jury by the several United States commissioners throughout the state.

Tom Waterman has violated a tradition of the town and has destroyed one of its staunchest precedents by appearing on the streets with a straw hat surmounting his features. This is the first time in the history of the community that anyone has had the audacity to appear in a straw hat prior to the appearance of Judge Colvig, on May 1, under the above named type of headgear. Mr. Waterman has had the unmitigated temerity to appear five days in advance of the straw hat season, which is always officially opened by the judge.

Housework Is a Burden

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills, life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Medford women. Ask your neighbor! Mrs. A. E. Brown, 124 Triway St., Medford, says: "My kidneys troubled me for a long time and I became run down and suffered from nervous dizzy spells. I had no energy and often had to neglect my housework. I tired easily and my kidneys acted irregularly, and I suffered from inflammation of the bladder, too. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon relieved the trouble entirely."
