

PURPOSES OF TRI-L CLUB TRIP AROUND WORLD EXPLAINED

The Tri-L club, which is the business and professional women's club of the Y. W. C. A. is putting on their Trip Around the World for the purpose of raising money to carry on the Y. W. C. A. work.

Part of the money raised will be used for the Harriet Taylor fund. Miss Taylor is the Y. W. C. A. secretary supported by the business girls of the northwest. At present, she is in the Orient helping to organize Y. W. C. A. and carrying on the work of the Young Women's Christian association in the girls of other lands.

Also the Tri-L girls are anxious to help the local Y. W. C. A. and are planning on aiding the board by contributing as largely as possible to the local exchequer.

Extensive preparations are being made by the committees in charge of the various houses, and a splendid show is promised to all who take advantage of the Trip Around the World.

The girls are charging one dollar admission, which includes five different shows as well as refreshments. Cars will be furnished to carry guests from each home to another, or if you have your own car the Tri-L's would appreciate your bringing it.

Don't forget to get your ticket! It's going to be a good show.

U. OF O. SPEAKER AT LIBRARY TONIGHT

When the Farmer Comes to Town is the business talk that will be given this evening at the public library. It is one that every business and professional man should hear and the employees of the same institutions will find the business understanding of the relationship between the farmer and the business man.

This talk is being given by Earl Kilpatrick, the director of the extension division of the University of Oregon under the auspices of the Retail Merchants' Bureau of the Medford Chamber of Commerce.

Membership in either the Bureau or the Chamber of Commerce is not necessary to attend as this is for the benefit of every citizen of this locality. Any citizen interested in the subject is invited to be present.

SENIOR PLAY BIG HIT OF SEASON IN N. YORK CITY

"Clarence," a high farce consisting of four acts, by Booth Tarkington, has been selected as the senior class play for this year and will be given at the Page, Monday, May 1.

Under the competent supervision of Miss Baumgartner, head of the English department, it promises to be a great success.

This play was presented in the Hudson Theater of New York City and it was acclaimed the best play of its type in the 1919-1920 season.

"Clarence" is a real delight. It is an American as "Muckelberry Flim" or "Pumpkin Pie." It is as delightful as any native comedy which has tried to lure the laughter of this country in the last ten seasons.

The many character parts give his opportunity for a large cast of students to develop in dramatic work.

Tickets on sale at Crowson's and from members of the senior class. Reservations sent sale opens Saturday noon.

MEDFORD PLAYS GRANTS PASS SUN.

Medford's city baseball club has booked a game with the Grants Pass team to open the season on the home grounds next Sunday afternoon. The local management felt that the initial game played on the home diamond should be with a good visiting team as possible and in scheduling the Grants Pass team for the opener they believe they have a worthy rival.

Grants Pass defeated Medford last year by a narrow margin and the local boys are eager to meet them with the greatly strengthened team they have this season.

News that Medford has a real ball club this year is bringing inquiries from a large number of surrounding towns and the local players will be kept busy filling the dates that have already been proposed for games.

Card of Thanks
We wish to thank our kind friends for their sympathy and kindness in our bereavement, and also for the beautiful floral offerings.

MALE STYLE SHOW IN COSTUMES GIVEN AT CRATER FROLIC

Ladies' night at the Craters last evening was a scream. The entertainment feature was a style show in costumes given by the Craters Frolic club.

The costumes were displayed by the following models: Larry Mann, A. H. Cunningham, Cole Holmes, Carl Y. Tomwald, Bert Orr, J. J. Buchter, and Michael Jacolin. Vern Vawter was the traveling salesman.

Following the reception, a dinner was served during which C. M. Thomas welcomed the ladies to this annual event. Gus Newbury took five minutes to explain that he could not crack any jokes on account of his fog horn voice which attached itself to him at his recent illness.

Vocal solos were given by Wm. Vawter and W. P. Harris and the Craters with the assistance of the ladies sang their songs under the direction of Paul McDonald.

A communication was read from Maggie Jiggs which was addressed to the ladies. This advocated the formation of the Married Women's Protective association to counteract the formation of any more lodges to keep the husbands out at night.

Great credit for this successful entertainment was due the committee in charge. They were Chester Barr, Herb Launsbach, C. C. Lemmon, Thomas Swen, Paul McDonald, Alex Sparrow, Louis Ulrich and Floyd Hart.

The next meeting of the Craters will be held on May 9th at which time all candidates for political office will be the invited guests.

SCOTLAND YARDS AFTER N. Y. ROBBER

NEW YORK, April 27.—The daring $70,000 jewel robbery in Washington Square, April 2, in which Albert R. Shattuck, his wife and eight servants were locked in a who vault in their home while a band of apaches plundered the house, today took on an international aspect when it was learned that the retired banker had sailed for Europe to enlist the aid of Scotland Yard and the Paris police in tracking the alleged ringleader, Henri Boliat, a runaway butler. Shattuck was reported to have received information from a French source that the butler, already under indictment, had sailed for France to dispose of the stolen jewelry.

Maurice Dagnolia and Evonilo Daisett, locked up after they were alleged by the police to have confessed their part in the robbery, are quoted as saying that Boliat took the greater part of the loot.

AUTO DEALERS FACE TRUST LAW

MADISON, Wis., April 26.—The Wisconsin Automobile Dealers association, organized for the purpose of fixing prices for used cars through dissemination of trade information, was held to be in restraint of trade and illegal under the state anti-trust law by Attorney General Morgan in an opinion today.

SCREEN

The Call to Home, Page
Leon Barry and Ramsey Wallace have the greatest roles in their screen careers in "The Call to Home," a spectacular film drama now on view at the Page theatre. The production brings to life the great story of George Agnew Chamberlain, "Home," on which the photoplay is founded. There are thrills galore. The flood scene, in which a swollen torrent bursts a sluice gate and rushes on its way of destruction, affords a moment of intense drama, especially when Wallace is flung into the raging waters and is carried downstream on the swirling tide. Barry, once leading man for Sarah Bernhardt and Madame Rejane and one of the most important figures on the Parisian stage, brings to the American screen a personality at once forceful and charming. Wallace, who has appeared in many notable productions, gives a well-nigh matchless interpretation as the husband.

"Cameron of the Mounted"
For the first time in the history of the Royal Mounted of Canada, this world famed body of Scarlet Riders has lent its assistance to the realistic filming of a screen drama, namely

"Cameron of the Royal Mounted," which opens today at the Rialto theatre for a four days run.

Members of the Royal Mounted have been impersonated by actors appearing in several stories, but until the filming of "Cameron of the Royal Mounted," official authority had always been withheld.

of the mountains and plains the audience beheld for the first time in a feature picture, the actual work of these fighters in an emergency. Their skilled work in rounding up revolting sands of Stony and Cree Indians and keeping renegades from breaking the law is one of the most realistic and absolutely truthful film episodes that has ever been chronicled.

A GENUINE PRODUCTION BEGINS TODAY

Do you like screen entertainment that is real—with gloriously beautiful outdoor settings, characters that are real and a story by a man who lived there—where even a real company of mounted police were used by special courtesy to the author? Then this is meant for you.

RALPH CONNOR

and Robt. W. Service are the greatest writers of the north country, because they have lived it; and Ralph Connor knows this country as no other writer in the world. He has made this story vivid with reality—a masterpiece of genuine adventure.

First to establish the $10.90 price—"Usco"

THE makers of U. S. Tires made this announcement last November—

"Hereafter the price of the 30x3½ 'Usco' is $10.90."

The lowest price ever quoted on a tire of quality reputation and standard performance.

And now, with the opening of Spring, there seem to be quite a number of "New and Special tires" coming into the market in the $10.90 price range.

Perhaps you are wondering just what there can be either "new" or "special" about these tires.

It can't be the $10.90 price—"Usco" established that five months ago.

Nor quality reputation and standard performance—for it takes more than one full season for any new tire to demonstrate where it stands in quality and value.

With so many tires rushing into this $10.90 price
