Ye Smudge Pot

The bees are busy working. They are very foolish to do it under the present capitalistic system of government, which is so oppressive that the hellraising rights of foreign residents are unrestricted, and any native can run for office if he has the modest filing fee in hand.

The Oklahoma minister who is defending his sermons with a pistol, will be tempted one of these sunny Sundays to take up a collection with a sawed-off shotgun. When religion gets so strenuous that it is necessary to preach it with a sawed-off shotgun ready for action, it is about time to modify it.

OH, DOT! OH, DOT! (Salem Capital Journal) Leon Polka, of Walla Walla, Washington, was in Salem over the week end for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Polka, on Myrtle avenue.

Owing to the smudging season being in force the aged and snow white canine of Judge Colvig is now appearing in blackface.

The farmer is beginning to amount to something. Candidates for office are cultivating his good will, while the former is plowing.

The establishment of a monarchy in the U. S. was discussed at a meeting of Poles et al in New York. This is about as fool a notion as could be conceived by the human mind, but, it is safe to bet a handful of Oregonians are in favor of it.

The items in the city papers about war brides committing suicide or getting divorces are thinning out.

THE SKEPTIC (Eugene Register) John Edwards has returned after spending a week on his ranch at Draft. He said he did some real work, but of course we have our doubts.

An autoist paid attention to the watchman at the Main Stem crossing Thurs. eve, and hence will be able to run his 4d, all day Sun.

Charges that hundreds of millions of dollars of bogus duplicate bonds flood the country is alarming. It happened in 1920, when we "were a forward looking people," and nothing mattered but a "mandate for Armenia."

FOR CULTURITS-HORTI (John Burroughs Memoirs) In an orchard of apple trees some of the fruit is wormy, some scabbed, some dwarfed from one cause or another; but Nature approves the worm, and the fungus that makes the scab, and the aphid that makes the dwarf, just as sincerely as she approves the perfect fruit.

Conditions in Mexico promise to arise at an early date. A crisis in Mexico is all that is lacking in a troubled world. For two years Mexico has been running a race with Jacksonville for the being quiet medal.

The Baptist conference for the Mid. West suggests that the "salvation of the boys and girls" rests entirely with the parents. This is a direct contradiction of the modern idea that after a child has been taken to a baby clinic, he or she is left in charge of the police till old enough to vote the republican ticket.

A NAME FOR YOU (Pendleton Tribune) When Messrs. Swartz and Gustafson start printing their weekly Rieth paper, every one is due to sit tight or set a write up. It is understood that the paper will be christened "The Rieth Throw-Up."

A HINT TO PRIMARY CANDIDATES.

POLITICIANS are very much like pugilists. Before the event, they are always going to win. Candidates are coming to this office pretty regularly these days and we have only found one who is not already elected. Each one is a master of what is known in drummer's circles as the pepful approach. A hearty handshake, an ingratiating smile, overflowing good nature and vitality, either genuine or assumed. And the result? All over but the shouting. Nature herself is conspiring for my success, Marion county. Clatsop, Multnomah, solid, my dear sir, solid, the only question is right here in Southern Oregon, and with your invaluable support, etc., etc., etc.

With one or two exceptions, all candidates might have just graduated from the same school. We are not complaining. This fidelity to well established political traditions, injects a little humor into a situation, which otherwise would be unbearable.

But sometimes we wonder. Perhaps a candidate who would admit there was no popular uprising which had forced him in the race, that while many people said many kind things, he might lose by a nose in the final shuffle, perhaps such a candidate would be beaten at the outset, just as a pugilist, who isn't going to make mince-meat of his opponent, might better never enter the ring.

But, to repeat, we sometimes wonder. There is such a thing as a worm turning, there is also such a thing as the public suddenly going wild about a novelty. Take the radio for example. The country is radio wild, simply because, until recently, no one ever heard of such a thing.

How can anyone know, therefore, what effect a candidate would have, who broke free from all traditions, and frankly proclaimed he was in the race because he wanted the job, and while only a one to six shot, he was good sport enough to take a chance.

We know one newspaper at least that would publish his picture on the front page and put his story on the A. P. wire.

Quill Points

If a man wants to borrow trouble the world stands ready to give him credit.

With Russian rubles down to about ten cents a ton—why worry about coal?

A man's bankroll quite often is washed away in a flood of his wife's tears.

Hang it; the next time we have a war, let's work it on the pay-as-you-enter plan.

Some people think "cigaret" must end in "te," and some think it must end in T. B.

Whatever a man soweth probably won't come up. But gardening is good exercise, anyhow.

A muskrat makes the same set of furs last a whole year. But who wants to marry a muskrat?

Every little bit added to the places you've already been bit, makes life just a little bit bitter.

Old lady to street car conductor: "What do you start this car with?" Conductor: "With a jerk, ma'am."

Add agricultural statistics. America produces more "Don'ts" to the acre than any other country in the world.

Hating the ape-descent theory as he does, perhaps Mr. Bryan will start a movement to abolish the name of the present month.

Margot is going to write a book about America. Thanks, we don't care for one. We know little enough about our country as it is.

Rippling Rhymes

MAN WANTED.

SOMETIMES wish that I could find a patient man and strong, a fellow of receptive mind, who'd listen all day long, while I relate how tough I feel, describe the aches and pangs that torture me from roof to heel, and hurt my ancient fangs. I know it isn't good or wise to tell such tales as these to neighbor people, who despise all stories of disease. The cops at once imphantly grow, when I get on their beat, and spring my narrative of woe, of aching head and feet. I tried it on a crippled gent who could not get away, and on my head his staff was bent; it spoiled for both a day. And strangers, when they hear me talk, remark, "You are a bore; you'd better take a good long walk and come this way no more." And yet I feel the pressing need of some one who will hear my tales of vitals gone to seed, of toothache in my ear; of all the divers aches and pains my system can disclose; of fever in my seething veins and chillblains in my nose. I'd pay a man a decent wage if he would calmly sit and listen to me while I rage about my latest fit. But no one seems to want the job, men sigh and turn it down; I've offered it to every swab who hangs around the town. The poorest fellow shakes his head, and says, with aspect sour, "No! Either you or I'd be dead before you'd talked an hour."

Catholics Believe Christ

Instituted seven Sacraments—Baptism, Confirmation, Penance (Confession), Holy Eucharist (Mass and Holy Communion), Extreme Unction, Holy Orders and Matrimony. These Sacraments are seven channels whereby God's grace is communicated to our souls. (The Sacraments are treated clearly and fully in Cardinal Gibbons' book, "Faith of Our Fathers," published by John Murphy Co., Baltimore, Md.)

Would Rather Fight Than Work

"I suffered for years with stomach trouble and could not eat and just hated for anyone to say work to me. I would rather fight. Since taking a course of Mays' Wonderful Remedy I actually want to work, and talk about eat. I am the last one to leave the table now." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Adv.

Gorn's Vanish When Touched With 'Gets-IT'

As a sponge absorbs water, so does "Gets-IT" absorb and draw out of any tender corn, big or little, all pain and soreness. It never fails. "Gets-IT" is the original corn and callus peeler. Be sure to ask for it by name and refuse substitutes. Money back if not satisfied. Costs but a trifle—everywhere. E. Lawrence & Co., Inc., Chicago.

Foreign Advertisers Recognize Growing Value of Mail Tribune

The circulation of this paper is not only increasing daily but its popularity as an advertising medium is rapidly increasing, not only at home, but with national advertisers.

It has for years carried more local and national advertising than any other paper in Southern Oregon and Northern California.

This is particularly due to the fact that it is the only paper between Eugene and Sacramento, Calif., a distance of over 500 miles, that has leased wire Associated Press news and because it has more than double the number of readers of any other paper published or circulated in the city or county.

- The following is a list of the National advertisers who have either renewed contracts or made new contracts with this paper recently: Royal Baking Powder Co. Kingsford's Corn Starch. Essex Cans. Maxwell Autos. Geo. Washington Coffee. Prest-O-Lite Batteries. Packard Autos. Hill Brothers Coffee. W. C. Clemens Medical Products. K. C. Baking Powder. Budweiser. Red Crown Gasoline. Zeralene. Chesterfield Cigarettes. Cyclo. 11 Cigarettes. Lucky Strike Cigarettes.
