

ATTRACTIONS AT CHAUTAUQUA TO BE HIGH GRADE

The Chautauqua season of 1922 is an important one in the history of the Ellison-White Lyceum and Chautauqua association as it is the tenth anniversary of the establishing of their Chautauqua business in the west.

A wealth of musical and entertainment features and a lecture list that will open up many new lines of thought and observation is apparent from a glance at the list of attractions offered.

"Turn to the Right," the greatest of all American plays—sweet, clear, wholesome and inspiring—will probably draw the biggest crowd of the week. It is to be produced by the well known Keikley Broadway players of New York City.

Two high class musical attractions noted are the Steelman-Herrington-Taylor Trio, a popular group of New York vocalists, and the New York Concert Quartet, unhesitatingly proclaimed one of America's finest male singing organizations.

Then, there's the Jugo-Slav Orchestra, a distinct novelty, which promises to be one of the season's hits; an orchestra of five young artists from Jugo-Slavia, singing their native melodies and folk-songs and playing their quaint, yet beautiful toned "tamburians," the household instruments of southern Europe.

Of interest, too, will be the character recital of A. Mather Hillburn, characterist, and also the programs of the Battling-Mahler Duo, also the miscellaneous program of Margaret Garrison, talented young western reader, should be mentioned; and the scientific demonstration of the Glenn L. Morris company.

The lecturers loom up on the list of good things promised. The name of Arthur Walwyn Evans is a familiar one on the program. He is a Welsh orator, brilliant, eloquent and inspiring. Of especial import, too, is the lecture of Chancellor George Henry Bradford, "This Way Up," one of the most soul inspiring addresses ever given on the Chautauqua program.

The Junior Chautauqua, as usual, will be a real feature, and already the youngsters of the community are making their plans for daily attendance.

BIG PRIZE LIST FOR BALL GAME TOMORROW P. M.

The game between Grants Pass and Medford Sunday afternoon is expected to reveal the standing of baseball in Medford. If there is sufficient interest and attendance at the game those who have worked hard to revive the sport here feel that their belief that Medford will support a good club will be justified.

The players will have plenty of marks to shoot at, for besides the paramount issue of winning the game about $25 in merchandise has been put up by local concerns in prizes.

Sam Richardson (Model clothing store) offers a $1.50 necktie to the player making the first home run. The Nash barber shop will also give the first player to do a "Babe Ruth" a haircut and shave.

The first player to score a run gets a fine hair brush from Brown and Brown.

Louis Ulrich has put up a 2 1/2 lb. can of his best coffee to quiet the nerves of the player making the first three base hit.

The Golden Rule store donates a $1.00 belt for the first two base hit. Mann's store believes the first safe hit should entitle the player to a $1.50 pair of silk socks.

Five gallons of the Associated Oil company's gas may be won by driving in the first run.

Ed Lamport will give a $1.50 knife to the first player to steal a base.

Gaten & Lydlard offer a can of maple syrup for the first sacrifice hit and The Oaks restaurant will slip a couple of Vandykes to the first man who walks.

Dr. Johnson gives $10 in dental work to the first Medford player who scores a run and $5 in services for the first two base hit.

The Yankee Do-Nut shop will have five dozen of their choicest sinkers for the home team player who hits the first circuit drive.

The line up of the two teams will be as follows: Medford—O'Brien, c; Foley, p; Seely, 1b; McIntyre (manager) 2b; Montgomery 3b; Fitzpatrick ss; Coffey lf; Higgins, cf; Marshall, rf; Subs Clark, Henselman.

Grants Pass—Druelette, c; Prulet, p; Foltz, 1b; Druelette, 2b; Gail-smith, 3b; Marker, ss; Cornell, cf; Pernoll (manager) lf; Turner, rf.

The game will be called promptly at 2:30 p. m. on the North Holly street grounds. Tickets may be purchased in advance of the game at the Yankee Do-Nut Shop and Brown & Brown. Adults 50 cents; children 25 cents.

KOLB AND DILL, PAGE THURSDAY, MAY 11

Kolb & Dill in "Give and Take," a three act comedy with musical trimmings, attractive girls and their own selected orchestra will be the attraction at the Page on Thursday, May 11th.

Grading Fair Grounds More Teams Wanted

In order that all grading and leveling at the county fair grounds may be done at the minimum of expense, one of the large county road outfits with a tractor will be used there next week.

For the past ten days a number of teams and men have been at work leveling a part of the ground in which the big outfit could not operate to advantage. A drainage ditch is to be enlarged and a good many teams will be required when the tractor outfit gets to work to do the leveling and tilling necessary in the construction of the track and roadways.
