Ye Smudge Pot

The Sanity League has been formed in this state, and will participate in the forthcoming campaign, but so far nobody has gone crazy over it.

The 14 year old infant of San Jose, Calif., who admitted the bright sunshine into the anatomy of her 17 year old caretaker, with a .44, will be married to him. The bullets will sing on their silver plated pistol anniversary.

"Oh how I wish America was here!" wailed Lloyd George at the Genoa confab. It would have been nice, with some nation present worth skinning.

You may not know it, but according to his own military self, Adjutant General White, gubernatorial candidate, "is sweeping the state like a prairie fire." The adjutant thinks he is running in Kansas, and when the votes are counted will discover that what he mistook for a conflagration was an incipient blaze among a bunch of tumble weeds.

As far as the authorities can ascertain none of the Galsheviki in this neck of the woods have become implicated in the name written on the knee fashion nuttiness, and, if so, the job has been done with invisible ink.

VICISSITUDES OF LIFE (Zanesville, O., Register) Miss Maybelle Collins has sued John L. Nelson at Columbus for $5000 damages as the result of an accident on the bathing beach toboggan at Buckeye Lake last July. Miss Collins says she picked up a splinter while sliding down the toboggan, severely injuring her dignity.—(Sub. EPR.)

The much cursed and alleged glorious Oregon system faces a surgical operation at the next session of the legislature, which will be good news to everybody but the chronic office-seekers, with an incurable mania for holding an official position. As the solons who will do the whacking are the chief benefactors from the fool law, the popul will have to be satisfied with the knowledge that it will be impossible to make it a bigger joke than it is now.

Grass is coming up fine, which insures plenty of grass fires next Aug. The front of the Hairy Walther lighthouse and several of the younger set have a fresh coat of paint.

Tong wars continue among the Irish, and grave fears are entertained lest they do something sensible.

AN ACCOMPLISHED VEHICLE (Mail Tribune) The advertising truck for the Fisher's mills at Portland, were in Phoenix Tuesday and painted a fine large sign on the Phoenix warehouse.

Spring vegetables are sprouting off of the ground, as is their wont, and in accordance with an old established custom.

Who can remember when the leading citizens used to fight with each other over who was going to win the wall game Sunday?

Hopes are still being entertained by the Administration and European diplomats that the world will wobble along till the 1923 graduating classes get on the market with a new supply of salvation for all earthly woes.

ANOTHER CARELESS CUSS (Eugene Guard) P. A. Wilmoth from Greeley, Colo., formerly of Broken Bow, Neb., is in town. He accidentally ran across Judge H. J. Shinn, whom he once knew in Nebraska.

Heat in hotel radiators guests and patrons telephoned for last December, showed up this am.

WHILE ROME BURNS.

A GOOD BOOK once caused a war. Perhaps a good book can prevent one. At any rate sending a copy of Lothrop Stoddard's "The Rising Tide of Color" to the Genoa Conference, would do no harm and might do great good.

For all portends from the Genoa conference, indicate trouble. One can discern no spirit of peace, no hope of a satisfactory settlement, merely a stimulation of old hatreds, leading eventually to open conflict.

Mr. Stoddard's book is a scientific diagnosis of the present world situation, designed not to arouse race hatreds, but to allay them by judicious action, and particularly to impress the white race with the necessity of white peace, if the collapse of Anglo Saxon civilization is to be averted.

The great war is vividly depicted as merely a process of white race suicide. Another war in Europe, he maintains,—and his contention is most convincing,—would so weaken the dikes against a brown and yellow tidal wave, supported by an Islamic uprising, that only a miracle could prevent inundation.

The necessity of somehow and in some way, restoring peace in Europe, returning the nations to harmony, and constructive pursuits, instead of destructive ones, is so graphically presented in this book that no one can read it without regarding the present hodge podge at Genoa as the gibberings of moral maniacs.

A common danger makes the whole world kin. One feels that if the nations represented at Genoa, could only see the danger facing all of them, they would forget their petty differences and jealousies, their hatreds and fears, and set about putting their house in order. For the strongest instinct in the human race supports such a course,—the instinct of self preservation.

Quill Points

Europe's intentions are good. She'd much rather owe it to us than cheat us out of it.

And where, now, is the oldfash butcher who used to save the dogment for the dogs?

Advice to motorists on the back seat: When you see a policeman coming, always release your clutch.

"Elevate the pedestrian," says the Digest. Something along that line is being accomplished now. The dead shall rise.

Judging from the divorce news, about the worst thing one can put on a love letter is stamps.

An explorer reports the finding of a two-faced girl in Africa. Tell us, kind sir—has she two tongues?

And where, now, is the old-fashioned couple who went ahead and got married just because they happened to be engaged?

Why won't they sell a man liquor to kill himself with when they gladly sell him a gun to kill a neighbor?

The human race, as a cynic might define it: A large group of higher animals who spend their lives killing each other's time.

Desire for re-election is quite commendable, considering it's the only thing under the sun upon which the senate can unanimously agree.

One way of looking at it: "Why should the government take my money by taxation? The government already has more money than I have."

Another thing that adds no little to the gayety of nations is the sight of an emancipated and independent suffragette suing for divorce on the grounds of non-support.

Rippling Rhymes

THE FACE you wear was Nature's gift; and it may be, perhaps, that people who before you drift may have more handsome maps. But let this not disturb your rest, don't dope your face with drugs; for Nature knows just what is best when she distributes mugs. My frontispiece I thought too fierce; inspired by foolish hope, I sent away and got a tierce of Johnson's Beauty Dope. I spread the mixture on my brow, and on my cheeks and chin; "I will be fairly dazzling now," I said, and rubbed it in. I spread the ointment on my ears, and put some on my nose, and dreamed of going down the years as lovely as a rose. But all my dreams were doomed to smash, they died upon a day; the Beauty Dope brought out a rash that will not go away. And old friends view my face with grief; their gibes I've long endured; "You're looking like a side of beef that wasn't rightly cured." My skin has an unwholesome shine and sealy is my crown; my nose is slightly out of line, my mouth is upside down. Could I but have the useful face I had on that bright day, before I vainly tried to chase its blemishes away! I would not touch it up with grease, or paint, or pink or white, but let it be, and live in peace, and have sweet dreams at night.

Baptism

The Catholic Church teaches that the Sacrament of Baptism is absolutely necessary for salvation. Christ Himself—not the Catholic Church—imposed this condition. John 3-5, "Verily verily, I say unto thee, except one be born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." Since Baptism is so necessary, any person, in case of grave emergency, can baptize another, by having the proper intention and pouring water on the head of the person, saying at the same time, "I baptize thee, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost." Matt. 28-19.

ELK CREEK

Geo. Hall and Earl Hutchinson were Trail visitors Sunday. George is still pegging away on his ditch. Fred Sturgis has hauled several loads of hay the past week for his stock. Gordon Miller brought his sister, Mrs. B. Sement, to see her mother, who resides on Elk creek. They came in his Ford, which has been recently purchased. Inez Willits visited Mr. and Mrs. Dave Pence Wednesday, the 26th. The Elk Creek school has sent a sample of their drinking water, which is obtained from Elk creek, to the state board of health. Mrs. P. E. Sandoz with a few of her boys, went to Trail Saturday, the 22d. Mrs. Sandoz and Mrs. Wagner were visitors at the school last week.

Notice Policy Holders Western Union Life

I want to thank you for the confidence you have shown me in giving the splendid business you have. I want you to know that I deeply appreciate it, and that no company can give you a better policy than you have in The Western Union Life. I want you to know that at all times I am ready and willing to render the same service that I have given my patrons the past nineteen years; a service which is so necessary in carrying an Insurance Policy. I make the above announcement because after May 1st, my sons and I will have the management of Northern California and Southern Oregon, with the same offices, for the Pacific Mutual Life, of Los Angeles. This Old Line Legal Reserve Company, founded in 1868, needs no introduction, as its loans, investments and deposits here are near the half million mark, and are growing daily. They write all forms of both dividend and non-dividend bearing policies. Low cost, best service. Adv. J. H. COCHRAN.

Helped Her Mother Wonderfully In these days of "flu," coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, it is well to know that every year there are used more bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar than of any other cough medicine. Mrs. S. L. Hunt, 515 W. 6th St., Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me of a hacking cough, tickling in the throat, wheezing and pains in the chest. It is helping my mother wonderfully." That's why druggists recommend Foley's. Sold everywhere. Adv.

F. P. Salter and Joe Hibbard have bought the 5 1/2 acre McCall tract of land near Prospect and will build summer homes on it this season.

Fithian Supporters Demand Resignation Chairman Tongue

PORTLAND, Ore., April 29.—Charging that Thomas H. Tongue, chairman of the republican state central committee has violated "the principles of the republican party" and "the American spirit of fair play," by using the power of his organization to elect Ralph E. Williams as national committee man, republicans from all sections of the state today forwarded to Tongue a petition asking him to resign and that the committee elect a neutral chairman to succeed him. O. H. Fithian is a candidate against Williams and the petition charges that Tongue is signing as chairman of the committee the literature issued for Williams and is trying to whip the committee machinery into line for Williams.

ELECT R. H. PARSONS 1ST VICE-PRESIDENT

SPOKANE, April 29.—Charles B. Hurley of Tacoma was elected president of the Columbia Basin Irrigation League at a meeting of the board of trustees here today. Ten of the 16 trustees representing eight congressional districts of Washington, Oregon and northern Idaho were present. Other officers elected were: Reginald H. Parsons, Seattle; first vice president; H. D. McMillan, Ephrata, second vice president; C. Detering, Portland, third vice president; Earl E. Farnin, Sand Point, Idaho, fourth vice president; James A. Ford, Spokane, secretary.

JOHNNY CARLSON IS WINNER, PORTLAND

PORTLAND, April 29.—Johnny Carlson of Medford beat Fred Farrelly, a local lightweight, in a four round bout here last night. Carlson was fast and aggressive throughout.

The Georgetown star scored a minimum of eight points with Bonaritz of Mühlenberg college second with 17 points. Charles West of Washington and Jefferson college was third with 18 points. Legendre won three firsts, the broad jump, javelin throw and 200 meter sprint. He was second in the discus throw and third in the 1500 meter race.

H. S. Star to Go East. LOS ANGELES, April 29.—Clayence (Bud) Houser, of Oxnard, high school who holds the world interscholastic mark in the discus throw, will give eastern fans an opportunity to see him in action soon. The young phenom who is still in his teens, will go to Chicago to compete in the international scholastic track and field meet on May 27.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES

Since the settled weather Riverside ranchers are very busy with their spring work. L. P. Pickett came down from the sheep camp Wednesday for a week's visit at home and in the meantime will move his family to Medford if a suitable house can be procured. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Engel and son were callers at the Grant Matthews home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wabl were Medford visitors Wednesday. Mrs. Wabl stayed over until Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wabl and attended the Eastern Star Chapter Wednesday evening. Mrs. Rose Gay is reported as on the sick list. Charles and Pauline Champlin are suffering with pink eye. Little Nell, the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray, is quite ill. We are glad to report that he is a very little better, and we hope for his speedy recovery. Adeline Elliott returned Sunday from a short visit in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Schaffer, Florence and Leonard Schaffer of Grants Pass spent Sunday at the Grant Matthews home. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Champlin were Grants Pass visitors Friday. The Recreation club were very delightfully entertained Thursday p. m. by Mrs. C. C. Furnas and her mother, Mrs. Acker at the Barnum apartments in Medford. After the business meeting and social hour, a very delicious lunch was served. The dances given by the Community club last Saturday evening, was very well attended, over two hundred being present, and all enjoyed the usual good time. The next dance will be May 6. The Gold Hill branch of the Jackson County Public Health association held the first meeting of the year, Friday, April 21 at Rosalis Ranch, the home of Mrs. Gay and Miss Harper on Riverside. Miss Pauline, the county nurse, gave an interesting outline of the work she is doing, going over the annual report and illustrating instances where help was most needed and appreciated. Mrs. Noble, president of the association, also told of the good they were doing and the great need of more financial backing for the buying of supplies, etc. Riverside community was well represented by a large attendance, but the Sams valley and Gold Hill districts did not give the support that the meeting deserved. There were a few from Gold Hill, but Sams valley was not represented by a single member. Those who have the opportunity to attend future meetings should make a special effort to be on hand and learn of the good work of the 22 who were present "signed up" to become members of the association, a fact which shows that the association is deserving of the support of every community. After the meeting a light lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Gay, who is vice-president of this district. The next meeting will be held in about three months, the exact date to be announced later.

Mr. Williams is Re-elected. Recognition by the republican national committee of the high order of ability and untiring service of Mr. Williams to the party resulted in his election to the vice-chairmanship of the republican national committee, an honor never before conferred upon a western man. This reflects credit not only upon himself, but upon the state of Oregon. "It is one of influence secured only by painstaking labor and years of service. It means much to the state, and it would be a serious mistake at this time for the republican voters of Oregon to defeat Mr. Williams and elect a new man who would be at the foot of the committee instead of the vice-chairman." —Portland Oregonian.

At the Page The feature attraction at the Page theatre today and tomorrow, heading a bill of other superior short reel attractions, is "The Right That Failed," starring Bert Lytell. The popular star has a vehicle here which well expresses his talent and personality. It may be said that it affords him as ideal a role as he has ever had. The picture presents an interesting comedy idea with the star enacting the part of a "young white hope."

He suffered an injury to his hand in putting "The Kid" to sleep, which gave him time to pay attention to social duties. Eager to renew his acquaintance with a society girl whom he had rescued from the arm of the law, he goes to a health resort. Meanwhile he had brushed up in department. Johnny, our hero, gets in bad when certain people attempt to paint him in wrong colors. But he comes up smiling. A cast that includes Virginia Valli, DeWitt Jennings, Bull Montana, Otis Harlan and Max Davidson.

Glady's Walton, who has gained more fame as a delineator of flapper figures than any other actress of the stage or screen, is the star of "Playing with Fire," the comedy drama coming to the Rialto theatre tomorrow. Supporting her are many popular players, including William Conely, Harold Miller, Kathryn McGuire, Eddie Gribbin, Hayward Mack, Sydney Franklin, Harriet Laurel, Lydia Knott, Ellnor Hancock and Danny Hoy.

TONGUE REBUKES FALSE REPORTS

Rumors of Opposition Are Called Malicious

Rejection of Present National Committeeman Is Declared Favored by Senator.

"With circulation, both in the press and by passing the word along" has been given a malicious report originated by the opponents of Ralph E. Williams, to the effect that Senator McNary questions the loyalty of Mr. Williams and is opposed to his reelection as republican national committeeman," said Thomas H. Tomrue, Jr., republican state chairman.

While in Portland on business Wednesday, State Chairman Tongue took occasion to give the rumor "one on the chin." "I know this report to be absolutely false and untrue," continued Mr. Tomrue. "The story is unauthorized, unfounded and underhand. It is election propaganda pure and simple, created for a purpose, and should not mislead the friends of Senator McNary nor anyone else."

Part in Contest Denied. In a telegram to me, bearing date of April 22, 1922, Senator McNary said:

"Am taking no part in contest for national committeeman nor in any other political contest. Indeed, no one has ever requested an expression from me concerning any of the candidates and I have authorized no one to speak for me."

"I positively know from recent correspondence with the senator that he not only does not question the loyalty of Mr. Williams, but feels exceedingly friendly to him."

"Since his election as republican national committeeman for Oregon, Mr. Williams has done everything in his power to build up the republican party, to do away with factional differences, to secure harmony and to elect the entire republican ticket at every election."
