Tomorrow Is Circus Day

The big outdoor event of the season, the visit of the Al G. Barnes four ring wild animal circus, takes place tomorrow in Medford when this fine organization visits here and gives two performances at 2 and 8 p. m.

Each performance opens with the circus fairyland fantasy. Alice in Jungleland specially written for the Barnes circus. All the wild animals in the show, the hundreds of beautiful horses and the many pretty girls, take part in this imposing musical spectacle and there are also 100 specially trained ballet girls. Then follow the 100 odd other acts in this sensational and remarkable show.

Street parade: There will be a street parade tomorrow morning commencing from the circus lot at half past ten o'clock. This year's parade is longer and more majestic than in any previous year for Mr. Barnes has added to his already fine show many new animals and other performers. The wild animals will be seen in their open dens (excepting Tusko, the world's largest elephant who does not parade) while there are six bands in as many new tableau wagons, the wonderful circus horses and the people of the white tops. The parade after leaving the circus lot goes along South Holly St. down Main street, then to the Natatorium, up Sixth to Front, west on Main to Oakdale and back to the circus lot.

The Cleanest Farms In Any Community

FORDSON farms have that reputation. Early fall plowing is what keeps these farms free of weeds.

"That's easy to talk about, but how are you going to plow when the ground is so hard and dry, and the weather so hot that a team can't work?" That, probably is your objection to the formula.

"Use a Fordson-Oliver Plowing Outfit," is the answer. Heat and hard soil and dry weather don't bother a bit when you use Fordson power instead of horses. Early fall plowing with a Fordson tractor and an Oliver No. 7 plow will enable you to turn over the soil the time you know it will do the most good.
