CANDIDATE HALL WANTS SUPPORT OF THE KU KLUX

Denying that he is a member of the Ku Klux Klan, or has been formally giving the secret orders support, Charles Hall of Marshfield, candidate for the republican nomination for governor, was in Medford today, and admitted to a representative of the Mail Tribune, that he had been told the Klan was solid for him and hoped they were, as that meant his certain nomination.

"I have been given the endorsement of the Federated Patriotic Societies of Portland," said Mr. Hall, "but as far as I know the K. K. K. is not included in that combination. But I hope the K. K. K. will support me for I hear there are thousands of them, and such support will make my nomination certain."

"I might also say the negro porters are going to vote for me, and at least two members of the Knights of Columbus. The bill for compulsory public school attendance has my unequalled support and will be passed by a big majority. The Masonic orders in the state are solidly behind it."
