PEKIN FALLS, AMERICANS UNDER FIRE

Soldiers Rush U. S. Section of Peking, Driven Off By Machine Guns—Protest Filed By U. S. A. and Foreign Powers—Hostilities May End With City's Capture.

PEKING, May 5.—(By the Associated Press)—General Wu Pei Fu was in control of Peking at noon today and General Chang Tso Lin, whose forces he routed yesterday in a fierce battle south of the capital, was reported fleeing to Mukden. Chang's army is retreating in disorder toward Tien Tsin.

PEKING, May 5.—(By the Associated Press)—With 50,000 troops, General Wu encircled Chang Tso Lin's forces outside Peking and after fifteen hours of relentless cannonading and machine gun fire, routed his opponent, making himself the master of the capital.

General Wu attributes much of his success to the initiative of Feng You-shiang, "the Christian general," who commanded the operations which resulted in the retreat eastward of Chang's army.

General Wu has sent officers into Peking to consult with the government authorities after his victory. General Wu's officers declared the Chihli commander could be expected in the capital soon.

TURKS KICK OUT FOUR AMERICAN RELIEF WORKERS

U. S. Surgeons and Directors Deported By Sultan's Army Officers—Frightful Conditions Described By Party—Immediate Assistance Im-Assistance Imperative.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—Four American relief workers have arrived here after having been deported from Kharput, Turkish Armenia, 59 miles north of Diarbekr. They are F. B. Yowell of Washington, director of the Kharput unit; Dr. Mark L. Ward of Newton Center, Mass., chief surgeon; Dr. Ruth Parmelee of Boston, medical director and Miss Isabel Harley of Pawtucket, R. I.

Mr. Yowell in a statement issued today charged the Turks with unjust and unfriendly treatment of Americans and cruelty and outrages against Christians in Asia Minor.

The American deportations were the culmination of a long series of unfriendly acts, he said. "They are the prelude to fresh Turkish outrages against Christians in Asia Minor. The Turks, encouraged by the vacillations of the allies during the post-armistice period, are getting bolder in their intolerance against the minorities. Unless outside interference is forthcoming the final chapter in the history of Christians will shortly be completed.

Armenians in Slavery "The Armenians in the district are in a state of virtual slavery. They are not permitted to travel within the country and I have had to return $75,000 to people in America who forwarded it to pay the traveling expenses of relatives desiring to leave the country. All the property of Armenians, victims of deportations, is confiscated by the Turks. The Armenians are denied the use of the courts. Christian women are forced into harems without their right of appeal to any tribunal.

"The condition of the Greeks is worse than that of the Armenians. The sufferings of the Greeks deported from the districts behind the battle front continues. Of the 30,000 who left Sivas, 5,000 died before reaching Kharput. One American worker saw 1500 dead on the road to Kharput. Two thousand died in Kharput during the winter and 3,000 died on the roads east of Kharput. "The deported people were aided at the American corn stations located along the road from Sivas to Diarbekr. In the Kharput district, relief was given in opposition to the Turks. Turks were permitted to select women and girls along the roads.

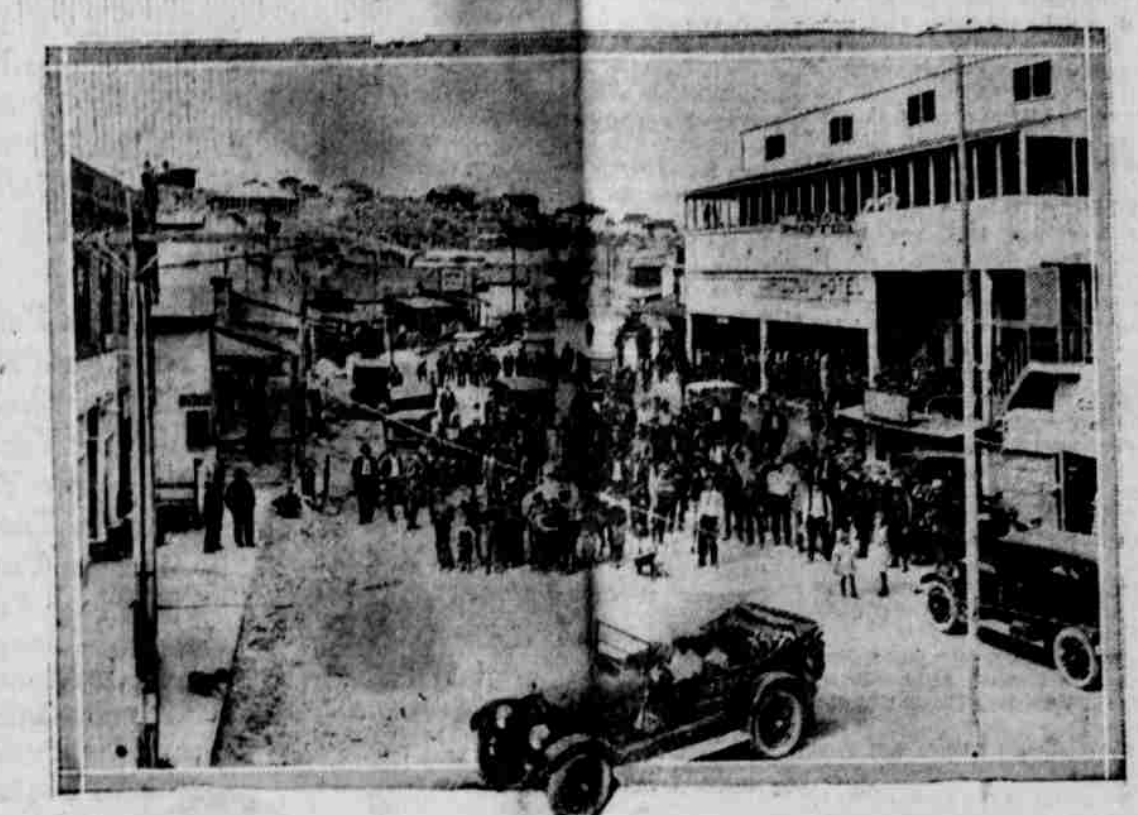

Let Greeks Die "If American aid is withdrawn, the survivors will perish. The bodies ing cared for in a Red Cross camp in Jackson barracks here. The large Weekama crevasse near Ferriday also was occupying relief workers today and reports from Concordia parish to Harry D. Wilson, state commissioner of agriculture said 200,000 acres of growing cotton had been destroyed there with a loss estimated at more than $1,000,000.

The congressional party inspecting flood conditions was en route today to Baton Rouge, La., after visiting the Weekama break and other points yesterday.

Mississippi Democrat in Senate Says Harding 'Appoints Lowden Delegates, Who Were Corrupted—Fight St. Louis Collector—Missouri Delegates Under Fire.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senate attack upon the nomination of Nathaniel Goldstein to be internal revenue collector at St. Louis because he accepted $2,500 from the presidential campaign managers of former Governor Lowden of Illinois, was opened today by Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, who declared several other Lowden delegates had been given appointments under the present administration.

Among the Missouri delegates named by Senator Harrison as having received Lowden money were Roy T. Davis, appointed minister to Costa Rica; W. H. Allen, Missouri state prohibition agent and W. L. Cole, special assistant to the attorney general.

Senator Harrison said Cole got $500 of "Lowden money" and $1200 of "Harding money."

Senator Harrison said Mr. Goldstein was one of the Lowden delegates from Missouri, who had been "corrupted" with money of the Lowden campaign.

"No candidate was sailing more smoothly than Governor Lowden," said Senator Harrison. "The thing that turned his chances and accomplished his defeat more than anything else was the corruption of two delegates from Missouri."

Senator Harrison said the appointment to public office of a man who had received $2,500 "to swing delegates" at the republican convention in Chicago in 1920, was a matter of sufficient importance to be brought to the attention of the country.

WIND UP ALL BUT POLITICS GENOA MEET

Russian and Non-Aggression Policy Pester Lloyd George—Believe Belgium Will Accede if France Does—Harvey Back in London Once More.

GENOA, May 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—The economic conference today expected to end its deliberation on financial, economic and transport questions. The sub-commission on economics was expected during the day to make its report to the full commission, which it probably will approve.

This will leave only political problems. The Russian question and the proposed non-aggression policy are taxing the ingenuity of Prime Minister Lloyd George of England, but there was optimism today over their possible solution.

The utmost patience is urged by all leading delegations and the conference apparently is facing a hard pull of at least three weeks. The neutrals and most of the allied delegations believe Belgium's opposition to the terms of the proposed settlement with Russia will disappear in case France decides to give unreserved approval to the allied memorandum to the soviet.

It is reported that M. Barthou, the head of the French delegation, on his return from Paris will join in the small conference with the Germans which Premier Lloyd George is arranging. At yesterday's meeting with Chancellor Wirth and Foreign Minister Rathenau, Mr. Lloyd George is reported to have discussed his non-aggression pact as well as the reparations payment due from Germany, May 31.

PARIS, May 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—Vice-Premier Barthou, head of the French delegation at the economic conference, left Paris today for Genoa after his conferences over the situation with Premier Poincare and the cabinet.

Premier Poincare urged M. Barthou to make an effort to reach an agreement with the allies on the memorandum to Russia that would satisfy the Belgians and not sacrifice the principle that private property of foreigners in Russia must be respected.

The French government, it is said by an official of the foreign office, has entered into no agreement whatever concerning regulation of the soviet government. It is entirely free, according to this official, to deal with the question according to the French point of view, which on the soviet regime cannot yet be regarded as a representative government and that there is no reason for giving it the moral support which would result from official recognition.

LONDON, May 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—George Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain, who has been in the country most of the time since the opening of the Genoa conference, returned to London today. He refused to comment on reports that Washington instructed him to make inquiries regarding oil and other matters of American interest before the economic conference.

The British foreign office has shown a keen desire to assure American inquirers that the British government has no concern whatever in oil negotiations at Genoa.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The order of Supreme Court Justice Gay which would have granted Edith Kelly Gould $50,000 to reopen in New York state her suit for divorce from Frank J.
