Lynn W. Smith and party toured to Prospect yesterday and breakfasted with Jim Grieve after which they went 6 miles above Prospect where they encountered snow enough to balk them. The car became stuck in a drift and considerable time was consumed in extricating it. At first the situation appeared hopeless but finally Mr. Smith hit upon the expedient of opening his cut-out and allowing the engine to race. The hot exhaust gases melted the snow and all was well. Jim has decided to adopt this plan of combating drifts with his new motor sled which is being made from a Ford and has ordered an exhaust pipe long enough to encircle the whole contraption with cut-outs every six inches on the way around, which will be opened when a serious drift is encountered.

ALL STAR CARD AT BIG SMOKER NAT TOMORROW

A real, all star card has been arranged by Manager Dixon for tomorrow night's smoker at the "Nat. More interest is being displayed by local fight fans over tomorrow's bill than they have shown for years, and large crowds are attending the workouts daily.

Baby Blue of Portland will attempt to walk Jack Burns of Oakland, Cal., in the main event, a ten-round bout. Both boys are top-notchers along the coast and are expected to put on a real fight.

Romeo Hagen, whose reputation is established throughout Oregon and Washington, will meet Welty, the Idaho Wildcat in a 6-round semi-windup, which is sure to be a hot one. Jess Ingram will warm up on Kid Pickles in the next four rounds, and Pickles' adherents claim he will make it hot enough to be a mighty interesting fight.

Another curtain raiser will complete tomorrow's card, one of the best that has been scheduled here for years.

HOSPITAL DAY TO BE OBSERVED AT THE SACRED HEART

Open house will be held at the Sacred Heart Hospital in this city next Friday, May 12th. National Hospital Day, May 12, is the 102nd anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale, who was the pioneer in modern hospital methods as well as in nursing.

Leading hospitals in the United States and Canada established their "day" a year ago and this year the movement for the education of the public concerning hospitals and hospital service has crossed the ocean to England and Australia.

The public will be invited to come in and see how the sick and injured of the community are cared for. This will be done at all the hospitals in the country and in many of them graduation exercises for student nurses will be held on Hospital Day.

At the Sacred Heart Hospital the program for National Hospital Day will include the flag raising ceremony under the auspices of the American Legion. The flag will be presented to the hospital by the legion and the presentation address will be made by Mayor C. E. Gates.

MISS MARGUERITE K. O'LEARY, of Reading, Pa., who says she has gained eight pounds and can hardly find words to express her praise for Tanlac for the good the medicine did her.

"I am so happy over what Tanlac has done for me I can hardly find words to express my praise," said Miss Marguerite K. O'Leary, who lives with her parents at 1223 Chestnut St., Reading, Pa. "I wasn't exactly what would be called sick, but for a year I had been all run down and sometimes felt so weak and miserable I could hardly hold up my head. I was so nervous the telephone bell or a door closing would startle me so I would tremble like a leaf.

"I needed something to build me up and give me strength and energy, and that is exactly what Tanlac did. It gave me a fine appetite and improved my digestion. I gained eight pounds, the color came back to my face, my nerves became normal and I soon felt as well as I ever did in my life. It is simply wonderful that medicine could make such a big change in any one. My friends and neighbors are surprised when they see me now, and no wonder, for I look like a different person. Tanlac is grand and I never intend to raise a chance to say a good word about it."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.
