FAILURE ALLIES TO KEEP FAITH CAUSES UNREST

"Unsettled conditions in the Near East are due, largely to the failure of the allies, including America, to keep promises solemnly made to Armenia," said E. J. Handwerker, state director, Near East Relief, before the Knights of Pythias in adjourned session last night.

"America was asked to enter the war to help drive the Turk from Europe and to see the Christian minorities from Turkish rule. This aim has not been carried out, and massacre and starvation are still the lot of the subject races in Turkey. Had allied promises been kept the people would now be on their feet and relief work at an end. As it is, the least we can do is to preserve the remnants of these old Christian races in the hope of a better day for the Near East."

The speaker exhibited a number of photographs showing the unusually promising nature of the children in American orphanages.

"Alice in Hungerland" was shown to the high school students yesterday and will be shown to the grade pupils today and tomorrow at 2:45 p. m. Thursday night it will be shown in Jacksonville.

In the absence of Rev. E. P. Lawrence at Des Moines, Iowa, for the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, E. E. Gore will act as county chairman of Near East Relief.

KOLB AND DILL ARE COMING TO PAGE

Capital versus Labor is the theme of Kolb & Dill's new comedy, "Give and Take," which is the attraction at the Page theatre Thursday night, May 11th.

It is from the pen of Aaron Hoffman who has given the stage many successes. Kolb & Dill have never been cast to better advantage and the story is one of today.

Many funny scenes present themselves when Dill as a foreman in Kolb's large canning factory, acting as a representative of organized workmen, endeavors to change the rules of the plant and convince Kolb that his is the right way.

A capable company of associate players have been carefully selected to portray the different types, appear in the cast and an octette of feminine soloists, beautiful and talented, gowned in a most lavish manner present a Song Review at the opening of the third act that is an entertainment all by itself, the Symphonic Jazz orchestra, carried by the company present novelty overtures that have made them famous to the theatregoers of the west.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Drink lots of water

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night, when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

COMMUNICATIONS

Replies to Judge Colvig.

To the Editor:
As an interested observer of passing local events and actuated neither by bias nor prejudice, I feel impelled to take issue with Judge Colvig in his article in The Mail Tribune of the 5th inst., wherein he makes demand upon all aspirants for public office to declare whether or not they are in favor of the secret organization known as the Ku Klux Klan.

Now, while I hold no brief for that organization (being actuated in writing this solely by the American spirit of fair play), neither am I a member thereof, nor have at any time made application for membership, nor do I now anticipate that I shall ever do so, yet I am forced to confess that I am so egotistical as to contend that I know quite as much regarding the aims and purposes, also the requirements for membership of and in the Ku Klux Klan as does Judge Colvig (providing, of course, that he has never been initiated in the order)—which is absolutely nothing, save such knowledge as may be acquired through the medium of that always unreliable source of information, street rumor.

If it be within the knowledge of Judge Colvig, or any other law-abiding citizen, that the Ku Klux Klan, as it is now constituted, has ever been, in a court of law, convicted in a court of law of having been guilty of the commission of any unlawful act, or of the utterance of any sentiment inimical to good citizenship, the general public clearly has a right to share in such knowledge. Suspicion, arising out of innuendo, and should be as ineffective in the public mind as it is in a court of law.

Lacking proof of the commission of any unlawful act or utterance on the part of this organization, why single it out for condemnation from among the existing multitude of secret societies? Why not, with equal propriety, demand of the candidates who are soliciting the popular franchise that they declare their sentiments towards or affiliation with the Free Masons the Elks the Odd Fellows, the Knights of Columbus, and so on, ad infinitum? Why single out the Ku Klux Klan for the goat, as in this particular instance?

I maintain that Judge Colvig, whom I believe is generally recognized as being highly versed in legal lore, should not allow himself to pass judgment on purely ex parte testimony, and much the less so when said testimony consists merely of unconfirmed street rumor as he has apparently allowed himself to do in this case.

The writer heretofore agrees most heartily with the erudite Judge in his contention that "no secret order has any right to manipulate the affairs of any civilized government." Can it be possible that friend Colvig is possessed of knowledge, susceptible of proof, that such is the end and aim of the Ku Klux Klan, as an organization? If he has the public is certainly entitled to his full confidence in the matter without further delay.

In conclusion, this writer does not understand that Mr. Newbury's article, to which Mr. Colvig refers with much satisfaction, was specifically aimed at the Ku Klux organization, but rather was it directed against all lawbreakers without regard to class, creed or social organization, which severe though righteous pronouncements against lawlessness in general will be unobtainably acquiesced in by all law-abiding folk.
