

Rheumatism at 60

S. S. S. Thoroughly Rids the Body of Rheumatism Impurities.

Somebody's mother is suffering tonight! The source of rheumatism has wrecked her body; limping and suffering, bent forward, she sees but the common ground, but her aged heart still belongs to the stars! Does anybody care? S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-purifiers known, and it helps build more blood cells. Its medicinal ingredients are purely vegetable. It never disarranges the stomach. It is in fact a splendid tonic, a blood maker, a blood enricher. It banishes rheumatism from joints, muscles and the entire body. It builds firm flesh. It is what somebody's mother needs tonight! Mother, if you can not go out to get a bottle of S. S. S. yourself, surely somebody in your family will. Somebody get a bottle of S. S. S. now! Let somebody's mother begin to feel joyful again tonight. Maybe, maybe it's your mother. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

How glorious you will feel, mother, when your rheumatism is all gone. Let S. S. S. do it. It will build you up, too!

NORBLAD vs HAWLEY FOR CONGRESS

A. W. NORBLAD

What the Newspapers Say

Norblad, of splendid senate record, of dynamic force and energy, will surely beat "do nothing" Hawley.—Tillamook Headlight.

On the 4th of March, 1923, W. C. Hawley will have served sixteen years in Congress and during that time he will have drawn in salary, mileage, clerk hire and perquisites about $200,000 of the taxpayers' money. Yet on last Saturday at a meeting of about 200 taxpayers at Newberg, when the chairman of the meeting requested all who knew the name of the congressman from the first congressional district of Oregon to hold up their hands, only ten responded.

Have the taxpayers of the first congressional district had value received?—Producers Call.

If A. W. Norblad of Clatsop County is elected to Congress, the first district will be ably represented. His record in the Oregon Senate is full of achievements. An energetic and fearless worker, he would undoubtedly accomplish much for Oregon and this district.—Brownsville Times.

Senator Norblad is the right man to send to Congress. He is active, progressive and a man who will stand squarely on any issue that arises.

Senator Norblad's record in the state legislature has proved that he is a man of vision and strength.—Southwestern Oregon Daily News.

Unless all the signs fall, this is the year that Congressman Hawley will get his. For the first time during the sixteen years he has been in Congress, Hawley has real opposition in the person of A. W. Norblad of Astoria. Mr. Norblad is well known through his career in the state Senate, where he was one of the big men. If Mr. Norblad is elected the first Oregon district will be heard from in Congress, which has not been the case during Hawley's term.—Polk County Observer, Dallas.

Senator A. W. Norblad, of Astoria, has announced himself as a candidate for Congress to succeed W. C. Hawley. Paid Adv.

SOLDIERS BONUS WOULD TIE UP CASH, BANKER

WHITE SULPHUR SPRING, W. Va., May 10.—Hundreds of millions of dollars needed in the usual channels of trade, will be tied up for three years, if the bonus soldier bill becomes effective, said Thomas B. McAdams, president of the American Banker's association, speaking here today before the executive council of the association.

The bill, which has passed the house, Mr. McAdams said, places upon the banks the burden of financing such cash advances as may be received by the individual soldier. "While the banks are not obligated to discount the soldier's note secured by his participation certificate, he said, "yet failure to do so will unquestionably submit the individual instituting to a charge of being unwilling to co-operate with the government and the soldier. On the other hand, if these advances are made, many of them will have to be carried as past due for a period of three years, when the government agrees to reimburse the banks for advances made.

"We can not lightly consider increasing the debt of our people over five times the amount of the total indebtedness of the government prior to the war," he continued, "and congress has no right to put the tremendous burden of from $5,000,000,000 to $6,000,000,000 upon our people without at the same time making specific provision for the retirement of the obligation. "If, however, this be a burden which should properly be assumed by the American people, then we should as loyal Americans, meet the issue at this time and raise, through a definite form of taxation, sufficient sums of money to provide for the payment of the obligation within some reasonable time limit."

"To!able David" Ends Tonight "To!able David," the splendidly made picture and splendidly told story of a boy's proving, closes at the Page theatre tonight. Young Barthelmess does some remarkable acting in this picture, acting that stamps him as one of the best youngsters the camera has discovered.

Jean Howard furnishes an excellent musical accompaniment on the big Wurlitzer organ to the picture, and there are other short pictures than the feature.

It is the best worth-while screen entertainment that has been shown here in many months, and we have had some good ones.

Mysterious Rider, at Rialto

At the Rialto theatre today opens a four days engagement, "The Mysterious Rider," a Zane Grey story, filmed more powerfully than ever that wonderfully popular author's work has been filmed in the past even by Benjamin B. Hampton, at whose touch the great novels of the world become marvelous photoplays.

It contains all the elements of whole some dramatic appeal—appeal for every class of patron from the smallest child to the oldest grandmother and grandfather, and all the folk who are in between.

There's a lovely, lovable girl called "Columbine," played by Claire Adams. And a wonderful, manly hero, Wilson Moore, played by the matinee idol of the light opera stage, Carl Gantvoort. And a powerful, mysterious stranger named Wade, played by subtle, polished Robert McKim.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Miss Vera Kershaw, who is engaged with her brother, on their farm on Antelope creek, near Climax, in the dairy business called for a late supper the first of the week and wished to get in the postoffice, but found that it was closed, as it closes at 6 p. m., and could not remain overnight on account of her dairy work.

T. C. Barry of Brownsboro who is improving a homestead in the hills between Brownsboro and Butte Falls, was a passenger this afternoon on the first of the week on his way home from Medford.

George Holmes, our garage man was here for dinner one day about mid-week as his wife is the principal of our school and for some reason best known to herself, and since he married such a good cook does not fancy the idea of eating a cold lunch or cooking his own dinner, came to the Sunnyside for lunch.

Jack Doubleday and Joseph Geppert of Butte Falls, were passengers for Medford during mid-week.

Arthur Brown, the traveling agent for the Morning Oregonian was here also soliciting subscribers and renewals for that publication. He only remained a short time as he seemed to be in a hurry to get through.

Carl Esch, one of our prosperous farmers and dairy men received two pure bred Holstein heifers and his near neighbor, Samuel Johnson, two, and H. E. Campbell, our banker, a thoroughbred Holstein bull, the first of the week. Our farmers are waking up to the fact that it pays to keep the very best kind of stock if they are to keep any at all.

Never before could you get so much tire worth for $10.90

AR-OWNERS who bought a 30x3 1/2 "Usco" for $10.90 last Fall have discovered this by now—

Nobody before ever got so much tire value in the neighborhood of ten dollars.

They never had to question the quality—with the makers of U. S. Royal Cords behind it.

They couldn't help admiring the price—spontaneously made to meet the new economy times.

A tire that would be high value at more than $10.90.

At $10.90 it is unapproached.

The Fordson Farmers' Calendar

THERE'S PROFIT EACH DAY THE FORDSON WAY

1922 SUN The Cleanest Farms In Any Community 1922 RI SAT

FORDSON farms have that reputation. Early fall plowing is what keeps these farms free of weeds.

"That's easy to talk about, but how are you going to plow when the ground is so hard and dry, and the weather so hot that a team can't work?" That, probably is your objection to the formula.

"Use a Fordson-Oliver Plowing Outfit," is the answer. Heat and hard soil and dry weather don't bother a bit when you use Fordson power instead of horses. Early fall plowing with a Fordson tractor and an Oliver No. 7 plow will enable you to turn over the soil the time you know it will do the most good.
