

BRINGING UP FATHER

E. C. FABER BUYS ANOTHER TRACT IN W. SPRINGS DIST.

WILLOW SPRINGS, May 11.—Willow Springs farm land must look good to E. C. Faber of Central Point, as he has just purchased another twenty acres of hill land. This tract is a part of the old Penninger ranch, and directly back of the Pomeroy home.

The contracts have been let for the electric line to be extended to the Young, Minor, Anders and Birkhols homes. This is a convenience long desired by this section of our community and will be much appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Fish were Sunday dinner guests at the W. A. Thompson home.

The Field brothers have the plants now on hand and are ready to begin setting the pine acres of tomatoes which they are putting in on their newly purchased tract. The remainder of their farm will be used for strawberries.

Mrs. O. S. Welsher wishes to announce to all the ladies interested, that the last class in dress-form making will be held on Thursday, May 18, at the old M. E. church in Central Point, beginning promptly at 9:30 a. m. Anyone wishing a dress form please call Mrs. Welsher, in order that material may be secured in time.

EDEN PRECINCT

J. W. Watkins of North Talent, was called to his former home, Lynn, Washington, by a telegram announcing the death of his cousin, Mrs. Bruce Marshall of that place. Mr. Watkins left on the evening train Tuesday.

Born to the wife of Albert Dougherty on April 26, 1922, a son, Mother and child doing nicely.

The Misses Helen Norris and Sybil Furry were visiting Mrs. Ned Franklin at her mother's, Mrs. A. S. Furry's, Monday.

Mrs. J. M. Rader is suffering an attack of the pink-eye, and it was found necessary to call Dr. Malmgren Monday, neuralgia having set in with the disease.

Two former Phoenix couples were recently married at Roseville, California, Miss Edna Nichols and Ed French and Miss Evelyn Wattenburg and Arlot Short. Both young men went to California some time ago, and later the girls went down to visit with relatives, when the marriage took place.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stancliff last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. George DuBoise, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peachy, Gertrude and Russell Wells, Francis DuBoise, George Brewster and Clyde Frey.

Mrs. Carl Cobleigh of West Phoenix was initiated into the Neighbors of Woodcraft, as a benefit member last Wednesday evening. The committee served refreshments and a general good time was had. Phoenix has a goodly membership in the lodge there, and have the best of social times.

We have just found out what provoked the elements into giving us the recent storm. Four prominent men of Phoenix and vicinity, on Friday preceding the unusual snow storm at this time of the year, went into Phoenix and each bought a new straw hat, which so provoked the approaching spring that the storm ensued.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roberts and daughter, Miss Lullis, were guests at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey last Sunday.

The Rebecca lodge of Talent held an initiation and social meeting at their hall in Talent last Saturday evening. A supper and short program was among the amusement features.

A letter from Bert Stancliff to his brother Walter, and family, advised them that he was getting along fine at the Surgical hospital in Portland, where he underwent an operation for ulcers of the stomach some time ago.

George Alfred of Fern Valley, who is running for county commissioner, should have the votes of every conservative man or woman. Mr. Alfred is truly a conservative man. This he has shown in his own business affairs, having bought the land on which he has by honest toil, and careful business-like management paid for, and built a most modern home; having even the convenience of his own electric light plant, which plant he has made to serve every need of its kind, in both house and barn. Mr. Alfred bought the land on credit, and with conservative management has paid for it out of the proceeds of the soil. We believe he will manage his office in like manner. We believe Mr. Alfred will be one among us, when it comes to making the tax money go as far as possible.

An entertainment and masquerade dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Leslie Rathbun's of North Phoenix, Saturday evening, May 6th. There were negroes, Japanese, Ku Klux Klans, Jews, Gypsies and many other comic faces and costumes worn. Among those who enjoyed the social event were Mr. and Mrs. George Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Denzer, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Yost, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Denzer, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Drake, Mrs. Jessie Chamberlain, Miss Lois Yost, Miss Velma McCree, Mr. Bert Yost, Mr. Cleo Franks. A dainty luncheon was served of chile con carne, salad, sandwiches, pickles, cake and coffee.

Merritt Hoagland left Wednesday night for Marshfield, Oregon where he will be employed by the Southern Pacific during the summer months. Mrs. Hoagland and Robert Jene will probably join him later.

The three Evans creek schools have elected their teachers for the coming year, Miss Kent of Medford to teach the Pine Grove school, and Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Caris were re-elected at Wimer and Mayse Creek schools.

Mrs. Case of Medford visited relatives on Evans creek last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Caris, Mrs. George Smith and Jessie Neathamer attended the lecture and sliding pictures on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. M. Rader is suffering an attack of the pink-eye, and it was found necessary to call Dr. Malmgren Monday, neuralgia having set in with the disease.
