EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Ercvick

Cecil Culbertson of Lake Creek was among the business callers Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Ernest Dahack and Earl Mathews made a business trip to Medford Saturday morning.

Alex Betts and Pearl Stowell were among the patrons of our merchants Saturday.

Joe Rader and wife and adopted daughter, Miss Twila Rader of Phoenix were here Saturday for dinner and so was E. H. Carter of Jacksonville.

Timmy Dugan and wife were also business callers. It is seldom they are seen on our streets, they are living on and own one of the best stickiey farms in this section and are generally too busy to spend much time away from home unless on business, as they always seem to have enough to do to employ all their time. They are in the poultry and dairy business and have partly raised a family of nice children who bid fair to become prominent and useful citizens.

Mrs. W. E. Butler was in town Saturday but I did not have an opportunity to speak to her as she drove down to the bank and Geo. Brown & Sons store. I have been waiting ever since I heard of the death of her father.

In law, Wm. C. Butler, one of our pioneer citizens so that I could state definitely where he died, for one report said that he died in Ashland, while another was that he died at his home near Eagle Point. The last time I saw him he said that he was going to a hospital to undergo surgical treatment. He was a man who was highly respected in this community where he has lived with his son, Wm. B. Butler.

Mrs. Radcliff was also a caller or rather passed through our town going on to Medford.

Mr. Turnbough, the foreman of the section gang repairing the P. & E. railroad was also here Saturday headed for Medford.

Guy Hillman, the mail carrier from Climax to Eagle Point in coming out Saturday had trouble with his car and had to stay until Tuesday morning to have it fixed at our garage, having the mail brought out by some one else. He ate and slept at the Sunnyside while here.

The Eagle Point baseball team went across Rogue river Sunday and played against the Sams Valley team and there were quite a number of our citizens went over to witness the game, and the result was that some of our baseball fans were almost wild over the result, 38 to 4 in favor of Eagle Point. I heard one of our boys remark that it looked as though everything seemed to go against the Sams Valley boys, but they must not be discouraged for they have some good players.

Among the diners at the Sunnyside Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Royal G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McPherson and son Fred, John Foster of Medford, George and Harry Lewis, F. A. Whaley of Butte Falls, J. D. Patrick, Brownsboro, George Neilson, wife, two sons, Donald and Herbert, and Mrs. Neilson's mother, Mrs. S. F. Moore, and Mrs. Amy Hatch, all of Medford. And later for supper Mr. and Mrs. Gus Nichols and daughter, Miss Myrtle and our primary teacher, Miss Alice Train, Geo. Holmes and wife, Clarence Pruitt of Wellen, one of the ball players who had his ankle badly sprained during the game.

John Rader, the farmer who bought the Wm. G. Knighton home place was here Monday looking after his interests. He said that town life did not suit him and he was going home and go to plowing. Although they expect to move to town in the fall, I predict that John will spend the most of his time on the farm or riding after his cattle. He will not be content to spend his time in town although he is about sixty years of age.

We have had another change in the management of our postoffice. Mr. S. B. Holmes has resigned the clerkship and accepted a position as book-keeper for Wm. Von der Hellen on his contract on the Talent ditch and Mrs. Lottie Vonsoy and Mrs. Estella Haley assisting in the postoffice and Miss Dorothy Von der Hellen assisting in the telephone office, while W. C. Clements, the postmaster is busy putting up new telephone lines, and Sam Courtney and Ed Netting are making the old postoffice building look like a new city structure, with putty and paint.

Mrs. F. M. Tungate of Butte Falls is here and has been for the past few days visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nancy Watkins.

George Klinge of Lake Creek, was a business caller here Monday.

Geo. B. Alden, one of our deputy sheriffs was here Monday on professional business and for dinner.

George Alford of Phoenix, republican candidate for county commissioner was here for dinner Monday and interviewing the voters.

D. M. Lowe, the bill poster for Fisher and Kleiser was here also and so was Ed Netting.

R. G. Brown of the firm of Geo. Brown & Sons, reports that they have shipped 2100 lbs. of mohair on Friday, 2400 lbs. Monday and 6500 lbs. on Tuesday.

Charlie Dellin, one of the contractors on the big jobs was here for dinner Tuesday.

John Howard, one of the aged veterans of the civil war came in Monday night and remained at the Sunnyside until this Wednesday morning.

George Zanesby who has four large horses working on the road between the Cingade hill and Medford was here for dinner Tuesday. He was having his horses shod by our blacksmith, W. L. Childreth.

There will be preaching on Sunday, May 14th, both morning and evening. I just learned Tuesday of the death of a former citizen of our town and a Jackson county raised girl, Mrs. Emma Stine nee Emma Perry, born June 5 1871, of Oakland, Calif., who passed away May 3d at her home. She leaves her mother, Mrs. F. M. Stewart, for several years a resident of Medford and later of Eagle Point, one brother and six sisters, Wm. Perry, Mrs. Harriet Allen, Seattle, Nellie Bolas of Spokane, Wash., Libby Weathers of Oakland, Nellie Graver of Medford, Lottie McQuaid, Libby Day and a number of friends to feel their loss.

Thos. L. Olson was here for dinner and supper Tuesday and breakfast Wednesday. He is caring for Dr. Helms' horses.

H. J. Moore of Butte Falls, recently of Wisconsin, was here Tuesday night and so was another man, a stranger.

Pershing Now a Doctor.

MONTREAL, May 12.—General John J. Pershing, commander of the American troops during the war, today was made a doctor of laws in McGill university. The degree was conferred by Sir Arthur Currie, principal of McGill university in a downtown theater.

Goes Farther

A can of Calumet Baking Powder will make more pies, cakes, biscuits, muffins, etc. than a can of most other brands.

It lasts longer—goes farther because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength—therefore you use less.

When a recipe calls for two teaspoons of baking powder, use two level teaspoons of Calumet, the results will always be the same—perfectly raised bakings—remember this when you buy baking powder and don't forget that Calumet is the economic buy because it goes farther.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

We have a carload of pipe on the way and will shortly be in a position to make any reasonable extension of our system for the benefit of those who have not had the use of
