ASHLAND TO HOLD ITS CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLY, MAY

ASHLAND, May 12.—The Chautauqua association has departed from tradition in the matter of holding the annual assembly season earlier than ever, anticipating the July period by fixing the dates from May 24 to 29. The attractions will be on an Ellsworth-White circuit basis, affording a diversity of entertainment in the way of literature, music, travel, magic, etc., at an admission which, in the form of season tickets, will be lower than ever, these also carrying liberal "topover" privileges. This class of tickets will be $1.50 this year, a phenomenonly low price, but even this limitation may be reduced to an even dollar. Providing 1500 adult season tickets are sold by Monday evening, May 22, a rebate of fifty cents will be made on each $1.50 ticket sold, thus reducing the season admission ticket to one dollar only. "Can you beat it?" This lowering of admission does not imply cheapening of talent. "System" and team work does the business. Furthermore, under auspices as outlined, the association gets the benefit of a wealth of advertising, the text of it being reinforced by a wealth of pictorial embellishment, greater by far in extent than the assembly would be justified in handling individually. Comment as to earliness in the season, possible weather conditions, etc., are met by the management guaranteeing to make the interior of the big auditorium comfortable. It is also planned to suspend tent canvas from the dome in the way of experimentation regarding improving acoustic effects. For several years past the assembly has been handicapped by the holding here at the same time of a lot of other events trenching upon the jurisdiction of Chautauqua's scope, such as summer schools and conferences, of which we have had a surfeit. Under the new plan it is proposed to make the annual gathering a "May festival," and it is hoped and expected that the new departure will meet with due encouragement, from all supporters of the old time Chautauqua reunions.

The dairy farm of R. E. Robinson in this vicinity was the scene of a dairy meeting on Friday this week.

Funeral services of Mr. Samuel Cayin, who died on Thursday morning at the family home on Iowa street, were held Wednesday afternoon, interment being in Mountain View cemetery. Deceased was a native of Arkansas, 63 years of age, and had been a resident of this vicinity for nearly fifteen years.

The Chautauqua renaissance here is primarily due to the active and enterprising efforts of over one hundred representative public spirited citizens who have personally guaranteed the expense of the fine program, and it is now in order for the public to appreciate these efforts by subscribing for season tickets, the price of which is far lower than ever offered heretofore. Chautauqua occurs early—May 24 to 29—and there is no occasion to plead a multiplicity of rival attractions during the assembly's engagement.
