

ASHLAND STARTS MOVEMENT FOR A CITY STADIUM

ASHLAND, May 16.—The general conception of a stadium is that of a great big amphitheater connected with a one-horse college, and the bigger the stadium the more diminutive the college, the sense being that the annex devoted to athletics completely overshadows the influence of the educational institution with which it is connected. During roundup days we had a sort of stadium, but that went into the discard years ago, being merely a temporary affair. Now Ashland ought to have a real stadium. It needs it, and moreover, has an ideal site for one. If built, it will be disassociated from any roundup feature, or school—nor even Chautauqua. Whereas big cities invest in auditoriums, Ashland should have a stadium on a municipal basis, large enough to accommodate at least 15,000 people, and knowing ones assert that a natural site is already available, the location being on upper Granite street, right adjacent to the park environment, affording a fine view of the canyon and adjacent hills.

Tacoma has a stadium of national reputation, in the center of which an army regiment can drill with ease, such is the scope of its proportions. A stadium here would logically be in line with other extensive developments being planned, making Ashland a resort and amusement center, not merely occasionally, but permanently, for the accommodation of Fourth of July celebrations and other big gatherings.

The Eastern Star stated meeting, on Tuesday evening, May 16, will have added social significance, due to the circumstance that the Medford chapter of the order has been invited to attend.

Providing that the charming bit of stellar vaudeville, given some weeks ago with such marked success, should be repeated, it would greatly edify the visiting delegation.

Delegates of the newly organized temple of Daughters of the Nile, from Ashland and Medford, motored to Grants Pass last Saturday afternoon and perfected the organization. Returning here, the by-laws were signed and arrangements made for meetings on regular schedule.

Services at the Brethren church, Grants Pass, on Sunday were conducted by Rev. Hiram Smith, Ashland pastor, Dr. Brower filling the appointment here.

Jack Fahs started last Thursday night in the family's new Oldsmobile car for a visit with relatives at Grants Pass. At the dead hour of midnight the speedometer revealed the fact that he had left the main line of paved highway out of Medford, and had landed five miles out in the country near Central Point. In order to better ascertain longitude of the Williams meridian, return was made to Ashland, and the visitation tour successfully accomplished the day following.

A prize of $20 was recently won by Verne Blue, Ashland student at the state university. The contest related to a short story one, the title being "The Man With the Devil's Ears," dealing with an Edison Marshall typical scenario, under whose auspices the contest was inaugurated.

On Monday night, May 15, at the Armory, occurs the ball in honor of Miss Rita Hoyton, candidate for queen of Elks spring festival, Portland.

"Alice in Hungerland" will be depicted in Ashland this week, incidental to further efforts in behalf of Near East relief, in behalf of this work,

J. J. Handsaker, of Portland, spoke at the Presbyterian church in the morning and the Methodist church in the evening, portraying conditions as they actually exist in Russia and Turkey, having personally toured those countries in connection with relief work. A "Y" worker, W. A. Sellwood, also of Portland, accompanied Mr. Handsaker on this errand of mercy throughout southern Oregon.

"Mother's Day" was universally observed in local churches, and opportunely the anniversary was made the occasion for obtaining aid in the relief work now progressing in distressed lands, responses being numerous and generous.

A new confectionery and light refreshment establishment has been opened in the Shook block, East Main street, and is known as the "Candy Cupboard."

The site now occupied by the Chautauqua auditorium has been mentioned as a premier one for the new hotel project.

Rev. B. C. Miller of Springfield, conducted services at the Baptist church, Sunday morning, following which the congregation held a picnic dinner in the park, with the visiting clergymen as a guest of honor.

Bryon Clutter is the new local manager of the Oregon Gas & Electric Co.

The office on Oak street will be open daily from 1 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Beebe, returning missionaries from Siam, spoke in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, the former occupying the pulpit in the evening, and the latter addressing the Westminster guild at the masses preceding to the evening service.

The Modern Woodmen will not meet on Monday evening, May 15, but on May 22 instead, the delay being occasioned by the organization by Deputy Welch of a large class for adoption.

Kirk Klus please investigate: "Party seen sniping brown handbag from local store, Saturday morning, return same at once and save trouble."

Shares in the Ashland Granite Co. have been fixed at $100 each, all the stock being listed at common. Capitalization is $150,000. H. C. Galey, of this city, is stock subscription solicitor.

The Chautauqua ticket campaign began Monday, May 15, and will close Monday, May 22. The price is $1.50 for a season ticket, the admission being an individual one, and not a family ticket. If 1500 of these adult tickets are sold on the $1.50 basis, there will be a rebate of fifty cents each, hence the Chautauqua season admission will be only one dollar, a record breaker as to rates, lowering even the normality of years past.

Funeral services of the late Albert Aske, who died at a local hospital last Friday, were held at Stock's chapel on Sunday afternoon, interment being in Mount View. Deceased was a native of Germany, and had resided in this vicinity for over ten years.

JUDGE MCCAMANT
PRESIDES AT S. A. R.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 15—Letters from President Harding and Vice-President Coolidge were read by Judge Wallace McCamant of Portland, Ore., president general of the Sons of the American Revolution at the opening session of the national congress here today. President Harding expressed his interest in the efforts of the G. A. R. in behalf of improved teaching of history in the schools. The vice president pointed out that American institutions need the same self-sacrificing loyalty and support which it was necessary to make for their establishment.

On Monday night, May 15, at the Armory, occurs the ball in honor of Miss Rita Hoyton, candidate for queen of Elks spring festival, Portland.

POSTOFFICE TO BE SUBJECT TALK WEDNESDAY NOON

Although popular improvement work was held several weeks ago, the forum program of the Medford Chamber of Commerce had been arranged in advance and a change at that time was impossible as speakers for the past two forums could not be obtained at a future date.

It is the desire of the postal authorities that the general public know more about the inner workings of the post office and as the public can materially assist in a betterment of the service, they ask that a little thought and attention be given to the subject.

Don Newbury, one of the youngest members of the legal profession of Medford, has given the subject considerable attention and under the guidance of Postmaster Warner has studied the operation of the local office, so that he is in a position to present the subject to the members of the forum next Wednesday at the Medford Hotel.

"Glass Houses" at Rialto

The hilarious incidents that pursue a newly married couple are depicted by Viola Dana in her latest production, "Glass Houses," are of such variety that they well serve their purpose in providing capital entertainment. "Glass Houses" was enjoyed by large crowds at the Rialto theatre yesterday where it opened a three days' engagement. Miss Dana adds to her long list of admirers with her charming characterization of the role of Joy Duval and Gaston Glass is no less popular than Billy Norton, her husband. When Billy is under the impression that his wife is a notorious crook there is action and complications enough for a dozen photoplays.

"Pay Day," Is Big Hit at Page

Charlie Chaplin is knocking 'em dead and laughter is the weapon used!

"Pay Day," the comedy king's latest two-reeler, for First National release, closes a four days' engagement at the Page theatre tonight, where capacity audiences devoured the work of the artist-comedian.

It is safe to say that never has there been a two-reeler so chock full of comic situations. It's a wonder the ushers aren't equipped with first aid for hysteria. The only fault found with "Pay-Day" is its brevity, but then six reels of such roaring comedy would be a menace to public health.

One of the latest Saturday Evening Post stories to be adapted for the screen is "Two Weeks With Pay," by Nina Wilcox Putnam. It will be seen here tomorrow and Wednesday at the Page theatre, with Bebe Daniels in the stellar role.

Katy Flyer Wrecked

WACO, Texas, May 15.—One woman passenger was seriously hurt early this morning when the Katy flyer, northbound on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad was ditched. Two coaches and a baggage car left the rails. The accident was caused by washed out tracks following a heavy rain.

TURKEY DELIGHTED BY THE REVISION OF TREATY OF SEVRES

ADANA, Turkey—Publication here of the terms of the preliminary peace settlement revising the treaty of Sevres which would give the Turks all of Asia Minor and more territory in Thrace created a happy impression and was made the occasion for demonstrations and celebrations.

Mustapha Kemal Pasha, head of the nationalist government at Ankara, who happened to be here, said in a speech at a banquet held in celebration of the proposals that his whole life had been consecrated to the task of regaining for Turkey her lost glory and lost territory.

He asserted that peace with Greece would never be realized as long as the Greek army occupied one single foot of Turkish soil.

Replying to the suggestion advanced by the British delegates at the meeting of the foreign ministers in Paris in March that Cilicia, the southern Turkish province recently evacuated by the French, should be made a national home for the Armenians, Kemal Pasha declared:

"We will not for a moment consider the creation in our midst of a national home for the Armenians, nor will we concede any safeguards to minorities beyond those contained in the minority clauses of the Central Europe treaties."

The last step taken by Kemal Pasha before leaving Adana was the suppression of all foreign control either by commissions or capitulations.

PASSING SHOW COMING TO PAGE

According to advance reports, the biggest and most costly Winter Garden attraction ever sent on tour comes to the Page theatre Tuesday night, May 23rd. Such is the claim made for the "Passing Show of 1921."

The new "Passing Show" is the ninth of the series, the first being produced in 1912. It has twenty-six colonial scenes, thousands of costumes and twenty-five odd musical numbers, not overlooking two surprising spectacular effects. Yvette and Eugene Howard, who will savor here in this new "Passing Show" are two of the world's greatest laughmakers. Artists who assist them include the teams of Corrigan and Peggy, Masters and Brown and Schröder and Aronson; the feminine portion being May Boley, Ida Hayward Emily Miles, Norma Hamilton, Peggy Brown, Flo Somerville, Dolores Suarez, Tiny Collins, Dot Mantell, Mary Booth, Margaret Wood and Edith Lawrence, the men being Will Philbrick, John Quinlan, Jack Rice, W. H. Pringle, Frank Masters, Robert Gilbert, Anthony Joachim, Victor Bozart, Francis X. Mahoney, Jack Hall, Joe Quarters, and seventy-five young women of various types.

Besides being a spectacle of huge novel proportions, the revue is all that its name implies, since all the important dramatic successes of the time are parodied. Among the shows which receive attention are "The Bat," "Lightnin'," "Mecca" and other familiar plays. There is such a vast quantity of entertainment of one kind and another in these Winter Garden revues that one pauses to wonder how they are ever arranged to run so smoothly, gayly and sparklingly.

Two Recipes for the Most Appetizing Desserts You Ever Tasted

—and see how easy these are to prepare

PINEAPPLE FRITTERS

1 cup Flour 2 Eggs
2 tablespoons Kingford's ½ cup Milk
1 teaspoon Baking Powder 1 tablespoon Karo
½ teaspoon Salt 8 slices of Pineapple
1 level tablespoon Kingford's Corn Starch
1 oz. Chocolate melted (optional)

Sift the dry ingredients. Beat the eggs thoroughly, add the milk, Karo and Mazola. Stir the liquids into the dry ingredients. If fresh pineapple is used, wash, pare, and slice thin and with apple corer remove the centre. Dip in batter, remove with fork and fry in deep, hot Mazola. Drain on paper and dust with sugar. If canned pineapple is used it is well to cut the large slices in half and then split with sharp knife, making four fritters from one slice of pineapple. The syrup or fruit juice is heated and thickened with a little Kingford's Corn Starch and served around the fritter. Or put a spoonful of Karo (Crystal White) over the fritter and sprinkle with shredded coconut.

KINGSFORD'S CORN STARCH PUDDING

2 cups scalded Milk ½ cup Sugar 2 Eggs
½ teaspoon Salt ½ teaspoon Vanilla
4 level tablespoons Kingford's Corn Starch
1 oz. Chocolate melted (optional)

Mix the corn starch with a little cold milk. Stir the hot milk slowly onto the corn starch and stir over water until it thickens. Cook fifteen minutes. Beat the eggs slightly, add the sugar and salt. Add the corn starch mixture to the eggs, and cook, stirring constantly, one minute longer. Remove from fire, add the vanilla or melted chocolate as desired. Serve cold with cream and sugar. (Serves six persons.)
