THE LONG AROUND (Wayne, Mo., Times)

Mrs. Herbert Taylor, who is a pleasant and estimable woman, and who can bake the finest cake ever made, having sent us some, and, therefore, making us a judge, and who had a family of nice, clean, polite children, and who plays the piano beautifully, and gives lessons to a few fortunate pupils in our little city, had a tooth pulled Friday.

The present and next governor of this state is refreshing in his flat? footedness on the KKK Issue. The governor is not addicted to packing on both shoulders, and a milk pan on his head. He is not a type of timonious politician, who will not state definitely they are alive, for fear sing a vote, and who desire the campaign to be fought out on "the flapper question" instead of what really allsons. Because he has the moral and physical strength to stand upright on his hind legs, and articulate distinctly his views at a critical time. TO REPUBLICAN VOTERS

THE election Friday is a primary. The Republican party is to select its candidates for the fall election. Naturally, Republieans want to select those men best qualified to win.

It is inconceivable that a majority of the Republican voters would deliberately select as their candidate for governor, a man who can after figures? be tagged with the Ku Klux Klan brand. The feeling against the the word "Missouri"? Klan is strong now. It will be much stronger in November. Certain important facts, not clear now, will be clear then. Such an election would certainly split the Republican party disastorously, and in all probability elect a Democratic governor.

We don't believe many Republicans want to do that. And yet birth? because of the peculiar circumstances, there is genuine danger, For there is only one avowed K. K. K. candidate, Charles Hall, and he has adult height? a solid organization behind him. The anti-K. K. K. vote is split five ways. To perceive Hall's tactical advantage is merely a matter of Bean, speaker of the house, -and parenthetically allow us to give them both that honor to which such genuine statesmanship and courage entitle them.

We would like to see them both nominated. But as that is impossible the only sensible thing to do is to unite upon the stronger, who is as everyone at all conversant with the situation admits, our present Governor.

With Oleott as the nominee the Republicans of this state, can go to the polls united, with confidence and self-respect unimpaired. Not only will this absurd attempt to foist an invisible empire of invisible buncombe on the state of Oregon be given its quietus once and for all, but the man best qualified for the position of governor will have

END THE FARCE.

LL sensible people deplore the injection of religious and racial hatreds into this campaign. The responsibility for this rests entirely upon a secret organization, born in the south, bred in the south, and responsible today to an Invisible Emperor living in the

How preposterous then the entire matter is! Who can blame the Democrats in Oregon from enjoying the present Republican predicament and secretly hoping that the gubernatorial nominee upon whom the suspicion of K. K. sympathies can be placed, will be se-

Failing in that this mad riot will continue to the middle of November. For unless Oleott or Bean are nominated, and the K. K. K. forced to get out of politics or into the Democratic party, nothing can stop this mess from festering and exploding throughout the

THE TRUTH AT LAST.

THE TRUTH concerning Reuben Rife has ne'er been put across; men thought because he beat his wife he was a total loss. He was a man who earned his bread in labor's honest sweat, and for long years his neighbors said he was a good safe bet. His wife he treated like a queen; he treated her to well; and in her course the cause is seen of trouble that befell. With too much idle time on hand she fooled with this and that; once she was a drummer in the band, again an aerobat. She studied boxing in the school that old Jeff Dempsey ran, till she could whip a kicking nule and paralyze a man. And being anxious to display the skill she had acquired, she soaked poor Reuben every day until she made him tired. At first he smiled a sickly grin when his Miranda Rose would swat him lightly on the chin and biff him on the nose. At first she held herself in cheek, dealt friendly short arm jerks, and when she hit him in the neck it didn't jar his works. But soon she gave him all she had, haymakers and repeat, and when she hit his liver pad she'd lift him off his feet. And it was then that Reuben's ire long dormant, filled his breast; he smote her like a house afire and knocked her galley west. And people say he is no good, his every act they roast; they do not know how long he stood, the household whipping post. And half the time we do not know the facts when we arise and call down judgment, doom and woe on other human
