NORBLAD vs HAWLEY FOR CONGRESS

A. W. NORBLAD

What the Newspapers Say

Norblad, of splendid senate record, of dynamic force and energy, will surely beat "do nothing" Hawley.—Tillamook Headlight.

On the 4th of March, 1923, W. C. Hawley will have served sixteen years in Congress and during that time he will have drawn in salary, mileage, clerk hire and perquisites about $200,000 of the taxpayers' money. Yet on last Saturday at a meeting of about 200 taxpayers at Newberg, when the chairman of the meeting requested all who knew the name of the congressman from the first congressional district of Oregon to hold up their hands, only ten responded.

Have the taxpayers of the first congressional district had value received?—Producers Call.

If A. W. Norblad of Clatsop County is elected to Congress, the first district will be ably represented. His record in the Oregon Senate is full of achievements. An energetic and fearless worker, he would undoubtedly accomplish much for Oregon and this district.—Brownsville Times.

Senator Norblad is the right man to send to Congress. He is active, progressive and a man who will stand squarely on any issue that arises.

Senator Norblad's record in the state legislature has proved that he is a man of vision and strength.—Southwestern Oregon Daily News.

Unless all the signs fail, this is the year that Congressman Hawley will get his. For the first time during the sixteen years he has been in Congress, Hawley has real opposition in the person of A. W. Norblad of Astoria. Mr. Norblad is well known through his career in the state Senate, where he was one of the big men. If Mr. Norblad is elected the first Oregon district will be heard from in Congress, which has not been the case during Hawley's term.—Polk County Observer, Dallas.

Senator A. W. Norblad, of Astoria, has announced himself as a candidate for Congress to succeed W. C. Hawley.

CHAUTAUQUA TO OPEN IN MEDFORD FRIDAY, MAY 26

Chautauqua for Medford comes next week. Friday the 26th will be the opening day. The big tent will be the center of interest for hundreds of our people. Afternoon and evening sessions will be held each day. The chautauqua affords an unequalled opportunity for a family to get high and instructive entertainment, which is beyond the reach of the community except through a chautauqua. The cost of six days of entertainment is so low that it is within the reach of the average family. Season tickets for adults are $2.50, students $1.50, children $1.00. The adult tickets must be secured before noon of the opening day at the above price. After noon the price will be increased 50 cents. Tickets are transferable within the family of the purchaser. A junior chautauqua will be held as usual, which will interest the boys and girls.

Medford is responsible for the financial success of the chautauqua and a public spirit should prevail, which will make this the greatest and best chautauqua ever held in Medford. The various committees have their work well in hand, and there is no doubt but what Medford will show its appreciation of this worthy community enterprise. There is a great variety of entertainment, and the talent is highly praised by those who know it. To select certain features will cost as much as to secure a season ticket, which will give one the privilege of hearing the entire course. Tickets should be secured at once.

MOSCOW STARTING TO BUILD FIRST TIME, SIX YEARS

MOSCOW.—Moscow is beginning to show some building activity. After nearly six years during which practically every private building and some public institutions were permitted to fall into disrepair, both the soviet officials and private individuals are now in the throes of a repair campaign.

The hotel where most of the foreigners coming to Moscow are housed and which six months ago was a nightmare of dirt, vermin and lack of service has just been renovated and is to be put back on a pre-revolution basis.

Guests, long accustomed to carrying their own water, brewing their own tea and cooking their own food in their rooms, now are becoming accustomed again to the magic use of the push button. Elevators are to run, linen to be provided and the campaign against vermin is on in full swing.

ENGLAND BLOCKED BY FRANCE AGAIN

GENEVA, May 17.—(By Associated Press.) The council of the League of Nations decided today to hold a special meeting not later than June 15 to consider the question of approving the British mandate for Palestine. The decision was taken on request of the Earl of Balfour (England).

Lord Balfour told the council that Great Britain was greatly disappointed that the present session had failed to register consent to the terms of the mandate upon which the allied powers had long ago agreed. It had been the opposition of the French and Italian representatives which has blocked the measure while the vatican expressed fears that religious interests in the holy land would not be properly safeguarded under the terms previously laid down, he said.

PASSING SHOW IS COMING TO PAGE

The Messrs. Shubert will present at the Page theatre Tuesday night, May 23rd the new Winter Garden revue, "The Passing Show of 1921" for the first time in this city. Willie and Eugene Howard, two of the best fun-makers before the public today, are the stars. This will be the seventh show from that famous institution of extravaganzas in which they have appeared, the other six being "Whirl of Society," "The Show of Wonders," "The Passing Show of 1917," "The Whirl of the World," "The Passing Show of 1915," "The Passing Show of 1918." In the latter "Passing Show" the Howards appeared for nearly three years.

This carnival of travesty is in two acts and twenty-six scenes and has a brilliantly blazing outburst of artists. It is a swiftly moving frolic of bewildering surprises. This new "Passing Show" has the record for the length of runs of all the extravaganzas at the New York Winter Garden; it lately concluded a six months continuous run at the Garrick theatre, Chicago, and has played return engagements in Washington, Philadelphia and Boston.

Bebe Daniels in Dual Roles at Page

The sharp wit of the modern American salesgirl; the fluff and flounce of life at a fashionable summer resort hotel, all mixed in with a delicious comedy of mistaken identity—it's a real entertainment combination that's on tap in "Two Weeks With Pay," the new Bebe Daniels comedy which opened at the Page theatre yesterday for three days.

Bebe Daniels demonstrates in this picture that she is not only a clever comedienne but also an actress of decidedly varied talents. For it is a dual role that she plays: in one character, Pansy O'Donnell, a shop girl, and in the other Marie La Tour, famous screen star and high-diving expert.

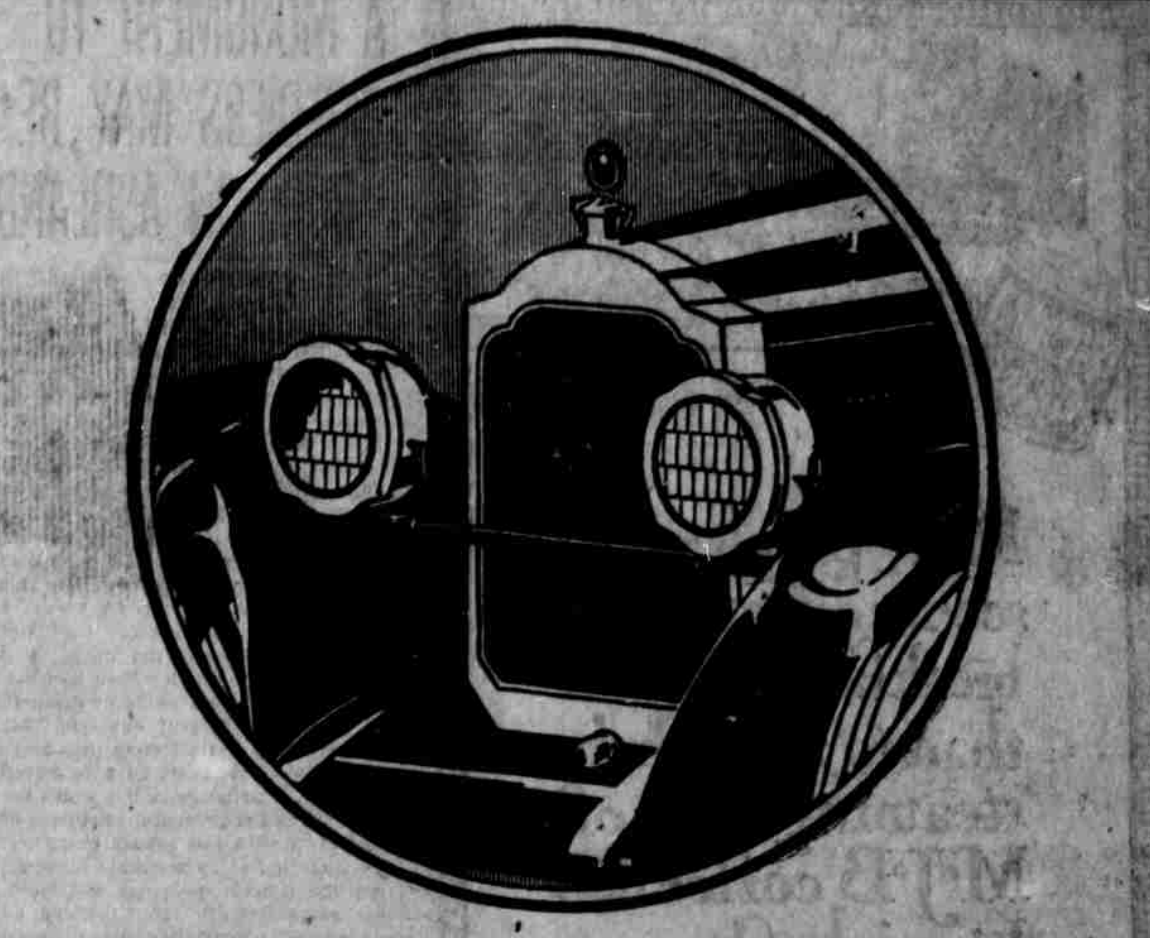

"Two Weeks With Pay" will be immediately recalled by those who read the story in the Saturday Evening Post. It is by the well-known Nina Wilcox Putnam, whose slangy modern feminine characters have reached a remarkable vogue.

Unusual Show at Rialto

For twenty odd years a line that no one could see with the eye had yet that all men marked well had cut the town of Gilead into two parts. The northwoods lumbering village was as evenly divided as though ammassaries from Heaven and Hell had agreed on an even split.

On one side was the community of stern, godlike spirits—ruled over by Epoch Kidder. On the other the air was rife with the cry of pleasure and the curse of hate, for it was a maelstrom of evil things presided over by Aaron Kidder, estranged brother of Epoch. The feud had started when both men were young and a girl they both loved had chosen Epoch.

It is a picture of strong dramatic nature, "Across the Deadline," coming to the Rialto theatre tomorrow for a three days showing.

PACKARD

Out of the wealth of Packard experience has come, in this new Single-Six, a mastery of production which has now resulted in value little short of revolutionary.

Packard has learned how to surpass itself—and still widen immeasurably the circle of Packard ownership.

For those who seek cars of the highest calibre, the value plainly expressed in these exquisite cars leaves literally no choice but Packard.

The price of the new Single-Six five passenger touring is $2485 at Detroit. The new price of the Twin-Six touring is $3650 at Detroit.
