K. K. K. CHARGED WITH VIOLENCE BY GRAND JURY

BAKERSFIELD, May 22.—The Kern county grand jury in a partial report, completed Saturday night, termed the customs of the Ku Klux Klan as "insidious," and said that members of the organization had taken the law into their own hands by flogging and tarring and feathering their victims and suspending them with ropes. The organization of the Klan is explained in detail in the report, which says that recitals of brutalities and persecutions of citizens of this county have been related in the open meetings of the Klan organizations.

The report says: "Testimony shows that the members of this organization have taken the law into their own hands. They have forced citizens of this county away from any protection, and after removing them to some isolated spot have suspended their victims with ropes around the neck, flogged them with ropes, tarred and feathered them, assaulted them with guns, and have warned them to leave the county under threat of death."

"The evidence shows that no investigation was made of the truth of any charges made against the victim, the victim being given no chance whatever to defend himself, even in their own illegal court without any pretense of justice or equality."

"That is true of all the cases related to this grand jury, of floggings and tarrings. Only one side of the case was heard by this self constituted court, jury and executioners, and behind which charges have appeared domestic troubles, jealousies and other evidence of malice and hate."

"Recitals of the aforesaid brutalities and persecutions of citizens of this county have been related in the open meetings of the Klan organizations by members of the Klan, showing the use of black robes in connection therewith, and to members of the Klan, no report of such revelation having been made to the authorities of this county with a view of having any investigation whatever of such outrages prior to this grand jury investigation."

TSARITSIN, Russia.—The peasants of the little villages of the Volga river valley were amazed, when the food supplies of the American Relief administration began to arrive. They had not believed it possible that promises of food would be fulfilled. Newspaper articles which have been collected by agents of the A. R. A. show some of the astonishment these people felt when at last they received the hoped-for gifts from America.

"It is very fine but it cannot last," said one peasant whose children had received food from the A. R. A. "Surely they will stop it soon. They give us a little bread, milk, soup and beans and the children come back to life. Their cheeks are like apples. When we had bread they did not look so well even at three pounds a day."

The Russian writer who interviewed the peasants told them the distribution of food would be continued until the next harvest.

In some of the remote cantons where there are many strange sects the American food was received with suspicion. "The devil is tempting us," muttered some of the faithful when the corn and cocoa absolutely unknown before arrived. "He is posing as an American and trying to make us drink his brown poison."

JACKSON COUNTY SCHOOL DAY AT ASHLAND MAY 27

Bills are out for the Jackson County School Day to be held in Ashland on Saturday, May 27th. This County School Day is to be observed for the first time in Jackson county this year. Marion county is also calling her first gathering of the sort. It seems fitting that school interests held in common by every family in our county should draw all together for this one day.

The Chautauqua building in Ashland is to house the morning session, at which time eighth grade graduates from the entire county will be seated on the rostrum, and will there receive their diplomas. Prof. U. G. DuBach of O. A. C. will deliver the address to the graduates. A poem by Dick Posey, music by the high school orchestra, and songs the county-full of children know will fill the program.

The noon picnic dinner in Ashland park will be followed by events in the park—the county drill, Maypole windings, folk games, etc., all on the greenward. Tennis, volley ball, girls' base ball, races, jumping, and comic events will finish the afternoon.

BRUSSELS—Mlee, Suzanne Longlen successfully defended her title to the international hard court tennis championship, defeating Miss Elizabeth Ryan, California, in straight sets 6-3, 6-2.

NEW YORK—William T.ilden, II, Philadelphia, world's champion, defeated Watson M. Washburn, New York, 6-2, 6-1 in an exhibition match.

CHICAGO—Jack Dempsey told reporters that Europe was great, but America was greater and left for Los Angeles to finish a theatrical engagement.

SAN FRANCISCO—J. Carlisle Smith, third baseman of the Vernon club and Joseph Kelly, left fielder for San Francisco furnished a free boxing event in yesterday morning's game here. Both were suspended and fined.

NEW YORK, May 22.—With the league leadership at stake the New York Yankees turned back St. Louis, 4-5 in the second game of the series and had a margin today of two games. It took ten innings to subdue the Browns, who hit Waite Hoyt hard. Babe Ruth got his first hit stage where it would be of much benefit.

Rev. Edwards, who has been giving sermons throughout the Eagle Point section, delivered a very interesting sermon at our school house Sunday evening.

Charles Duggan and family left Wednesday for Southern California, where they will make their future home.

A reception in honor of Mrs. Duggan's departure, was given at her home last week by the Ladies' club, of which she was an earnest member and from which she will be greatly missed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hipkens of Seattle, who have spent 3 months touring the west coast states, visited Sunday at the D. C. Wilson home. The couple spent a week with relatives in Medford and left Monday for their home.

Many from here attended the high school play at Gold Hill Friday and felt well paid for their tickets. The characters were well chosen and each one carried the part so well that no pep or interest lapsed throughout the play.

The several contestants who were taking the state examinations from our school, found the questions very unusual. It seems to be the complaint from many other schools.

J. A. Cook has put up a wind mill on his premises here and will irrigate a small plot of ground. Some of the orchardists have commenced spraying and others will follow as soon as the weather settles.
