Lester W. Humphreys, United States attorney for Oregon, yesterday declined to deny or affirm reports that he had obtained from District Attorney Woolwine of Los Angeles a list of the members of the Ku Klux Klan in Oregon. Reports that such a list had been sent to Mr. Humphreys have been received from Los Angeles where, it was understood, the Oregon list was obtained by the district attorney's office following the recent shooting of two men in a night raiding party. Reports from the south were that the names of several Oregon officials were included on the Klan list. Mr. Humphreys declined to discuss the subject or even to admit that he had asked for the membership data.—Portland Oregonian.
