All Medford is expected to turn out late tomorrow afternoon to witness the parade of Hillah Temple, Mystic Shrine, which starts at 5 p. m. from the Nat and ends at the Hotel Medford, where at 8:30 p. m. Captain Fitzgerald makes his thrilling dive from the top of the hotel into a six foot tank. The parade and dive are the only public features of the big ceremony of the temple, which will bring firemen here from all parts of southern Oregon.

The snow at Crater lake's rim was 13 feet deep and at Anna Springs seven feet deep on the 10th of this month, says Alex Sparrow, superintendent of Crater Lake national park. But in spite of all reports about greater snowfall this year than for many years past, 'tis not so at Crater lake, he insists. "The snow was fully as deep this time last year," says Sparrow, "and the opening date of the park will be July 1 as per usual." Sparrow came to the Multnomah, Tuesday afternoon, with Manager Richard Price of Medford, leaving behind his newly acquired bride, because "she didn't have time to get ready."—Portland Journal, 57
