

JUDGE E. E. KELLY IS HIGH MAN ON BOURBON TICKET

Counting of the democratic ballots in the primary election began this morning, and the democrats of this county were handy with the lead pencil, writing in names with great avidity.

While the count was not completed at noon today, W. M. Pierce was in the lead for governor, and E. E. Kelly, candidate for circuit judge was high man on the ticket.

Attorney A. E. Reames of this city had his name written in for justice of the supreme court, representative in congress, state senator, and constable. O. H. Johnson, former mayor of Ashland, also had his name written in for congress and the legislature, and Elijah Hurd received a vote for representative in the legislature. J. F. Wortman also had his name inscribed for the same job. Mike Womack received a vote for governor, and Mose Barkdull was in the race for precinct committeeman and constable.

Gov. Ben W. Olcott received six votes for governor, and Chas. Hall had his name written in three times. For county commissioner, the names of Joe M. Rader, Dr. J. M. Keene, Dillon Hill, and Wilbur Ashpole were suggested. E. J. Pipras was a favorite for constable, but David Griffiths, Emil Mohr and Sid I. Brown were also mentioned.

Most of the "writing in" occurred in Medford and Ashland precincts.

PILOTLESS AUTO AMUCK, DOES $150 DAMAGES

The driver of a car bearing a California license plate, number 266,852 drove into the Electric Shop at Eighth and Hartlett this morning for battery service and left his car in reverse. Some one stepped on the starter switch and the pilotless car started, backing out of the garage and nearly running over Homer Elwood and Bert Munkill. The car destroyed a battery which the two men were working on in the street and continued on its way ending up against Mr. Armstrong's Dodge roadster, demolishing a wheel and a fender.

The damage to the two cars amounted to approximately $150. The driver of the California car thought that the price was a pretty steep one for having distilled water put in his battery, and expressed himself vehemently to that effect. He is bound from British Columbia to California and is accompanied by a party of four.

SUCCEEDS WHERE DOCTORS FAIL

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Often Does That.—Read Mrs. Miner's Testimony

Churubasco, N. Y.—"I was under the doctor's care for over five years for backache and had no relief from his medicine. One day a neighbor told me about your Vegetable Compound and I took it. It helped me so much that I wish to advise all women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and backache. It is a great help in carrying a child, as I have noticed a difference when I didn't take it. I thank you for this medicine and if I ever come to this point again I do not want to be without the Vegetable Compound. I give you permission to publish this letter so that all women can take my advice."—Mrs. FRED MINER, Box 102, Churubasco, N. Y.

It's the same story over again. Women suffer from ailments for years. They try doctors and different medicines, but feel no better. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you can see its value in the case of Mrs. Miner. That's the truth of the matter. If you are suffering from any of the troubles women have, you ought to try this medicine. It can be taken in safety by young or old, as it contains no harmful drugs.

CENTRAL POINT OFFERS TO BUILD RADIO STATION

GRANTS PASS, Ore., May 25—A central broadcasting station for the Rogue River valley is a probability for the very near future, says Austin B. Brownell, local electrical dealer who attended a special meeting of valley dealers at Medford yesterday. If present plans carry, the station will be of the same size and capacity as the one used by the Oregon Journal. Four times a week at least, musical concerts, special items, market, stock and weather reports and general news items would be sent out.

With this local station, which would be situated at Central Point, Grants Pass people would be able to hear everything clearly with a small crystal detector set which can be secured at the small cost of from $15 to $25. Without the Central Point station, a Portland set which would pick up the Portland reports would cost several hundred dollars.

Central Point has offered to build the necessary building and also to give $200 toward the construction of the station. The balance is to be raised in Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass. Less than a hundred dollars will have to be raised in this city.

The ladies will go direct from the banquet at the Medford hotel to the Page theatre and at the close of the performance will be further entertained at a dance at the Nat.

During the afternoon they will be entertained at cards and other games at the Masonic Temple and an enjoyable time is assured. The ladies of all Shrines are welcome.

"Two Kinds of Women," which opened a two days run at the Page theatre, is a scrappy picture. It portrays Pauline Frederick as a scrappy little western girl who fights her way through the whole few reels—now with gun and quirt, and now with the feminine kind of warfare that has soft looks and shy smiles for its ammunition. These are the two kinds of women that the story portrays, and both ways the film beauty shows herself to be some scrapper.

Colin Campbell directed this Amazonian story which is adapted from "The Girl of Blue Lake Ranch," by Jackson Gregory.

"The Shiek" Tomorrow
The superb picturization of E. M. Hull's famous novel, "The Shiek," which is the literary sensation of the year, will be seen at the Page theatre four days beginning tomorrow matinee. Agnes Ayres and Rudolph Valentino, who made such a hit in "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," are the featured players.

Stewart White's Novel at Rialto
The screen version of Stewart White's popular novel, "The Gray Dawn," which is showing at the Rialto theatre is causing considerable favorable comment among Medford people because of the splendid scenery, historical setting and acting of Claire Adams, Robert McKim, Carl Gantvoort and other members of the cast. This picture depicts the political struggle in the early days of California and there are thrills and romance in every foot of the film.

CHAUTAUQUA TO OPEN TOMORROW AFTERNOON, 2.30

Chautauqua opens 2:30 p. m. Friday. The big tent is up and comfortable seats are placed. The outlook is for a great Chautauqua. The opening program is of a musical nature consisting of the Steelman-Mariner-Taylor Recital Trio. They are three soloists of remarkable attainment, offering a program of real musical distinction that will please everybody. The same talent will appear at the Ashland chautauqua which opened yesterday. The Ashland Tidings speaks highly of the above concert: "A record crowd attended the opening day program of the chautauqua this afternoon to hear the rare musical program that was presented. None were disappointed in the entertainment which was of the highest quality and was mixed with classical and humorous numbers. The quality of music furnished at the opening day will be followed by others that have the reputation of being equally good, so it would appear that Ashland is to have a series of program which have not been excelled for some years."

At 8 p. m. the same trio will give a concert prelude after which A. Mather, librettist, impersonator, will appear in a rare entertainment. He has been called "The Master Entertainer." He makes his characters live and breathe before his audience.

Remember tickets must be purchased before noon tomorrow to secure them at the $2.50 rate. The tickets are interchangeable in the family. Call up Mr. John Perl, if in doubt as to where to secure tickets.

Ashland Granite Company

Offers local investment opportunity.

Build a Business--Make a Payroll--Draw Your Dividends

The Ashland Granite Company offers to the people of the Rogue River Valley $150,000 of the common stock of the company, no preferred stock issued, in shares of $100 each.

The company has been incorporated under the laws of Oregon by E. V. Carter, Julius P. Wolf, H. H. Elhart, F. D. Wagner, D. Perozzi, O. Winter, N. H. Harrison, Emil Peil and H. C. Galey, all well-known Ashland business men.

The purpose of the corporation is to buy 140 acres of land and the equipment of the Blair Granite Company. This property is located about six miles, in an air line, southeast of Ashland, and has been operated for six years by Mr. W. M. Blair who has sold over $60,000 worth of granite throughout the Northwest, where it is firmly established in the markets as, in quality, appearance and durability it is second to none on this continent.

The company further proposes to enlarge the plant and build up a wholesale granite business to a point where it will be one of the leading industries of Southern Oregon and pay good dividends to those who purchase the stock.

The physical situation of the property, all marketing conditions, freight rates, demand for the granite and prices obtainable are favorable to the development of a large and profitable business which should employ many men at good wages and bring into the community thousands of dollars every month from outside sources.

During an exhaustive investigation covering over three months, sufficient evidence has been procured, duly verified and substantiated by official reports, original letters and otherwise to enable any investigator to satisfy himself on all important points in connection with this enterprise. The information gathered is available to the public and may be obtained upon application to the company.

The financing of this project is now under way and you are invited to have a part in it. A descriptive and well illustrated booklet will soon be ready for distribution and will be mailed upon request. Watch our space Saturday for detailed and valuable information.
