

TOO MUCH DISH THROWING, JESSE WANTS DIVORCE

Jesse Winburn Ashland's Good Angel, Sues Wife for Di- vorce—Cruel and Inhuman Treatment Alleged—Too Much Shopping in Paris.

Suit for divorce was filed in the circuit court this morning by Jesse Winburn, New York capitalist, now residing at Ashland, against his wife, Lily Winburn, now thought to be a resident of New Rochelle, New York. The suit alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, and is filed by Reades and Reames, and Frank P. Farrell, as attorneys for Winburn.

The complaint, which covers 12 typewritten pages, sets forth and alleges, that "during a period of more than 15 years, the defendant intentionally and designedly followed and practiced a course of cruel and inhuman treatment toward the defendant, which rendered his life "burdensome."

The plaintiff alleges that "during the period of their married life the defendant has thrown crockery, ornaments and other things at the plaintiff upwards of times that would aggregate 50." "Time and time again," the complaint further states, "during said period the defendant has taken off her wedding ring and thrown it in plaintiff's face without any provocation other than that the plaintiff had refused to obey some command or other which the defendant has made. The defendant for the purpose of annoying the plaintiff has refused to wear her wedding ring at all."

The complaint also alleges that in 1912-1913, "the defendant so continuously nagged and harassed, annoyed and abused the plaintiff," that he "was reduced to a nervous condition," and that while recuperating "the defendant while the plaintiff was still sick and nervous and unable to travel, the defendant against the wish of the plaintiff and the advice of his physician required the plaintiff to go to Europe, where he arrived in a weakened and sickly condition."

"And in Paris where the plaintiff sought quiet and desired to rest and recuperate, the defendant continuously arranged entertainments at night, either opera, dances, parties, dinners or other social affairs, pulling the plaintiff from his sick bed, and compelling attendance thereat," reads the complaint.

The plaintiff's physician on this trip abroad ordered him to "enter an institute for rest and medical treatment, and alone and separate from the defendant," but the defendant insisted on taking treatment at the same sanatorium in order to be there and annoy the plaintiff." It is alleged that the plaintiff was compelled to go on a shopping tour of the capitals of Europe, "insisting that the plaintiff shop with her."

The complaint also alleges that the defendant induced the defendant to buy jewels, "when amply supplied with the same," change apartments in New York City, at great expense to plaintiff, forced him to sever prosperous business relations with his brother, and humiliated him and members of his family by remarks and actions.

Jewels to the value of $17,000 were purchased for the defendant on one occasion, it is charged.

NEGRO ESCAPES

He said he heard the bloodhounds on his track.

Tied Up Hound
"Pretty soon a white hound came upon me," said the negro. "I kept jumping from one side of the creek to the other. I couldn't shake him. He got right up to my heels, so I stopped, snapped my fingers at him and lawdy, he curled his tail and walked right up to me. I took off my belt and tied him to me."

The negro had the hound tied to him, was playing with a second hound and was fighting off a third when the posse reached him.

MAN CALLED 'MAC' ARRESTED TAYLOR MURDER MYSTERY

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—A man known only as "Mac" who, according to the authorities, said he was being sought for the shooting of William Desmond Taylor, moving picture director, was arrested today at Fishkill village after a thrilling hunt in which a sheriff's posse surrounded the woods where he had been seen to enter.

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine, when advised by the Associated Press of the arrest of a man known as "Mac" at Fishkill village, in connection with the William Desmond Taylor murder here, declined to discuss the matter until he had an official notification from Poughkeepsie. He also declined to say whether he had requested the arrest of anyone known as "Mac."

DAUGHERTY RULES ON MUSCLE SHOALS

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—An opinion by Attorney General Daugherty, submitted to Secretary Weeks and forwarded today to the house military committee holds that the contract executed by the government with the Alabama Power company is "invalid" with respect to the provision which the power company officials contend gives them the right of exclusive purchase of the government's interest in the steam power plant at Gorgas, Ala. The contract negotiated by the war department with the Air Nitrates Corporation of New York, a subsidiary of the American Cyanamid company, under which nitrate plant No. 2 was constructed at Muscle Shoals, Ala., also is held "invalid" by the attorney general with regard to the option on exclusive purchase claim by the corporation in the event the plant ever is disposed of by the government to private enterprises.

TRUTH ALONE CAN SAVE WORLD IS MINISTER'S PLEA

BOSTON.—Multitudes of people are practically renouncing religion because of "superstitions of the world's childhood" that have been brought into the life of today, Rev. Dr. Minot Simons, head of the department of church extension of the American Unitarian association said in an address at the 9th annual meeting today.

"The modern man is appalled to see on every hand the most fantastic notions associated with religion, swaying the minds and hearts of men," said Dr. Simons. "We are superstitious of the world's childhood brought into the life of today, superstitions long discredited by the world's science and yet actually tyrannizing over the souls of living men as though the natural sciences had never been born. It is amazing to see multitudes practically renouncing religion because of them."

"Truth and nothing but the truth, can point the way back from this abyss. We must not be spiritually flabby at a time like this. The world is in a state of moral and spiritual confusion. It is appalling to think what may happen next. The world needs nothing more at the present time than it needs the stabilizing influence of a rational religious faith."

Reporting 19,000 new Unitarians gained as "signed-up church members" by the parishes of North America in the church membership campaign which ended last Easter Sunday, Dr. Simons characterized the last year as a great year in the building of liberal churches.

TWENTY YEAR JAIL SENTENCE

ment as to the status of Charles R. Crane, who for the past six months has been conducting an inquiry into conditions in the Near East. The state department, it was learned today, has replied that Mr. Crane was acting entirely on his own initiative and authority and was without any government commission.

Mr. Crane, after a trip across Siberia into soviet Russia last year and after a short visit to the United States, left for southern Europe, it being stated that he intended visiting Albania and Anatolia, which was just being evacuated by the Italian and French troops who had been in occupation since the close of the world war.

Recently Mr. Crane was heard from in Syria, where he was said to be making an inquiry into conditions of the Arabian and the Turkish population. The attention of the French government was soon attracted to Mr. Crane's activities. Although French officials expressed the belief that it could not be said that he was inciting the natives to resistance against the French military forces occupying Syria under the terms of the treaty of Sevres, they regarded his presence as highly inimical. The natives, with exalted ideals of American institutions were said to have been encouraged by Mr. Crane's presence among them to resist the application of the French mandate over the country and to demand their absolute independence.
