It is planned to have the road to Crater Lake open about July 1, according to Alex Sparrow, superintendent of the park, who is visiting in Portland. Sparrow, who served in the army many years, has a reputation as a proficient snorer. "As a buddy for a camping trip," says R. W. Price, manager of the Multnomah hotel, "he is a prince, but when en route to the camping ground if you have to occupy the same room in a hotel, my advice is to put cotton in your ears. One night he turned in before I got to sleep. Just as he swung into full speed ahead I heard a woman in the adjoining room, through the thin partition, say to her husband, 'Dearie, some one in the next room is terribly ill, hear him groan. Call the clerk. Just listen to him, dear.' 'Listen,' retorted dear, 'that's what I've been doing. I recognize that noise, that's Sparrow snoring, that's all. No sleep for us.'—Portland Journal.

SPLENDID TALK AT CHAUTAUQUA BY DR. A. W. EVANS

If the Chautauqua had done nothing more than to bring to Medford Dr. Evans it would have been worth all it cost. The great audience who listened Sunday night with profound interest to his lecture, left the tent feeling they had spent an hour worth while. An unusual humorist the lecturer convulsed his audience with laughter then held them spellbound with his thrusts of keen logic and telling illustrations. The speaker portrayed the failings of our common school system in a way which met with the hearty approval of his hearers. If Mr. Bradford is to surpass Mr. Evans he has a big contract on his hands, but such is the opinion of those who have heard Mr. Bradford, who appears Tuesday night in his lecture, "This Way Up."

The Jugo-Slav Tambourians gave two wonderful concerts afternoon and evening to the great delight of their hearers. Some expressed themselves as desirous of their return another season. Their quaint music was thoroughly enjoyed.

This afternoon Dr. Lydia Allen De Vilbiss gave an informing and popular lecture on "The Business of Living" and conducted an open forum at the conclusion of her message. This evening at 8 p. m. the greatest crowd yet gathered will witness the play, "Turning to the Right," by a company of players, who are all artists. This is the entertainment which draws the largest audience. Admission will be one dollar. This play has entertained over six million people with its sparkling fun, its tender heart interest, and its mellow romance.

Tuesday at 2:45 p. m. the Battering Mahler Duo will give a clever program, full of surprises and fun and right kind of entertainment. The crowds keep coming and enjoy the varied programs from day to day.

BOY SCOLDED BY MOTHER, SUICIDES

WOOD LAKE, Neb., May 29.—After he had been scolded by his mother with whom he had been working in a garden, Harold, 13 year old son of Charles Kirkpatrick, manager of the local station of the Standard Oil company, yesterday went into the house, placed his brother's shotgun between his knees and pulled the trigger, killing himself instantly.

MRS. FRANK WILKIE, of Syracuse, N. Y., formerly matron at the state reformatory at Industry, N. Y., who says she is delighted with Tanlac since it restored her health after she suffered eight years.

"This is the first time in eight years that I have been free from stomach trouble and it is all because of the wonderful good Tanlac has done me," said Mrs. Frank Wilkie, formerly residing in Buffalo and for two years was matron of the State Reformatory at Industry, N. Y.

"I was eating scarcely enough to keep alive," she declared, "for I would rather not touch a bite than suffer the misery I knew would follow. Even sweet milk disagreed with me. I was sick in bed for two and three days at a time, and as on my stomach made such awful pressure on my heart it almost cut off my breath. I had horrible dreams at night and in the morning was all tired out."

"Well, the longest day I live I will praise Tanlac, for my improvement has been simply remarkable. I have no more heartburn, my appetite is wonderful, I can eat most anything I want, and my sleep is sound and restful. I am thoroughly delighted with Tanlac. It is wonderful."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. Adv.
