

TO ESTABLISH SANITY LEAGUE IN JACKSON CO.

The Sanity League of America, a national, incorporated organization seeking a modification of the Volstead act so as to permit the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer under government control is being organized here.

W. H. Willis of Portland, who is the district organizer in southern Oregon, says that the present law is producing lawbreakers by the million; flooding the country with poisonous liquors causing untold sickness and death; and that the effort to enforce the law is costing $100,000,000 annually which must come out of the taxpayers' pockets.

"The saloon is gone forever," said Mr. Willis, "and during my canvass I don't find one person out of a hundred who wants to see it back; but the Sanity league does believe that light wines and beer under strict government control would take the profits out of the moonshine and bootlegging business and automatically restore these lawbreakers to lawabiding citizens.

Rev. Baker P. Lee is president of the league and its advisory board is made up of the following nationally known men:

Congressman Julius Kahn, John D. Spreckles, Judge O. N. Hilton, General M. O. Terry, ex-surgcon general state of New York, U. S. Grant, Jr., Martin Hoffman, Crawford H. Ellis, Chas. Weinberger, G. B. Baldwin, Urban Koen, Warren C. Crane.

W. C. T. U. MEETING HERE JUNE 6TH

Marsters and daughter, Mrs. Lylal Marsters and Prof. Mann from Roseburg and others from over the state will be present. There will be an all day session on Wednesday with a picnic dinner at noon.

CHAS. SCHWAB'S PAPA VISITS PITTSBURG, PA.

PITTSBURG, June 1.—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Schwab came to the steel city yesterday. The well-preserved couple, parents of Charles M. Schwab, steel magnate, have been married 62 years.

"Pittsburg looks right smart like it used to," observed Mr. Schwab, "but seems to be growing taller in spots."

"Yes, Charles has been quite a success, as most people gauge success, but that doesn't make him let up on work a bit. He's hard at it every day in his home near ours up Loretta way."

MAY OPEN NEW ROAD AT HEAD OF ELK CREEK

Road work pending in Jackson county, and now under consideration by the county court, includes the opening of a road that will open up the territory at the head of Elk Creek. It will cost approximately $5000, and will run from the Crater Lake highway, via the Earl Ulrich ranch to Persist. It will be built under the supervision of the forestry service, with the county and the California-Oregon Power company cooperating. Road District No. 9 voted a special tax to build the road. The line of the California-Oregon Power company tap the district. The road taps new country and opens up new timber resources. County Commissioners Bursell and Owens visited the section today.

Bids for the building of the road from the summit of Rocky Hill to Butte Falls and down Reese creek from the Reese Creek school house to the Crater Lake highway will be opened June 8th. Some improvements have been made on this road, and residents of that section have been seeking the county court for months for relief, claiming the road was impassable in winter.

The county court Wednesday afternoon journeyed to Coleman creek in search of a gravel with which to repair the mail route road west of Phoenix and finally decided to use the Bear Creek gravel.

FOREST FIRES IN WASHINGTON ARE UNDER CONTROL

SEATTLE, June 1.—While some improvement was noted in early reports today of forest and brush fires burning in many sections of western Washington, new fires have appeared in several localities and extensive property damage was feared.

At Cedar Falls, where property was destroyed by the flames yesterday, brush fires were still burning fiercely on three sides of the town. The main plant of the Seattle municipal light department was reported out of danger after an heroic all-night fight by volunteer fire fighters and hose company No. 34 of Seattle, which was rushed to the scene last night.

The source of the city water supply at Landsburg, 12 miles from Cedar Falls, also was saved. Holes were bored in the pipe line between the impounding dam and the light department's plant, the line thus protecting itself.

A new fire was reported in the vicinity of Snoqualmie, north of Cedar Falls this morning. Forest fires were burning briskly in the Vezie community three miles south of Enumclaw, endangering a number of homes.

The Halden-Casi sawmill and several ranches were destroyed. A Japanese settlement at Ellensson, the camp of the White River Lumber company, was practically wiped out and sixty families made homeless.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 1.—Timber and brush fires in Oregon and southern Washington which were fanned into destructive proportions by a brisk breeze yesterday were still burning early today but were reported to be less menacing owing to the subsidence of the wind. Skies were overcast with a mingling of high fog and smoke pall.

The fire which yesterday destroyed a school house and several farm houses in the vicinity of Corbett were partially under control and no further damage had been reported early today.

EVERETT, Wash., June 1.—The forest fire situation in this county is greatly improved, according to early morning reports, fires having died down late yesterday and last night as the wind subsided. Principal blazes have been in the workings of the Wallace-Falls Timber company in the Index country and the Sultan Railway and Timber company's timber near Sultan. Some standing timber and some down timber has been damaged and some equipment lost. Two bridges belonging to the Wallace company, a donkey engine and several sets of rigging were burned. Half a dozen fires of minor importance are reported under control.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., June 1.—Forest fires which have swept over several hundred acres of land in Whatcom county were reported under control early today. The most serious fire was in the logging camp of the McCoy-Loggie company near Acme. A donkey engine and considerable other property were destroyed.

Fire also caused some damage at the logging camp of the Bloodel-Donovan company at Alger.
