

Local and Personal

Fifty eight persons who arrived in 23 cars were guests at the city camp between Saturday afternoon and this morning. The majority of the cars came from the south and were north bound.

Fire Insurance, Bennett Investment Co.

Wanted—Boy to deliver Oregon Journal. Phone 863-R.

The Shrine excitement here will start all over again next Friday when over twenty special Shrine trains begin to roll through the city enroute home to various parts of the United States by the northern route, having come to the San Francisco convention by other routes. The latter part of the week the northbound trains will be crowded by individual Shriners en route to their homes.

Wanted—A live wire partner with some capital. Box 100, Mail Tribune.

Fire Insurance, Brown & White.

Atwater-Kent timers for Ford $11.75 Electric Shop.

Mrs. McMillan and Mrs. W. A. Dellzell of Klamath Falls, made a brief stop in Medford Saturday while on their way to Portland. They called on Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence while here.

Notice—My wife, Mollie Harnish, having left my bed and board I hereby give public notice that I will not be responsible for any debts or bills which she may contract. Dated June 9, 1922. S. H. Harnish.

Hemstitching.

Picoting.

Buttons covered.

Handicraft Shop.

Miss Mildred Earl who has just completed her junior year at the local high school, left this morning for her home near Portland to spend the summer. She expects to return next fall to complete her senior year.

Dance at Trail Sat. night.

Everywhere you look you see a Chevrolet.

The weather of today because of the humidity promised this forenoon to be unusually warm, as at 10 a. m. the temperature was 70 degrees. The maximum temperature of Sunday was 84 degrees.

For Sale—Best home made cakes, pies. 129 N. Central. Mrs. Boardman.

Line for spray. Medford Lbr. Co.

Wanted—Clean cotton rags at Mail Tribune office.

O. C. Boggs and son Stanley left last night for a visit with relatives at Urbana, Ill. They went by the new New Orleans route, and will come home a month hence by the shortest northern route.

The Apparel Cleaners and Hatters are building an addition to their new fire-proof dry cleaning plant at 624 N. Riverside.

All members of Co. A, 186th Inf., O. N. G. will report at the Armory at 7:30 o'clock this evening. Final preparations for Camp Lewis.

The annual Flag Day exercises of the Elks lodge were held yesterday afternoon in the Elks temple with a program consisting of the B. P. O. E. order ritual, musical features and an address by C. M. Thomas. The attendance was smaller than usual because of so many Elks being at San Francisco attending the Shrine convention.

Frozen automobile, tractor and truck cylinders welded, re-inforced and guaranteed. Only the finest pre-heating fuels and metals used. Vulcan Welding Works, 29 S. Front street.

Invest your savings in the Jackson County Building and Loan association.

Rumors have reached the city by underground channels to the effect that Governor Olcott plans to appoint one of Medford's best known and most active business men to the place on the state fair board, from which Mayor Gates was recently deposed by the governor.

Get pine flume lumber at Big Pines Lumber Co.

$5.00 spotlights for your car at the Electric Shop.

A SPARK

an explosion; and Jones' new car was in flames. He was too busy getting the family to safety, to use his fire extinguisher.

That was a year ago. Jones now carries one of our fire insurance policies. He doesn't worry now—about fire.

Profit in Jones' experience. Your turn may come tomorrow.

McCurdy Insurance Agency.

Phone One-Two-Three

During the train stop late yesterday afternoon of Abaddon, Columbus, O., of which Shrine organization President Harding is a member, Mayor James J. Thomas of Columbus, a prominent Ohioan who helped initiate the present into Abaddon, visited with Mrs. J. J. Buchter and another former Ohioan of far less beauty and discussed Ohio politics, men and affairs generally. Of course John J. was present, but not having come from Ohio, was merely able to occasionally interject a "yes" or "no" in the conversation, and marvel at Ohio's greatness as a state.

Men, have your suits thoroughly cleaned and pressed, $1.50. City Cleaning & Dyeing Co. Phone 474. 401 S. Riverside avenue.

This office is prepared to print ledger sheets, bills, etc., used on the bookkeeping machines. Don't give your orders to traveling men and have them printed out of Medford. Phone us and we will call.

Rev. E. P. Lawrence will preach at the Applegate school house on Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. Every one in the valley is invited to the service.

One bugler wanted in Co. A, National Guard, Medford, for Camp Lewis trip.

Dance at Trail Sat. night.

Mrs. W. T. Normile and Miss Arlene Normile arrived in the city by auto late Sunday night from Corvallis, where Miss Normile has been a student at the O. A. C. this year. They were accompanied by Miss Helen Philbrook of Portland, former well known young Medford lady, who plans to spend the summer here.

Two watchmakers, prompt service and unexcelled workmanship. Johnson, Jeweler.

Watch repairing of that quality that gives satisfaction at Johnson's, Jeweler.

Owing to the falling of the first span of the old highway bridge at Myrtle creek, the new bridge, which parallels the old one, has been opened to travel. The dirt is still soft, but it is thought that cars can pass over without damage. The old bridge has been boarded up, closing it to all traffic. The new bridge is of the concrete highway type, spanning the Umpqua river and the railroad tracks.

Be sure of your Fall Insurance. See Holmes, The Insurance Man.

There's a Busy Business College in your home town. Burroughs Machine Bookkeeping and Twin-Six Shorthand mornings only; intensive six-weeks courses.

H. W. Riley of Eugene is a guest at the Hotel Holland. Other guests include Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Woods of La Crosse, Wis., G. R. Hannan and family and C. H. Pullen of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Whyman of Redondo Beach, Calif., Edgar Loucks of Phoenix, Ariz., Charles H. Canfield of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Osgood and family of Tacoma and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stillwell of Seattle.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, phone 108. 111 East Main street.

It will pay you to climb my stairs and order that suit you've been wanting, now. Klein the Tailor, 128 East Main. Upstairs.

Neal Walkman returned yesterday from Corvallis where he has been a special student at O. A. C. during the past year.

Big reduction on trimming material for hats. Pay & Sloan, 426 Medford Building.

We are watch specialists. We guarantee results. Johnson, Jeweler.

A communicant class preparatory for admission of children into the church will be conducted at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings of this week at 8:30 a. m. Children looking forward to church membership are invited to attend this class. There will be a reception of members on Sunday morning, June 25th. No child will be received without the consent of its parents. The pastor will have charge of this class.

Dance at Trail Sat. night.

Phone 474. Guaranteed work, prompt service. "We are not satisfied unless you are." City Cleaning & Dyeing Co.

The Ashland chamber of commerce has received a $200 check from Jesse Winburn to be applied on the budget toward defraying the expenses of the Fourth of July celebration this year. The letter, with which the check was enclosed, was written from the Broadmoor hotel, at Colorado Springs, Colo., and dated June 6.

Your growing grain, is it insured? See Holmes, The Insurance Man.

Everywhere you look you see a Chevrolet.

J. W. Wekafeld and party motored to the Rogue Elks resort yesterday. The roads between this city and the resort are reported to be in excellent condition at the present time.

Line and cement. Medford Lumber Co.

Try our merchants lunch. The Shasta.

E. E. Carroll arrived in this city yesterday by auto and will return to his home in Eugene tomorrow accompanied by his sister, Miss Maurine Carroll who is an instructor in the local high school. They will visit friends in Ashland today before returning to Eugene.

Dance Eagle Point Sat. nite.

cash and doors. Medford Lumber Co.

Try our merchants lunch. The Shasta.

E. E. Carroll arrived in this city yesterday by auto and will return to his home in Eugene tomorrow accompanied by his sister, Miss Maurine Carroll who is an instructor in the local high school. They will visit friends in Ashland today before returning to Eugene.

Dance Eagle Point Sat. nite.

cash and doors. Medford Lumber Co.

S. J. T. Meadows, a resident of Griffin creek for the past 12 years, and a member of the Methodist church will give a talk next Sunday afternoon on Haymarket square. He requests that ministers, doctors and lawyers especially attend and listen to what he has to say.

Sacrifice sale, Medford home and living income only $1000, balance like rent. Gold Ray Realty Co.

Safety first—insure with Redden & Canaday, Phone 720.

Get pine flume lumber at Big Pines Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart left Saturday by auto for Los Angeles and other California points where they will remain for a several weeks' visit with friends and relatives.

Fire Insurance, Brown & White. Special Gregg Shorthand work by expert instructor. Mornings only; low rates. Medford Business College. 709 De Gitzon, local veterinary, started a Ford bug this morning with the aid of another man, a horse and a lariat. Visitors in town gained the impression that the days of the cowboys and other "wildwest" accoutrements had not yet vanished from this section of the country.

Bartlett's $55.00 per ton No. 1 canning, and $27.50 per ton, No. 2 canning. Guy W. Conner, representing California Canneries Co. Phone 64.

Insure your life now. Write or telephone C. L. Goff.

Thirty-third annual session of the grand chapter of the Order of Eastern Star will convene in Portland Tuesday at 10 a. m. The session will conclude with the installation of grand officers Thursday evening. Monday evening there will be a reception to the delegates and members of the Portland chapters at 8 p. m.

The Crescent orchestra will open a new dance hall at Lake Creek July 4.

Kodak finishing, better work, less charges. Jap Art Store.

Horace Bromley and party motored to Rogue Elk resort yesterday and spent the day on the river.

The pageant, "In the Garden of the Heart," and pantomime, "O Zion Haste," will be presented at the First Methodist church, Tuesday, June 13th at 8:15. Admission 35c.

We will write you a non-cancellable sick, accident and disability policy. J. H. Cochran, Mgr. Pacific Mutual. 75 Over 100 Montana people attended the Montana picnic in the city park at Grants Pass yesterday and a Montana society was organized and officers elected. It was decided that the picnic would be an annual affair and the place selected for next year's picnic was Lithia park in Ashland.

New and second-hand pianos and phonographs bought and sold. H. G. Launsbach, phone 646-R.

Bartlett's $55.00 per ton No. 1 canning, and $27.50 per ton, No. 2 canning. Guy W. Conner, representing California Canneries Co. Phone 64.

Fred Patching of Loring, Alaska is a guest at the Hotel Medford as are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Powles of Hollywood, Calif., B. H. Jolley of Baltimore, Md., Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Judd and Louis A. Frates and family of Seattle, F. C. Foley and family, Newell, Ia., and Richard Nye of Santa Barbara.

The pageant, "In the Garden of the Heart," and pantomime, "O Zion Haste," will be presented at the First Methodist church, Tuesday, June 13th at 8:15. Admission 35c.

Harding is a member, Mayor James J. Thomas of Columbus, a prominent Ohioan who helped initiate the present into Abaddon, visited with Mrs. J. J. Buchter and another former Ohioan of far less beauty and discussed Ohio politics, men and affairs generally. Of course John J. was present, but not having come from Ohio, was merely able to occasionally interject a "yes" or "no" in the conversation, and marvel at Ohio's greatness as a state.

Men, have your suits thoroughly cleaned and pressed, $1.50. City Cleaning & Dyeing Co. Phone 474. 401 S. Riverside avenue.

This office is prepared to print ledger sheets, bills, etc., used on the bookkeeping machines. Don't give your orders to traveling men and have them printed out of Medford. Phone us and we will call.

Rev. E. P. Lawrence will preach at the Applegate school house on Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. Every one in the valley is invited to the service.

One bugler wanted in Co. A, National Guard, Medford, for Camp Lewis trip.

Dance at Trail Sat. night.

Mrs. W. T. Normile and Miss Arlene Normile arrived in the city by auto late Sunday night from Corvallis, where Miss Normile has been a student at the O. A. C. this year. They were accompanied by Miss Helen Philbrook of Portland, former well known young Medford lady, who plans to spend the summer here.

Two watchmakers, prompt service and unexcelled workmanship. Johnson, Jeweler.

Watch repairing of that quality that gives satisfaction at Johnson's, Jeweler.

Owing to the falling of the first span of the old highway bridge at Myrtle creek, the new bridge, which parallels the old one, has been opened to travel. The dirt is still soft, but it is thought that cars can pass over without damage. The old bridge has been boarded up, closing it to all traffic. The new bridge is of the concrete highway type, spanning the Umpqua river and the railroad tracks.

Be sure of your Fall Insurance. See Holmes, The Insurance Man.

There's a Busy Business College in your home town. Burroughs Machine Bookkeeping and Twin-Six Shorthand mornings only; intensive six-weeks courses.

H. W. Riley of Eugene is a guest at the Hotel Holland. Other guests include Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Woods of La Crosse, Wis., G. R. Hannan and family and C. H. Pullen of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Whyman of Redondo Beach, Calif., Edgar Loucks of Phoenix, Ariz., Charles H. Canfield of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Osgood and family of Tacoma and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stillwell of Seattle.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, phone 108. 111 East Main street.

It will pay you to climb my stairs and order that suit you've been wanting, now. Klein the Tailor, 128 East Main. Upstairs.

Neal Walkman returned yesterday from Corvallis where he has been a special student at O. A. C. during the past year.

Big reduction on trimming material for hats. Pay & Sloan, 426 Medford Building.

We are watch specialists. We guarantee results. Johnson, Jeweler.

A communicant class preparatory for admission of children into the church will be conducted at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings of this week at 8:30 a. m. Children looking forward to church membership are invited to attend this class. There will be a reception of members on Sunday morning, June 25th. No child will be received without the consent of its parents. The pastor will have charge of this class.

Dance at Trail Sat. night.

Phone 474. Guaranteed work, prompt service. "We are not satisfied unless you are." City Cleaning & Dyeing Co.

The Ashland chamber of commerce has received a $200 check from Jesse Winburn to be applied on the budget toward defraying the expenses of the Fourth of July celebration this year. The letter, with which the check was enclosed, was written from the Broadmoor hotel, at Colorado Springs, Colo., and dated June 6.

Your growing grain, is it insured? See Holmes, The Insurance Man.

Everywhere you look you see a Chevrolet.

J. W. Wekafeld and party motored to the Rogue Elks resort yesterday. The roads between this city and the resort are reported to be in excellent condition at the present time.

Line and cement. Medford Lumber Co.

Try our merchants lunch. The Shasta.

E. E. Carroll arrived in this city yesterday by auto and will return to his home in Eugene tomorrow accompanied by his sister, Miss Maurine Carroll who is an instructor in the local high school. They will visit friends in Ashland today before returning to Eugene.

Dance Eagle Point Sat. nite.

cash and doors. Medford Lumber Co.

Try our merchants lunch. The Shasta.

E. E. Carroll arrived in this city yesterday by auto and will return to his home in Eugene tomorrow accompanied by his sister, Miss Maurine Carroll who is an instructor in the local high school. They will visit friends in Ashland today before returning to Eugene.

Dance Eagle Point Sat. nite.

cash and doors. Medford Lumber Co.

S. J. T. Meadows, a resident of Griffin creek for the past 12 years, and a member of the Methodist church will give a talk next Sunday afternoon on Haymarket square. He requests that ministers, doctors and lawyers especially attend and listen to what he has to say.

Sacrifice sale, Medford home and living income only $1000, balance like rent. Gold Ray Realty Co.

Safety first—insure with Redden & Canaday, Phone 720.

Get pine flume lumber at Big Pines Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart left Saturday by auto for Los Angeles and other California points where they will remain for a several weeks' visit with friends and relatives.

Fire Insurance, Brown & White. Special Gregg Shorthand work by expert instructor. Mornings only; low rates. Medford Business College. 709 De Gitzon, local veterinary, started a Ford bug this morning with the aid of another man, a horse and a lariat. Visitors in town gained the impression that the days of the cowboys and other "wildwest" accoutrements had not yet vanished from this section of the country.

Bartlett's $55.00 per ton No. 1 canning, and $27.50 per ton, No. 2 canning. Guy W. Conner, representing California Canneries Co. Phone 64.

Insure your life now. Write or telephone C. L. Goff.

Thirty-third annual session of the grand chapter of the Order of Eastern Star will convene in Portland Tuesday at 10 a. m. The session will conclude with the installation of grand officers Thursday evening. Monday evening there will be a reception to the delegates and members of the Portland chapters at 8 p. m.

The Crescent orchestra will open a new dance hall at Lake Creek July 4.

Kodak finishing, better work, less charges. Jap Art Store.

Horace Bromley and party motored to Rogue Elk resort yesterday and spent the day on the river.

The pageant, "In the Garden of the Heart," and pantomime, "O Zion Haste," will be presented at the First Methodist church, Tuesday, June 13th at 8:15. Admission 35c.

We will write you a non-cancellable sick, accident and disability policy. J. H. Cochran, Mgr. Pacific Mutual. 75 Over 100 Montana people attended the Montana picnic in the city park at Grants Pass yesterday and a Montana society was organized and officers elected. It was decided that the picnic would be an annual affair and the place selected for next year's picnic was Lithia park in Ashland.

New and second-hand pianos and phonographs bought and sold. H. G. Launsbach, phone 646-R.

Bartlett's $55.00 per ton No. 1 canning, and $27.50 per ton, No. 2 canning. Guy W. Conner, representing California Canneries Co. Phone 64.

Fred Patching of Loring, Alaska is a guest at the Hotel Medford as are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Powles of Hollywood, Calif., B. H. Jolley of Baltimore, Md., Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Judd and Louis A. Frates and family of Seattle, F. C. Foley and family, Newell, Ia., and Richard Nye of Santa Barbara.

The pageant, "In the Garden of the Heart," and pantomime, "O Zion Haste," will be presented at the First Methodist church, Tuesday, June 13th at 8:15. Admission 35c.

We will write you a non-cancellable sick, accident and disability policy. J. H. Cochran, Mgr. Pacific Mutual. 75 Over 100 Montana people attended the Montana picnic in the city park at Grants Pass yesterday and a Montana society was organized and officers elected. It was decided that the picnic would be an annual affair and the place selected for next year's picnic was Lithia park in Ashland.

New and second-hand pianos and phonographs bought and sold. H. G. Launsbach, phone 646-R.

Harding is a member, Mayor James J. Thomas of Columbus, a prominent Ohioan who helped initiate the present into Abaddon, visited with Mrs. J. J. Buchter and another former Ohioan of far less beauty and discussed Ohio politics, men and affairs generally. Of course John J. was present, but not having come from Ohio, was merely able to occasionally interject a "yes" or "no" in the conversation, and marvel at Ohio's greatness as a state.

Men, have your suits thoroughly cleaned and pressed, $1.50. City Cleaning & Dyeing Co. Phone 474. 401 S. Riverside avenue.

This office is prepared to print ledger sheets, bills, etc., used on the bookkeeping machines. Don't give your orders to traveling men and have them printed out of Medford. Phone us and we will call.

Rev. E. P. Lawrence will preach at the Applegate school house on Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. Every one in the valley is invited to the service.

One bugler wanted in Co. A, National Guard, Medford, for Camp Lewis trip.

Dance at Trail Sat. night.

Mrs. W. T. Normile and Miss Arlene Normile arrived in the city by auto late Sunday night from Corvallis, where Miss Normile has been a student at the O. A. C. this year. They were accompanied by Miss Helen Philbrook of Portland, former well known young Medford lady, who plans to spend the summer here.

Two watchmakers, prompt service and unexcelled workmanship. Johnson, Jeweler.

Watch repairing of that quality that gives satisfaction at Johnson's, Jeweler.

Owing to the falling of the first span of the old highway bridge at Myrtle creek, the new bridge, which parallels the old one, has been opened to travel. The dirt is still soft, but it is thought that cars can pass over without damage. The old bridge has been boarded up, closing it to all traffic. The new bridge is of the concrete highway type, spanning the Umpqua river and the railroad tracks.

Be sure of your Fall Insurance. See Holmes, The Insurance Man.

There's a Busy Business College in your home town. Burroughs Machine Bookkeeping and Twin-Six Shorthand mornings only; intensive six-weeks courses.

H. W. Riley of Eugene is a guest at the Hotel Holland. Other guests include Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Woods of La Crosse, Wis., G. R. Hannan and family and C. H. Pullen of Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Whyman of Redondo Beach, Calif., Edgar Loucks of Phoenix, Ariz., Charles H. Canfield of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Osgood and family of Tacoma and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stillwell of Seattle.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, phone 108. 111 East Main street.

It will pay you to climb my stairs and order that suit you've been wanting, now. Klein the Tailor, 128 East Main. Upstairs.

Neal Walkman returned yesterday from Corvallis where he has been a special student at O. A. C. during the past year.

Big reduction on trimming material for hats. Pay & Sloan, 426 Medford Building.

We are watch specialists. We guarantee results. Johnson, Jeweler.

A communicant class preparatory for admission of children into the church will be conducted at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings of this week at 8:30 a. m. Children looking forward to church membership are invited to attend this class. There will be a reception of members on Sunday morning, June 25th. No child will be received without the consent of its parents. The pastor will have charge of this class.

Dance at Trail Sat. night.

Phone 474. Guaranteed work, prompt service. "We are not satisfied unless you are." City Cleaning & Dyeing Co.

The Ashland chamber of commerce has received a $200 check from Jesse Winburn to be applied on the budget toward defraying the expenses of the Fourth of July celebration this year. The letter, with which the check was enclosed, was written from the Broadmoor hotel, at Colorado Springs, Colo., and dated June 6.

Your growing grain, is it insured? See Holmes, The Insurance Man.

Everywhere you look you see a Chevrolet.

J. W. Wekafeld and party motored to the Rogue Elks resort yesterday. The roads between this city and the resort are reported to be in excellent condition at the present time.

Line and cement. Medford Lumber Co.

Try our merchants lunch. The Shasta.

E. E. Carroll arrived in this city yesterday by auto and will return to his home in Eugene tomorrow accompanied by his sister, Miss Maurine Carroll who is an instructor in the local high school. They will visit friends in Ashland today before returning to Eugene.

Dance Eagle Point Sat. nite.

cash and doors. Medford Lumber Co.

Try our merchants lunch. The Shasta.

E. E. Carroll arrived in this city yesterday by auto and will return to his home in Eugene tomorrow accompanied by his sister, Miss Maurine Carroll who is an instructor in the local high school. They will visit friends in Ashland today before returning to Eugene.

Dance Eagle Point Sat. nite.</