

BRINGING UP FATHER

GAMBLING RIFE AT DAYS OF '49

Faro, monte, poker, roulette, and all the other various mining camp dance hall games will operate full blast in the Nat. Thursday night during the American Legion "Days of '49" celebration. Five hundred thousand dollars in American Legion currency will be in circulation and a number of old time slickers will play for the house.

Since the gold rush excitement in this district died these old-timers have not had an honest-to-goodness round of poker, roulette, faro or monte and their palms fairly itch for a clutch on a real deck of cards. Everyone who enters a game will be required to unlimber his shooting irons and to park them at a reasonable distance from the game table.

Wonderful Display of Roses, First Baptist

Prosperity Week had a good start Sunday in the Rose Service conducted at the First Baptist church. Probably no such display of roses was ever seen in Medford at a similar service. Rev. F. R. Leach commented highly those who had the display in charge, saying that it far exceeded anything of the kind he had ever seen at any service in a church in any part of the country. A large audience was present, each person wearing a rose. Rev. Leach gave an inspirational sermon on "The Lessons of the Flowers," which called attention to the two Bibles, the bible of nature and the bible of revelation, and as God was the author of both there could of necessity be no contradiction between them.

A pleasing Children's Day program was given by the Sunday school in the evening, at which time the house was well filled.
