KLEAGLES DENY KLAN GUILTY OF SENDING LETTER

As was expected the two visiting Kleagles of the Ku Klux Klan called on Judge F. M. Calkins following the Judge's statement in Saturday's Mail Tribune, to deny that the Klan had anything to do with the sending of the threatening letter to the Judge concerning his granting a new trial to Dud Wolzsmott.

Sunday morning the professional explainers for the K. K. K. telephoned the Judge and asked for an interview. His honor granted it, on the front lawn, where nothing could be invisible.

Probably there isn't a fairer minded man in Southern Oregon than Judge Calkins, or a more even tempered one, but he has no use for Ku Klux apologists and doesn't care who knows it. In reply to the well worn formula that the K. K. K. never sends threatening letters, is never guilty of violence, stands for law and order, etc., Judge Calkins replied that when the Ku Klux Klan, cleaned its own house, when they ran down the three outrages in Jackson county, he would be in a better mood to accept the statements at their face value.

It was a brief interview, but very much to the point. According to reports the two Kleagles didn't particularly enjoy it.

GOOD PRIZES AT WATER CARNIVAL NAT TOMORROW

The Water Carnival at the Nat tomorrow afternoon, one of the attractions of Prosperity Week, will make competition worth while for men, women, boys and girls. Capital prizes of a first-class hunting knife to the best man swimmer and diver, an up-to-date fly rod for the best all-around boy swimmer and diver, a pair of silk hose for the lady who proves best in the events for women and a big box of Crowson's Best for the girl expert ought to bring out a field of contestants. In addition to these awards, ribbons will be given for first and second places in each event.

Free admission to all contestants will be given by the Nat management.

The program consists of dashes from 25 yards to 100 yards, novelty races such as candle racing, egg racing (in which contestants carry eggs in spoons) tandem racing, and relays. Plain and fancy diving will also be a feature.

In order to encourage competition, no individual will be permitted to enter more than three races and three dives. Capital prizes can only be won by contestants entering all events for their classes. Entries should sign up at once with Mr. Merick at the Nat. Out-of-town entries are desired, as well as local.

Admission for spectators will be free. Program starts promptly at 4 P. M.

GROUND BREAKING CEREMONIES HELD AT FAIR GROUNDS

Due to this week's meeting of the forum being held on Tuesday a smaller number of Chamber of Commerce members attended than usual. Twenty-five or 30 cars however, with about 70 persons attended the ground breaking ceremony at the Fair Grounds.

J. W. Wakefield was chairman of the meeting at the luncheon at the Hotel Medford this noon and the forum adopted a motion that it be recommended to the board of directors that provisions for trap shooting be made at the Fair Grounds. It is also wished that the public understand that the Fair Grounds are public property and that they are to be utilized in every way possible by the public.

After luncheon, those attending the forum got in cars and drove to the Fair Grounds where the official ground breaking took place. O. O. Alexander, president and "Big Eruption" of the Grater's club, tilted his straw hat toward the rear and handled the shovel manfully while John Palmer took two photographs. It was necessary to make two exposures, one in each position, so that the record of "Ole's" actual movement might be recorded.

A number of men are at work on the ground and several buildings are staked out and ready for the actual work of construction, while construction work has already begun on the foundation for one. The mile and a quarter automobile track has been graded and dragged and the fundamental work is done. Large piles of lumber for use on the buildings and the grandstand are on the grounds and more timber is on the way. In general this presents a business like atmosphere and the completion of the grounds and buildings by next fall seems assured.

WEDDING BELLS

A wedding of interest was held Monday of this week at Medford, when Miss Olive Kirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kirk of Oakland, Cal., became the bride of Mr. Prentiss S. Puckett of Klamath Falls. The wedding was quite simply arranged and was one of special interest to many friends here and out of the city.

Prentiss Puckett is a well known young man of Klamath Falls, having been engaged in the lumber industry of that place for several years. His bride is an attractive Oakland girl, very well known in Medford and Klamath Falls, where she has been engaged in teaching school.

After a brief motor trip to Portland and other coast cities, Mr. and Mrs. Puckett will reside at Klamath Falls, Oregon.

To Stop Coughing at Night

A summer bronchial cough keeps not only the sufferer but other members of the family awake. Alfred Barker, 1081 Avondale St., E. Liverpool, O., writes: "I consider it my duty to write and tell the results of Foley's Honey and Tar, which I used for my boy who had been suffering from a bronchial cough for 7 or 8 weeks. Foley's Honey and Tar has done him wonderful good, and I shall always recommend it." It soothes and heals. Sold everywhere. Adv.

POEMS BY DICK POSEY, BAPTIST CHURCH ENJOYED

Those who were privileged to hear Dick Posey at the Baptist church last night enjoyed a treat which they will long remember.

The opening remarks made by Mr. Campbell prepared the way for poems of the common experiences of "Common Folks" which gripped the hearts of his hearers.

The gem of the evening was a story of 50 years ago, as told by a pioneer who lived in the valley at the foot of Roxy Anne. It was dramatic in the extreme and at the same time so true to the experiences which may come to every man that the audience was with the speaker from the beginning to the end of the reading.

A story laid in the Siskiyou portraying a controversy between a stockman and a sheepman was most interesting. Mr. Campbell's program was varied and interesting from start to finish and did not lag. It held the interest of the audience throughout.

The pleasure of the evening was further enhanced by the rendition of "The Rosary" by a male quartet consisting of Messrs. Walker, Cumaday, McDonough and Hoover. Two solos were also given by Harry Scougal.

At the termination of the program a number of small volumes containing different selections from Mr. Campbell's extensive writings were sold to members of the audience.

GIRLS! LEMONS BLEACH FRECKLES AND WHITEN SKIN

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan bleach, and complexion whitener.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blotches bleach out and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Adv.
