

BRINGING UP FATHER

CRATERS CLUB TO BOOST MEDFORD VIA LETTER HEADS.

The Craters club at their eruption last evening ordered fifty thousand letterheads at an approximate cost of one thousand dollars. They will have a lithographed design of Crater Lake in subdued colors and a committee of the Craters has all of these letterheads sold to business and professional men of Medford.

The phrase "Medford, the Gateway to Crater Lake," is imprinted at the bottom of the design which is in the lower portion of the letterhead. With fifty thousand letters going out of Medford on this stationery, Crater Lake will be benefited by the greatest advertising campaign that Medford has ever undertaken.

Herb Launsbach, as chairman of the committee on the high jinks next Friday evening reported that this part of the Prosperity Week program will be put over. Special illustrations for this event will be in charge of R. H. Boyle, E. C. Jerome, J. J. Buchter, Ralph Pollack and B. W. Paul, whereas the street dance is in charge of E. C. Jerome, Hob Deuel, Horace Bromley, E. C. Ferguson and Doc Boice.

The Jackson County Fair was the subject given special consideration and the Craters are determined to do their part to make it a success. Arrangements must be provided and a special committee is to work up some feature that will furnish attractive entertainment. This is in charge of Thomas Swann, Hal Platt, R. H. Boyle, Sam Richardson, Herb Launsbach, Raymond, Mikseho and Doc Boice.
