Job Garretson, the aged and eccentric founder and owner of Chinabear Springs, California, is held in the county hospital at Yreka, Calif., for observation on an insanity charge. The sheriff of Siskiyou county brought Job out on a stretcher last week, after settlers in that section had telephoned for aid. The aged man refused to either help himself or let others minister to him. The sheriff placed Henry Kruse, a San Francisco millionaire, who found relief for his ills at the springs, in charge, and will manage the resort this year. Garretson is 88 years old, and came to California in the days of '49.

TURN TO THE RIGHT

Interesting Chatter About
"Turn to the Right"

1 That "TURN TO THE RIGHT" was the MOST SUCCESSFUL stage play produced in modern times, breaking all records in New York, Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia, and doing capacity business everywhere else.

2 That "TURN TO THE RIGHT" is the SUPREME LAUGH TRIUMPH OF REX INGRAM, who has set a new standard in motion picture direction for the world with his productions of "TURN TO THE RIGHT" and "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse."

3 That "TURN TO THE RIGHT" is the MASTERPIECE of Winchell Smith, author of "Lightnin'," "The Fortune Hunter," "Brewster's Millions," "Thank U" and a long series of sensational successes.

4 That "TURN TO THE RIGHT" cost $250,000 for the producing rights alone; making it the HIGHEST PRICED story ever offered on the screen.

5 That "TURN TO THE RIGHT" has the MOST THRILLING horse-race scene ever shown on the screen; a scene that is MORE EXCITING than even the big battle scenes of "The Four Horsemen."

and about the cast
JACK MULHALL

—famous already, scores a hit almost like Valentino did in "The Four Horsemen."

ALICE TERRY

—the delightfully beautiful Margaret Laurier of "The Four Horsemen" offers a wonderful characterization as Elsie Tillinger.

HARRY MYERS

—is in a class by himself as a light comedian, and the part of Gillie, the lovable crook, gives his superb talents as a fun maker full play.

GEORGE COOPER

is Muggs, another crook comedian and chum of Gillie.

WM. BLETCHER

is Sammy Martin, the country boy with the toothache, who eventually makes everybody's fortune.

REX INGRAM

When Rex Ingram made "The Four Horsemen" the University of Yale gave him the first degree ever conferred for screen artistry—Bachelor of Fire Arts—and critics rated his work far above the best of Griffith and De Mille.

He is a young man, formerly of the gentleman adventure type, a born artist and master of detail. He could not make a poor picture if he tried and his work in "Turn to the Right" is in every way equal to his "Four Horsemen."

The greatest success of the American stage recreated as a stupendous screen masterpiece by REX INGRAM —the man who made "The Four Horsemen."
