

Local and Personal

The Crater Lake stages will begin operation on schedule tomorrow, several large comfortable Packards having been put on the run from the Medford side this year. Private autos are beginning to appear on the streets of the city with the Crater Lake tag which is pasted on every windshield which enters the park, and the Crater Lake season has already opened in earnest. Persons who have already made the trip state that right now is the time to go as the roads are now in excellent shape, probably better than they will be all season.
