

ATTENDANCE AT CRATER L. LODGE BREAKS RECORD

R. W. Price and daughter, Jane, came down from Crater Lake Wednesday, and left in the evening for Portland. Mr. Price says the attendance at Crater Lake is 50 per cent better than it was last year at this time, and he predicts a wonderful business this year. He says the attendance at the lodge on July 4th was about the same as last year and that the crowd Sunday was the largest so far this year, over 100 being registered at the lodge. The capacity now of the lodge and ten houses is about 350, and Mr. Price says they are prepared to accommodate all comers.

Mr. Price says the roads are in good condition to the lake and especially through the park. Last year there was considerable snow and mud at different places the last few miles of the trip, but this condition does not exist this year.

Thirty additional tent houses are being erected this year to help accommodate the crowds and work has begun on the sixty room addition to the lodge by Contractor P. P. Salters. There will be 80 new rooms on the first floor, 20 with bath and toilet, 20 with toilet and 20 with hot and cold water. There will also be 20 rooms in the attic for the employees.

W. A. Camps, the manager at the lodge, was here part of the time last year and paid particular attention to the comfort of the guests.

George A. Mansfield, president of the State Farm Bureau, returned this morning from a brief business trip to Portland.

CALL MERCHANTS MEETING ON FAIR TOMORROW NIGHT

A meeting of all retail merchants, bankers and wholesale dealers has been called at the exhibit building for tomorrow evening at eight o'clock at which consideration will be given to the making of commercial displays at the county fair.

The entrance building at the fair is practically completed and the agricultural and horticultural palace is well under way. It was the intention of the fair directors to permit commercial displays in the latter building, but the indications are that there will not be room for same as the entire structure will be taken up in agricultural, horticultural and community displays, which take preference over all other classes of exhibits to be placed therein.

The directors of the fair association suggested that commercial displays be made in three tents, which were purchased from the government, each one of which is thirty-six by fifty-five feet in size. Objection to this was made by some of the merchants and the consideration of a substituted means is what is to be considered at the meeting tomorrow evening.

As no time is to be lost between now and the opening date of the fair, September 13th, a full attendance is desired as an emergency exists.

Last Showings Today

Lovers of strong virile western photoplays, will find "North of the Rio Grande," a picture co-starring Jack Holt and Debe Daniels quite to their tastes. The picture has scored a decided hit and the final showing at the Page theatre will take place tonight.

New Ray Play at Rialto

Fascinating entertainment is "A Midnight Bell," which opened yesterday at the Rialto theatre for a run of four days with Charles Ray starring. In "A Midnight Bell" Ray is a traveling salesman, young, enthusiastic and persevering. His attempts to sell rubber heels to a storekeeper who doesn't want them are highly amusing. Later, obtaining a position as clerk in the same store, he shows his proprietor how to make sales, using a judicious mixture of flattery, salesmanship and guile. These scenes kept the audience in an uproar of laughter yesterday.

But the picture is not all comedy. There are some exciting episodes in which Ray battles a band of bank robbers in a haunted church. In one instance, bound securely to a chair and unable to move his fingers more than a few inches, Ray manages to seize the bell rope and by tilting himself against it, rings the bell to summon assistance.

It is a story of small-town life—the kind that American audiences relish.

Horse Racing Wins Out

BATON ROUGE, La., July 6.—By a vote of 51 to 49 the Butler anti-racing bill failed to pass the house of the Louisiana legislature. Sixty votes were required. The bill as passed by the senate would have abolished professional horse racing in this state. The legislature adjourned sine die.

Coming to the Page Theater

ERICH VON STROHEIM—Star and Director of "FOOLISH WIVES" A UNIVERSAL SUPER JEWEL.

Although on the screen Erich von Stroheim is the most hated of villains, this did not prevent him from winning Miss Valerie Gernomprez, a beautiful screen actress and writer, to whom he was married in Los Angeles during the making of his masterpiece, "Foolish Wives," the coming attraction at the Page theatre next Friday.

To the layman it would appear that a man who was writing a story of the scope and importance of "Foolish Wives," supervising its production, involving an expenditure of a million dollars, directing it and playing the principal heavy role, would have his hands full without having time for courting or undertaking the added responsibility of a wife.

This romance of the studios began when the two were playing in "The Heart of Humanity" at Universal City. Up to that time von Stroheim had been handicapped by the fact that he was a native of Vienna and by his decided Teutonic features. His fellow players seemed to forget that he had renounced his allegiance to a country where he was heir to a title and that he had served three years in the American army. Miss Gernomprez, however, encouraged him to continued efforts, urged him to write the story of "Blind Husbands," his first picture. The honeymoon was postponed till after the completion of "Foolish Wives," when they mysteriously left Los Angeles, later to appear at the premiere of the picture in New York.

PREST. HARDING LEAVES MARION FOR WASHINGTON

MARION, Ohio, July 6.—President and Mrs. Harding reluctantly said good-bye to their friends here today as they prepared to leave on their automobile trip back to the White House. Their schedule calls for a get-away from Marion before noon with Columbus, 50 miles away, as their destination for the night.

Tomorrow morning the presidential party will leave the Ohio capital with the expectation of arriving in Washington either late Saturday or Sunday. His two-day visit among relatives and former neighbors, away from the cars of office, has proved invigorating to the president. Aside from four appearances in public, Mr. Harding while here kept himself pretty much in seclusion.

Attorney General Daugherty came to Marion late yesterday from Washington. The presence of the attorney general here it was said was without significance. Daugherty planned to leave today with the presidential party.

Hornsbys Hits Another
CHICAGO, July 6.—(By Associated Press). Roger Hornsby, slugging second baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, promises to excel this year the National league's season home run record that has weathered the test of time for 38 years.

Ed Williamson of the old Chicago Nationals set the record at 27 in 1884. Hornsby clouted out his twentieth homer while the Cards were trimming Cincinnati, 11-4, and with the season only half gone his chance, not only to exceed but to establish a figure to shoot at for years to come, is especially bright. Incidentally he tied his American league rival, Ken Williams of the Browns for leadership in both leagues.

You may increase your engine power 20%

Too heavy an oil, or one lacking in certain qualities, may reduce the power delivered to the wheels of the automobile as much as 20%.

The ideal oil is the thinnest oil which will keep the bearing surfaces of the mechanism separated.

Providing this oil has "oiliness," stability and purity, it will give perfect lubrication, and permit the development of the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of the car.

"Oiliness" — Stability — Purity

Zerolene meets the conditions perfectly. It has great "oiliness," due to the crudes from which it is made, and our own patented process of high vacuum distillation.

It has great stability, as a result of which it resists engine heat and forms only a minimum of carbon of a soft, flaky nature which blows out with the exhaust.

And it is pure. This company has always considered the removal of all detrimental properties and compounds as essential in making Zerolene.

Zerolene of the correct grade gives perfect lubrication and permits the development of the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of the car.
