

NO SECOND CHANCE FOR SINNERS SAYS REV. THUEMLER

The interest in the lectures at the canvas pavilion on Ivy and Eighth streets seems in no degree to abate. A large audience gathered last evening to listen to a discussion of "The Millennium," and the false hope of a "second chance," the subject of the lecture by Evangelist T. L. Thuemler. The speaker declared that the doctrine of a second chance for salvation was without foundation in the Bible. He based his remarks on various verses in Revelation 20, and that that the Millennium was a period of 1000 years bound by two resurrections, the one at the beginning—the resurrection of the righteous at the second coming of Christ—the other at the close, that of the wicked.

The evangelist said that between the two resurrections—the 1000 year period—the righteous are in heaven and the wicked are dead. He said that the bottomless pit mentioned in Revelation 20 was the earth in a chaotic condition, the place where Satan is cast by the decree of God and bound by chain of circumstances, abides for a thousand years. The righteous are all in heaven, the wicked have not been raised, and those living at the coming of the Lord have been consumed, and Satan, bound by circumstance, over which he has no control, views for a thousand years the great destruction wrought by sin.

At the end of the thousand years, the speaker declared, Christ and all His saints would leave heaven and come to the earth and the holy city, the new Jerusalem, would descend from God out of heaven, and that at that time the wicked would be raised from the dead.

Then the chain of circumstance that bound Satan would be loosed, and as man lives again on earth, he would go out and again begin the deception. Evangelist Thuemler read from Revelation 20, how that Satan would so control the hosts of the wicked under his power of deception, that he would lead them to lay siege to the city of God, and that at that time fire would come down from God out of heaven and the wicked would be consumed. He referred to the prophecy of Peter pointing to this same time, when by fire, God would not only destroy the wicked, but would cleanse the earth, and that scripture would be fulfilled which says: "Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens, and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness." 2 Pet. 3:13.

Referring to numerous scriptures, he demonstrated that the matter of a second probation is a false hope, lulling men to sleep in carnal security, at the very time when eternal issues are at stake in their own experiences.

Calling the attention of his hearers to the great fact of this generation—the coming of the Lord in the clouds of heaven, he declared, in the language of the scripture, "now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation," and urged his hearers to make that preparation of heart and life that would fit them to stand with God and be saved when Jesus comes. Subject this evening:

"Homestead on Abraham's Farm—best soil, best climate, best people. Claims must be filed now."

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

A. C. Howlett

Among the callers for meals at the Sunnyside on Thursday of last week were H. W. Dewstrom, P. M. Wood, J. R. Hyde, Mrs. Dorothea White of Oakland, Calif., John Foster and Miss Ella Thornburg of Fort Klamath who came in with the Sunnyside party who went out Sunday afternoon to spend the 3d, 4th, 5th and a part of the 6th witnessing the proceedings of the roundup, and the Miss above referred to came in and took the afternoon stage and went out to Medford.

Mrs. Argyle F. Green and Mrs. M. L. Kentnar, of Los Angeles, who have been here for some time, Mrs. Green remodeling her house and Mrs. Kentnar teaching the vacation Bible school started on Thursday for Seattle, taking with them Mrs. Green's sister, Mrs. Floyd Pierce and Mr. Hurst, the young man who came up with them from Los Angeles. He is going as far as Seattle with them and he expects to meet his parents there and he expects to take his parents as far as Chicago, where they will remain while he makes a trip to Europe. Mrs. Green and Mrs. Pierce are going to visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones who are living on the island near Seattle, and Mrs. Kentnar is the guest of Mrs. Green. They expect to return to Eagle Point about the first of August and Mrs. Green intends to build a house on a tract of several lots on the Roosevelt boulevard, before returning to her home in Los Angeles to resume her studies in the Bible school.

Thomas Murray, recently from California, one of the early pioneers of southern Oregon, came in Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Morgan, Mrs. Morgan being a niece of Mr. Murray. Shortly Allen of Wellen, a business caller Thursday and reports that his father-in-law, W. E. Hensley, formerly of this place, but recently of Shasta county, Calif., was here visiting his family.

Among the passengers on the Butte Falls stage Friday morning were Mrs. N. E. Parker and her daughter, Mrs. M. L. Heryford of Butte Falls, who had been down in California visiting relatives and were on the return trip. Grandma Parker is one of the early pioneers of Jackson county, having lived in the state and most of the time in this neighborhood for over fifty years.

A. G. Bishop who is interested in and at least a large owner in the Ringwood orchard was in town Friday and reports the prospect bright for a fine crop of fruit this season.

Last Friday there were quite a number of our citizens attended the funeral services of ex-Senator Von der Hellen in Medford and followed the remains to the Central Point cemetery, but as two notices have already been published in the Mail Tribune it seems unnecessary for me to attempt to add anything further, unless it would be that I met quite a number of his old neighbors in Medford who were there to pay respect to his memory.

E. V. Britton of the firm of Britton Bros., who live on the P. S. Anderson farm, was a business caller Saturday and so was Geo. Laidley and Free Tarretson, two of the timber cruisers, and Chester Pennington of Butte Falls who took dinner at the Sunnyside on his way to Medford, and so did W. G. Averill of Butte Falls and his brother John of Los Angeles who is trying the mountain air around Butte Falls for his health, and also Marshall Minter of Reese creek, Ralph Cowgill, chief engineer on the Big Butte-Eagle Point Irrigation project, in fact he is getting to be quite a regular boarder as he quite often calls for dinner. Also Charley Humphrey of Derby, who is running a truck-hauling wood. He cuts his wood in the winter and delivers it during the summer and quite often calls here for dinner. Also Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Peterson and two of their daughters, Mildred and Vida, of Trail, were here for dinner. Mrs. Peterson was on her way to Portland to visit her brothers.

Mrs. John Rader and her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Stanley, were business callers Saturday, and so was Carl Jackson and our superintendent of the fish hatchery business, J. W. Berrian of Butte Falls.

Harold Nichols and wife of Fort Klamath, came in early Sunday morning. They started Saturday evening and came as far as Prospect, taking an early start, and came to the Sunnyside for breakfast. They came in to visit Mr. Nichols' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols of this place.

There will be preaching after Sunday school Sunday morning, but there will be no preaching in the evening.

Sunday was a very quiet day at the Sunnyside as there were but very few came in for dinner. There were among the guests two strange men and a woman, and later H. L. Madel, H. G. Wortman of Medford, Mrs. C. H. Newman of Visalia, Calif., Mrs. Florence Pearce of Visalia and Mrs. H. G. Wortman, Jr., of Medford.

Monday morning Peter Young and Timmie Dugan, two of our prosperous farmers were early callers but remained but a very short time.

Mrs. F. E. Trefren of Butte Falls, came in for dinner Monday and went right on to Medford.

J. W. Barry, who has a homestead in the hills above Brownsboro was a passenger on the Butte Falls stage and went up home on the Eagle Point-Lake Creek stage. There were five other passengers on the stage besides him. W. P. Henson of Brownsboro was a business caller Tuesday.

J. W. Smith had his barn raising Tuesday and among those who helped

ROGUE RIVER

Mrs. Will Wetherell of Roseburg, wife of ex-station agent and mayor of Rogue River, accompanied by her little daughter, visited friends in this city last Thursday and Friday.

The cherry crop in this vicinity is now about harvested, the growers having realized a good price for their crop. The next in line will be blackberries and loganberries, and the outlook at present is for a plentiful supply of both.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindon Hatch have returned from their wedding trip to Butte Falls and for the present are staying with Mr. Hatch's parents in this city.

Mr. James Patterson has bought the old Mary Owens place near Queen's branch of Evans creek and is moving his family onto the ranch, where he will make his permanent home. We are sorry to see him and his interesting family leave Rogue River.

Reports of the protracted illness of Eileen Robinson of this community are to the effect that she is slightly improving. If this condition continues, it is the intention to have her taken to Grants Pass where she will receive constant medical treatment, and we all hope for her speedy and permanent recovery.

Edwin C. Browne, superintendent of the Rogue River schools, and wife, were up from Glendale visiting Mrs. Browne's parents over Sunday.

In the undertaking were W. P. Holbrook, Ray Harnish, Clifford Hickson, Art Smith, Henry and Lloyd French, and Pete Stowell, and they all came to the Sunnyside for dinner except the two first named as they had finished their part of the job. Besides them there was Otto Wyss of Roberts Hardware, Portland, Mrs. Carson of Butte Falls, Mr. Beckhoff, W. G. and John Averill and eleven transients on their way to Prospect.

I also met on the street that afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Dan Parlow, Mrs. Maud Parlow and Perry Parlow.

Lucius Kincaid, the new mail contractor on the route from here to Persist via Trail, came in and spent the night on his way up to Persist where they intend to spend the summer camping.

So extra delicious
With fresh fruits on a hot day

No other food has such an appeal on a hot day as Kellogg's Corn Flakes! They win fickle appetites, they satisfy hungry folks! And, my, but they are delicious in their crisp crunchiness and wonderful flavor!

As an extra-summer taste thrill, eat Kellogg's with bananas or the luscious summer fruit now in season. Such a diet is not only ideal from a health standpoint, but it is refreshing—cooling and enjoyable beyond words.

Eat Kellogg's Corn Flakes liberally because they digest easily. Let the children have all they want. All will be better for a lighter diet—and free from headaches and sluggish drowsiness.
