GORDON M'KAY- WILDCAT WELTY GO, VERY TAME

The Gordon McKay-Wildcat Welty encounter at the Medford Athletic club smoker last night, was a tame affair, McKay being skillful, as a Pacific coast middleweight champion should be, and the Wildcat not being up to his usual wildness. He succumbed to the inevitable in the fourth round, and gave up the ghost, by walking out of the ring.

Considering that he was outwitted, outgeneralized, outscouted, and out everything, along with a sore throat, he did fairly well. It is a pity that some of his adherents that he was awed in the presence of pugilistic greatness. It is certain that he did not possess his customary confidence, and was not as frisky as on other occasions. He devoted most of his efforts to covering up, only letting loose a couple of his famous swings that Mr. McKay detoured from the jaw with tantalizing ease. The Wildcat also got pecked a couple of times in the ribs and on the back of the neck. Seeing the futility of further efforts, the Idaho Wildcat whispered to the referee the news he could proceed no further.

Some of the fans, were looking for a massacre, and protested, and others thought wisdom was the better part of valor.

After the bout, which was largely attended, Manager Bob Brown of the club, announced, that henceforth and hereafter he would confine himself to amateur bouts, even if Jack Dempsey were willing to risk his crown against a local ring luminary.

The amateur bouts leading up to the main fracas were fair and roused some enthusiasm.

Ralph McKay of the C-O-J company, says he saw his namesake, but no relation, do battle in Pocatello, Idaho, and that last night's engagement gave no line on his ability, whatsoever.

Indians Make It 11 Straight.

CHICAGO, July 21.—(By the Associated Press)—Speaker's Indians continue their upward struggle in the American league pennant chase, defeating Washington, 8 to 2 for their eleventh straight victory.

The Yankees with superb hurling by Carl Mays and timely hitting by second sacker Ward, finally put the Tiger Jinx to flight. They had previously lost eight consecutive games to Cobb's men.

Kid Gleasons Chicagoans were halted for the moment in their upward scramble by the Red Sox, who took a ten-inning struggle, 3 to 2. Vangilder hurled the Browns to victory over the Mack men, 4 to 0, and the positions of the league leaders did not change.

McGraw's Giants took the second game of the Cincinnati series, 7 to 3, and held their half game lead over the Cardinals who, with another homer by Hornsby—his 26th—and a tenth inning single by DeGainer with the sacks choked, defeated the Braves 5 to 4.

The Pirates won from the Phillies in 12 innings, while the Dodgers on a hitting spree tamed the Cubs, 11 to 7.

Eul Eubanks, an iceman discovered in Texas by Scout Jack Doyle and signed by the Chicago Cubs, made his major league debut yesterday and started a rally which netted Chicago six runs and threw a scare into the easterners by crashing out a two-base hit.

MISSOULA, Mont.—Frankie Murphy, Denver, wins decision over Frank Barrieau after 12 rounds of vigorous fighting.

ALBUQUERQUE — "Kid" Mex. Pueblo, and Benny Cordova, fought a 12-round draw.

DENVER—Miss Jennie Grieve, Los Angeles, wins women's city tennis championship, defeating Miss Grace Munn, 6-0, 6-1.

INDIANAPOLIS—James Hall, Jr., Brooklyn, wins 150-yard back stroke national junior championship.

Story of South Africa at Rialto
From the ancient castle of the Earl of Lemster to the wilds of South Africa goes "The Woman Who Walked Alone," a George Melford production, this week at the Rialto theater. The story is taken from John Colton's play, "The Cat That Walked Alone." The scenes in and around Lemster Castle were made on one of the big estates at Burlingame, San Francisco.

Rupert Hughes was a pioneer in translating human, natural comedy to the screen. He proves himself an adept in doing just that in his newest film comedy, "Come On Over," which closes at the Page theater tonight. It is a delightful blending of comedy, romance and realistic characterizations. If you liked the same author's "Scratch My Back," "Hold Your Horses," "The Old Nest" and "Dangerous Curve Ahead," you should by no means miss the opportunity of seeing "Come On Over."
