

ASHLAND CITIZEN CELEBRATES HIS 75TH MILESTONE

ASHLAND, July 24.—James P. Sayle tipped the longevity beam at 75 years on July 20, and the anniversary was observed socially in keeping with the auspicious event. A six o'clock dinner was served to over a dozen guests at the family home on Graham street, the banquet table being replete with a profusion of mid-summer blossoms. The chief decoration, however, was a huge birthday cake, the components of which were as rich as its proportions were colossal. Fried chicken and its accompaniments afforded a repast in the sumptuous classification. Dancing followed, guests tripping the light fantastic to the promptings of good old-time melodies suggestive of the cushion and reel such as father and mother used to shake. The genial host and hostess have both arrived at grandparents' estate. When the good nights were spoken, guests wished Mr. and Mrs. Sayle many happy returns of the joyful anniversary occasion. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Moss of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kelton of Oakland, Cal.; Ralph Jennings of Willows, Cal.; Miss Gertrude Johnson, C. F. Rouse and Jimmie Rouse of Yreka.

Grandview Orchards, east of town, near the normal, belonging to the estate of the late H. W. Andrews, have been purchased by W. R. Kirkpatrick of Medford, who will occupy the property. An area of 20 acres is involved in this transfer, eleven of which is in apples, three in peaches and the balance diversified crops. The new purchaser takes possession early this week.

In a pickwickian sense, occupants of the Pickwick stages do not relish the prospect of being dumped over a formidable embankment in relays of a dozen each. Other accidents are occurring daily, all laid to "defective steering gears."

Mrs. Grace E. Andrews has lately received a warrant on the head banker of the Modern Woodmen of America for three thousand dollars, representing a beneficiary certificate held in that order by her late husband, Harry W. Andrews.

Another golden wedding anniversary is of record locally, it having occurred on July 21. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Drew, residing at 115 Fork street, being the recipients of hearty congratulations from a wide circle of intimate acquaintances. They were married in Illinois, came to Washington in 1877, and have lived in Ashland nearly a quarter of a century.

Funeral services of the late Charles A. Elinson, who died in this city last Friday, will be held at the Methodist church on Tuesday afternoon, July 25, at 2 o'clock. The deceased had been a resident of Ashland for a long time, and was widely known and respected for his sterling qualities, integrity being a cardinal principle of his character. He passed away at the ripe age of 75 years. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father. The daughters are Mrs. G. N. Kramer of Ashland and Miss Bertha of Portland, the sons being Ross and Lars, both residents of Alberta in the vicinity of Lethbridge.

Horseshoe pitching is receiving an impetus to the extent of a permanent organization being formed to cultivate the sport. This movement is the outcome of some expert games played during the celebratory period here early in the month. W. W. Estes, of Talent, the oldest player who participated, has been chosen chairman of a committee appointed to perfect an association of amateur pitchers, the skillfulness displayed by some of which would readily place them in the professional classification. Some lively games are anticipated during the Jackson county fair week at Medford in September. Jack Vance, of this city and Ed Samples of Talent, won the doubles at the spirited contest here on the Fourth. Earl Miller of Medford winning the singles. The pitcher's association will include players not only from this county, but others throughout southern Oregon. John Beeson formerly of Ashland, but now of Medford, is greatly interested in the formation of this new association and can give particulars respecting it.

J. W. McCoy, cashier of the First National bank, attended the National Bankers' convention at Portland last week.

Manager Hurst of the Vining theatre, will reopen the Lyric playhouse this fall, arrangements being made accordingly. For some time past the one management has controlled both theatres, although the Lyric has been opened only occasionally in order to accommodate the rush.

Charley Rugg, nephew of L. S. Brown, who formerly lived here, and who for some time past has been in Josephine county in the vicinity of Kerby, was married recently. The family home is temporarily at Oakland, Douglas county, but they will return to Kerby in the fall.

A. F. Abbott of the roundhouse force, pending settlement of the railroad strike situation, is employed by the lumber company over at Hill.

Signaling the importance of the Epworth League's annual conference here the past week, Mayor Lamkin turned over the keys of the city to the visitors, and the local affiliations tendered them a picnic in the parks.

The second baseball game in the afternoon series of the Sap-and-Salt league took place on Saturday afternoon, July 22. Boys' and Girls' teams participated. Although the boys won decisively, it would not be considered gallant to publish the overwhelming score. "Babe" Pierce and "Ty" Greer coached the teams respectively.

Bill Virgin, former resident, now residing at Central Point, has installed extensive radio apparatus in that town and is enabled to forecast strike crops, also broadcast the status of fruit and grain prospects throughout the valley.

BOLSHEVIKI URGE A LABOR UPRISING

MOSCOW, July 24.—(By the Associated Press)—The executive committee of the third international has sent an appeal to the proletariat of the world recommending its taking the offensive. In view of the "white terror" and the attacks on workmen abroad, the appeal says, it is time defensive tactics ceased.

The committee has sent a special appeal to the Germans declaring their national leaders have betrayed them and recommending that the workers take power into their own hands and dismiss the leaders if the latter fail to overcome the monarchial reaction.

GIANTS REGAIN LEAD BY MARGIN OF THREE POINTS

CHICAGO, July 24.—After losing the lead to the St. Louis Cardinals for a day, the Giants were back on top in the National league again today by a margin of three points in the percentage column, although the St. Louis aggregation were a half game ahead in the won and lost column.

Bill Ryan twirled his second victory of the series and gave the Giants the odd game out of five with Cincinnati, 4 to 1; St. Louis lost to Boston by the same score after taking four straight from the Braves, closing a home stand.

In the American league St. Louis outlasted Detroit, but errors, including three by the usually brilliant Sisker, cost the Browns an 11 to 6 defeat. Their league lead was cut to a game and a half as the New York Yankees had the best of a comedy of hits and errors with Boston, 11 to 7. Meusel went hitless, the rest of the New Yorkers were in a hitting mood.

The Yanks, on their way west to open a series tomorrow at St. Louis, are strengthened for the invasion by the acquisition of Third Baseman Joe Dugan and Outfielder Elmer Smith from Boston in exchange for Outfielder Elmer Miller, infielders Fawcett and Mitchell and a pitcher to be named later.

Eight putouts by Harry Hooper and a total of 15 in the outfield marked Chicago's 10 to 6 victory, the second straight reverse for the Indians after they had won 12 in a row. Washington pounded three Philadelphia pitchers and won, 11 to 2.

Welcome Hoover Home
DULUTH, Minn., July 24.—(By Associated Press). Hoover buttons have again come into prominence in Duluth, but not as reminders to "Hooverize." They carry the caption "welcome home Hoover," for the homecoming next Friday of Walter Hoover of the Duluth boat club, who won the world's amateur singles sculling championship in the English Henley on July 5.

At the homecoming Duluth will present Hoover with a new home and furniture. The champion will share his honors with his wife and mother. Both women taught school while the boatman trained.

Crook Story at Rialto
Local playgoers who attended the Rialto theatre yesterday had pleasant entertainment watching Herbert Rawlinson, the popular young star, extricate himself from a number of dangerous situations as the hero of "The Black Bag," a film play based upon Louis Joseph Vance's novel of the same name. This is another of those delightful "crook" plays in which the public has learned to like Rawlinson's sunny screen personality. He is at his best in "The Black Bag."

Rawlinson is ably supported in his latest starring vehicle by Virginia Valli, Bert Roach, Clara Beyer, Charles L. King, Herbert Fortier, Lou Short, Jack O'Brien, Dick Sutherland, Arthur Hoyt and William DeVaul.

"One Glorious Day" Closes
The new comedy, "One Glorious Day," featuring Will Rogers and Lila Lee is a glorious production, according to the verdict of the crowds of fans that have visited the Page theatre the last two days. It is a most unusual comedy, filled with laughs, mystery and pathos.

A feature novelty of rare beauty, exceptionally fascinating in its visualization of Nature's handiwork, "The Four Seasons," is also on the Page program. It is a very odd picture, as the drama part is interpreted by animals and by all the birds and insects which live in woodlands, forests, streams or mountainsides. This exceptional film closes its run tonight to make room for Rudolph Valentino in "The Conquering Power," and the first round of "The Leather Pushers," H. C. Witwer's famous stories of society and the prize ring.

"IT SAVED THE DAY FOR ME" SAYS KEENEY

Portland Man Says He Was So Worn Out He Was About Ready to Give Up Job When Tanlac Restored Him to Health.

"Yes, sir, Tanlac and nothing else is what kept me on the pay-roll," declared Byron Keene, 464 East Ash St., Portland, Ore., a valued employee of the John Wood foundry.

"For over a year my stomach was in bad shape. I had little or no appetite and was gradually growing weaker. My nerves were all upset and many times I rolled and tumbled all night, unable to sleep. I had pains all through my legs and arms and was bothered a great deal with constipation. I was just about past going and it looked like I would have to quit work."

"I got hold of Tanlac just in time to save the day for me. The aches and pains have all gone now and I feel brimful of new life and energy again. I have the finest kind of appetite and have gained eight pounds. Tanlac simply made me all over again."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. Adv.
