The meeting of the chamber of commerce in the city hall last night was significant in that it clearly demonstrated that if there is any more fighting to be done it is going to be left to Sheriff Terrell and the W. C. T. U. The chamber is working as one man in the interest of Ashland, and personal animosities have been cast in the discard. From that viewpoint the meeting held last night was the most important held by the chamber since it was organized.—Ashland Tidings.

Considerable interest has been aroused in legion circles over the election of a state commander. George A. Coddington of Medford and George R. Wilbur of Hood River have openly entered the ring. From eastern Oregon, the post at Pendleton, comes the information that a dark horse is being groomed. Coddington, present vice commander of the department, is regarded as the most likely candidate for the position. His work as vice commander is considered by many of the legionnaires as having fitted him for the place he seeks. Wilbur has also had considerable experience in the legion, having served in three administrations as executive committeeman.—Portland Journal.

PAINS SO BAD WOULD GO TO BED

Two Women Tell How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stopped Their Suffering

Iron Mountain, Mich.—"I had terrible pains every month and at times had to go to bed on account of them. I saw your advertisement and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with very good results. I can work all day long now at my sick time. You may use these facts as a testimonial and I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends."

—Mrs. A. H. Garland, 215 E. Brown St., Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Xenia, Ohio.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of my abdomen that I could not lie quietly in bed. I suffered for about five years that way and I was not regular either. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women, so I decided to try it. It surely has helped me a lot, as I have no pains now and am regular and feeling fine."

—Mrs. MARY DALE, Route 7, Xenia, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women's ailments. It is especially adapted to relieve women. If you suffer as did Mrs. Garland or Mrs. Dale, you should give this well-known medicine a thorough trial.
