

BRINGING UP FATHER

OFFICIAL COUNT
CONFIRMS RESULT

The official count in the recall election completed this afternoon makes Terrill's majority over Lowe 308. This is a change of only three votes in the Mail Tribune's figures, this paper's majority published yesterday being 305. People familiar with the difficulty of collecting returns over the telephone and compiling them will agree that this reflects considerable credit upon the accuracy of the Mail Tribune staff.

WOMAN ENTERS SENATE
CAMPAIGN, WASHINGTON

SEATTLE, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Francis C. Axtell's campaign for the United States senate will take active form this week with meetings at Bellingham Thursday and Seattle today. Early next week Mrs. Axtell will take the road and spend practically all the remaining five weeks before the primaries touring the state.

Mrs. C. Arthur Varney of Yakima, Wash., will arrive here this week to take charge of the Axtell headquarters as campaign manager.

N. Y. Stocks

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Active buying of selected stocks imparted a strong tone to opening prices on the stock exchange, but the market weakened later upon reports of further price cuts in the motor industry and the disposition of buyers to await the outcome of the conference of railway executives and rail union heads on President Harding's strike settlement plan. Sales approximated 650,000 shares.
