

IE GORMAN IS TOO MUCH FOR JOHNNY CARLSON

Although the eight round bout at the limit in the set-to last night between Joe Gorman of Grants Pass, former Portland fighter, who is the Pacific coast lightweight and therweight championship, and Johnny Carlson, the Gold Hill-Medford boxer, in the Gold Hill arena, local boy was outclassed all the way and lost the decision. It was a old story of the veteran, experienced boxer in good condition, against the inexperienced amateur in fair condition.

But Johnny Carlson must be given credit for his gameness in taking punishment and willingness to fight to the last ditch. He is always dangerous, even when he seems to be all out and willing to take the fight to the opponent. He showed these characteristics last night, as he had in previous bouts.

Gorman, who made a splendid impression at his first appearance here, with his boxing, generalship and cool demeanor, was never in any danger, although he took several stinging blows from Carlson. In the opinion of the majority of the audience he could have put Johnny Carlson any time with a knockout after the first two rounds. He had many openings to do so but seemingly purposely refrained.

Carlson, who was knocked down once with body blows, along with other punishment he suffered, at one time arose and resumed the fray with all the vigor at his command. He made the mistake of not fighting man at long range and in going for in-fighting, a game at which man is a seemingly master artist.

Prior to the beginning of this bout, Ingram, the Medford boxer was reduced as challenging the winner, and the fight fans are now eagerly hoping to see a match between Ingram and Gorman.

The preliminaries were all good, they included draw bouts between my Austin and Jerry Lortin, at 135 pounds, and Noble Everett and Harrell at 85 pounds; Sid Marshall and Ned Harrell at 95 pounds; Sid as victor; and a clever selling match between young Gold boys.

A fair sized crowd witnessed the bout. Bob Brown, manager of Medford Athletic club, refereed the bouts.

HORTICULTURISTS VISIT IN VALLEY
Dr. C. C. Corbett, chief of the bureau of horticultural and pomological investigations, and Prof. L. B. H. in charge of nursery investigations of the U. S. Department of agriculture, are spending today with Mr. Helmer going over the work of the Oregon Experiment station. These men are very much interested in the work which Mr. Helmer is doing on blight resistance in pears, and are co-operating with him. Last of the local experiment station sent to the valuable blight resistant trees which Mr. Helmer collected in China, to the department of culture and these are now being planted in the eastern states. These are the only blight immune pears recorded in this country.

SEPHINE CO. FAIR OFFICIALS ON VISIT
The president of the Josephine County Fair association, P. S. Iredell and Lynn P. Sabin, secretary of Grants Pass Chamber of Commerce, were in Medford yesterday for purpose of inspecting the Jackson county fair grounds and buildings.

Both "climate city" visitors were favorably impressed by the progress being made at the fair grounds. They expressed astonishment at the magnitude of the undertaking. The fair grounds and buildings began to take on a more finished appearance and with the completion of the entire building program site will be a big asset as a testimonial to Jackson county's prosperity.

Famous Novelist Aids Father in His Race for Governorship

International News Service Staff Correspondent.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 3.—"The average run-o'-the-mine republican politician still pins his faith to the fact that Lincoln was a great man. The democrat hitches his wagon to Andrew Jackson's coat-tails. But, as far as I can discover by talking to strangers here and there about the city and state, the average voter discovered a long time ago that Lincoln and Jackson are both dead. They're a lot more interested in who's going to be elected than they are in who was elected sixty years ago."

These are the words of Ben Ames Williams, nationally known author of magazine stories and novels, who has returned to Ohio temporarily to act as manager and to direct the publicity work in connection with the campaign being waged by his father, former State Senator Daniel W. Williams, of Jackson, as one of the nine Ohio republicans who are candidates for the nomination for governor at the primaries to be held on August 8.

HAY CROP SHORT IN WILLAMETTE VALLEY THIS YEAR
"A lot of the valley dairymen and cattle and horse feeders are due for a rude surprise, when they go out and try to buy the hay they want for their stock this winter, and find that it's practically all gone," says the Salem Statesman.

"According to one of the best known buyers of the valley, fully 75 per cent of all the hay that's grown in this section, that will be sold at all, is already marketed, and a lot of it has already been moved out. The dairymen of Tillamook and Coos counties, where there has been an unusual shortage of hay this season, have come into the Willamette valley, and bought most of the hay that is for sale. They are rushing the railroads to handle it; and some trucks, too, have been mighty busy, with this bulky but valuable crop.

"There is alfalfa hay over in eastern Oregon and in Idaho, hay by the hundreds of thousands of tons, but the railroads' shipping conditions have not been stable enough to warrant buying and shipping to the coast. Consequently the western feeders, without waiting for something to turn up, have come into the valley and snapped up the bales as fast as they roll out of the balers.

"Any considerable local demand is expected to put it up to the valley feeders to ship in this eastern hay. This is expected to sell at about $20 a ton if the freight rates are made fair enough. It might run higher. The grain hay that is being shipped out, sells for less money, but has not usually quite the feed value of the alfalfa."

Wenatchee Man Loses Life, Columbia River

WENATCHEE, Wash., Aug. 3.—The Columbia river claimed another victim Wednesday afternoon when Jesse Brenham was swept away to his death while swimming opposite the Great Northern freight depot. Brenham was 37 years old and so far as can be learned the only surviving relative is a son living somewhere in the east. He was a member of Seattle aerio No. 1 of the Eagles and was formerly a locomotive engineer. The body had not been recovered at 10 o'clock this morning.

"It seems to me that it is the political rather than the public-spirited viewpoint which bewails the lack of party harmony—before the primaries," continued the eminent young author of "Godless Men," "Evered," and "The Great Accident." "Must Brand Harmony. The man who wants harmony always wants his kind of harmony. There is a disposition to put party harmony ahead of public service. As a matter of fact, the split-up in the republican party in Ohio this year—with nine gubernatorial candidates before the people—shows that the party is in a mighty healthy condition," Mr. Williams said.

TO PLANT 30,000 SILVERSIDES IN CRATER L. WATER
An increase in the finny population of Crater lake is about to take place through an experiment by Toggery Bill Isaacs, Alex Sparrow and J. W. Berrian.

Thirty thousand silverside salmon fingerlings are to be planted in the cold, blue waters the end of this week. Jim Berrian of the Butte Falls fish hatchery has agreed to furnish the fish and is eager to see the result of planting salmon in a land-locked body of water such as Crater lake. He has also agreed to furnish feed for them, sufficient to last until they become acclimated to the clear, cold water which is so sparsely provided with food for fish.

Alex Sparrow, superintendent of Crater Lake National park has agreed to furnish a truck to transport the cans of small fish from Butte Falls to the rim, and the men to carry the cans from the rim to the water's edge.

Bill Isaacs comes in here. He thought of the plan and urged its execution. It is thought that the fish will do well in the lake and that they will provide good fishing within a few years as they grow with almost twice the rapidity of a steelhead.

YANKEES WITHIN A GAME OF LEADING ST. LOUIS BROWNS

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—The Yankees by taking the measure of Speaker's Indians, 5, to 1, while the Browns were losing a home run hitting game to the Athletics, 8 to 4, have moved to within a game of the league leading St. Louisians.

Kenneth Williams of the Browns with his sixth circuit blow, in as many days, increased his season total to 28 and now is leading the home run hitters of both major leagues: Hornsby of the Cardinals, previously led with 27. Haasey, McGowan and Miller of the Mackoons, accounted for four base hits in the same time. Walter Johnson proved as usual too great an enigma for the White Sox and the Senators won, 4 to 1.

The only National league contest, between the Cubs and the Phillies, went 15 innings to a 7 to 7 tie and then was called off because of the condition of the diamond.

Many have the impression that a Sedan is primarily a winter car. The popularity of the Ford Sedan in summer time disproves this impression. It affords all the open air pleasure of a touring car with the comfort and conveniences of a closed car, since the windows can be lowered with ease at any time.

Why not come in, see this little car, investigate for yourself its merits. We will be glad to show it to you.
