Last Showings Today.
The final showings of "Bought and Paid For," a William de Mille production featuring Agnes Ayres and Jack Holt, will be had at the Page theatre today. The picture is a delightful one, and has scored a decided hit.

Zane Grey Film at Rialto.
Six experienced animal trainers all ranking high in their profession, were engaged for the making of the animal scenes that are an important feature of the new production of a Zane Grey story, "Golden Dreams." This thrilling drama, combining spirited action and an appealing romance, will be seen at the Rialto theatre for only two days more.

Doris May Coming to Page.
And Doris May herself, a comedienne who has won distinction by her portrayals of that stage of girl-flapper stage, protests vigorously against the allegations that are being heaped upon the poor flapper's head by well-meaning but otherwise misguided critics.

"In spite of the things said about the flapper, I feel certain that not one of us would care to have returned in her stead the young woman of fifteen or twenty years ago, who did little but sit on a pillow and sew a fine seam."
Doris May's new comedy "Gay and Devilish" will be at the Page theatre three days, beginning tomorrow matinee.

sacks of splendid new potatoes to the California-Oregon power camp. Elmer Ivoy enjoyed a visit at the Dave Pence place Sunday, July 30.
Mr. Miller and his son, Boyd Miller, returned home from a visit to Gold Hill, Wednesday, July 26. Mrs. Miller, who has been ill of late, is reported to be well on the way to recovery. Mrs. Fred Sturgis has also been on the sick list last week, is getting better.

Claud Moore hauled a load of lumber Monday, August 1.
Alberta Pence was an all night guest of Mrs. Lucy Moore Saturday.
Mr. Andy Pool went up to Sugar Pine to stay a while on government duty.

Mr. E. Ash was up this way with his truck Sunday and took down a load of fence rails.

Mr. Lee Whitley is working for the California-Oregon Power Co.

Mr. Ashcraft was visiting on his homestead Sunday, July 30.

The grasshoppers have been damaging the alfalfa in this vicinity as they are very numerous.

A Watkins agent has been selling products in this and surrounding territories.

Harvey Morgan put up Ezra Whitley's hay.

Claude Moore shed George Hall's horses last week.

It has been exceedingly hot along the creek during June and the first part of July. Old timers claim that it has been hotter than they have ever witnessed for such a long duration.

We need rain very bad as the creek is getting low. Flat creek is drying up very fast and a Alco creek is about dry, something unusual for the mountains.
