"The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of the valley had a big time Thursday night, when about 400 members of the lodges gathered at Riverside park for a picnic," says the Grants Pass Courier. "About 26 lodges were represented, all of the Jackson county organizations being present with those of Josephine county out in full numbers. Many came early and spent the afternoon in the river. After the picnic supper at 7 in the park, all came to the city where a dance was held in the W. O. W. hall. A program was also given as part of the entertainment of the evening. This was the annual picnic of the organization."
