WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Harding, according to the belief expressed by some union leaders, was planning a new move late today in the rail strike situation—a joint meeting of the railroad executives and labor organization leaders.
The developments, almost startling in their unexpectedness, placed the two groups almost within speaking distance of each other. Another element which added rather dramatic touch to the situation was the strains of music from the marine band, which floated in to the conference rooms, the band being engaged in giving its weekly concert on the White House lawn.

YAKIMA, Wash., Aug. 12.—Yakima orchardists and others will meet at the Commercial Club on Tuesday evening to formulate plans for moving the valley's soft fruit crop in the face of present strike conditions. Some petition asking for steps toward settlement of the strike may be taken.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Harding was said by administration advisers today to have abandoned temporarily at least his plan for asking legislation of congress to deal with the railroad situation.

The conditional acceptance by the railroad executives of the president's latest proposal was declared to have been the controlling factor in the president's change of plans regarding legislation. In view of the executives' attitude, the president, according to advisers who conferred with him last night, was said to believe that any immediate legislation by congress was unnecessary.

FRENCH AMAZED BY BRITISH TERMS

LONDON, Aug. 12.—(By Associated Press.) The French delegation to the conference on German affairs was amazed to learn today that the British government proposes and insists upon a reduction of the German reparations payments to about one-third the amounts fixed by the London schedule of payments of May 1921, that is, cancel altogether the annual cash payments of 2,000,000 gold marks and to leave only the 26 per cent assessment on German exports.

A. GRIFFITH
ERIN LEADER
FLU VICTIM

President of Dail Eireann Succumbs to Influenza Attack in Dublin Hospital—Direct Cause of Death Uncertain—Chief Creator of Irish Free State.

BELFAST, Aug. 12.—(By Associated Press.) Arthur Griffith, president of the Dail Eireann died in Dublin today of influenza, it has been learned in Belfast. Mr. Griffith was ill only ten days and his illness was not considered serious. Yesterday, however, he suffered a sudden relapse and died early this morning.

His death occurred at 9:45 o'clock this morning in St. Vincent's hospital, Dublin, which he entered ten days ago for an operation for tonsillitis. He was recovering from the operation and apparently regaining his normal strength during the last few days.

In fact, Mr. Griffith had responded to his treatment so well that he was able to leave the hospital daily for his official duties, returning to the institution at night.

This morning he ate a hearty breakfast and was going upstairs when he suddenly collapsed. He was carried into his room and a doctor was summoned.

Arthur Griffiths.

Leader of Free State
Arthur Griffith was one of the leaders in the creation of the Irish free state. He was one of the founders of the Sinn Fein movement in Ireland and from the beginning has been among the foremost leaders directing its activities. He has been somewhat out of sight however, during the recent military activities, which have been largely directed on behalf of free state forces by Michael Collins, head of the Irish provisional government set up under the terms of the Anglo-Irish treaty.

Mr. Griffith was formerly an editor of Dublin and later established the newspaper United Irishmen, followed by the Sinn Fein, and then the Nationality, both of which represented the wing of the republican movement favoring dominion status for Ireland.

He first attracted attention by his uncompromising attitude for abstention by Irish members from attendance of the sessions of the British parliament at Westminster. The idea gradually formed the nucleus of the Sinn Fein organization which took the place of the Irish nationalist movement.

Elected President 1919
In October, 1919 Griffith was elected presiding officer for the opening of the Sinn Fein conference in Dublin. In July, 1919, he was elected acting president of the Irish national assembly in the absence of Eamon DeValera, who was in the United States. In October of the same year, he was elected one of the permanent vice presidents of the Sinn Fein organization.

Griffith was arrested in Dublin in November, 1920, and spent seven months in Mountjoy prison.
The return of Mr. DeValera from America was attributed to Griffith's imprisonment, as Mr. DeValera, upon

STARVING PUPPY
WOMAN RAISES
BECOMES A LION

DEFIANCE, Ohio, Aug.—About a month ago a Baltimore & Ohio brakeman carried to Mrs. C. G. Shirley, who operates a small restaurant patronized by railroad men, a basket containing what he thought was a puppy. He found it in an empty freight car, nearly dead from starvation.
Mrs. Shirley fed her new pet, naming it "The Lion."
Now the animal is developing a shaggy mane on a massive head, walks impatiently in a circle strikes with its paw and growls. It has never barked. It's hide is developing peculiar marking of spots. It prefers a raw meat diet and is growing rapidly.
It is a lion!

Mrs. Shirley believes the cub was stolen from a menagerie by some helper who was forced to abandon it while making his getaway on a freight.

Dog Beaten By Man
Keeps Faith; Goes
To His Rescue Later

DENTER, Maine, Aug.—(By I. N. S.)—"I hated to do it," said Elmer Rogatello, with tears in his eyes as he stroked the large head of his faithful Regis, "and it has taught me a great lesson."
Shortly after giving a severe flogging to his hound, Elmer Rogatello, a miller, lost his footing while crossing a sluiceway and fell into the millpond. He could not swim. The faithful beast, attracted by his cries, bleeding from the whipping painfully leaped to the rescue and dragged his master to safety.

MORE BOMBS
EXPLODED IN CALIFORNIA

S. P. Yards at Roseville Scene of Early Morning Attack—U. S. Marshal Shot—Entire Town Thrown in a Panic—Heavy Guards Put On By Railroad.

ROSEVILLE, Cal., Aug. 12.—Five bombs were exploded in the yards of the Southern Pacific and the Pacific Fruit Express company here early this morning. One of the bombs exploded at 2 a. m. in the rear of roundhouse No. 1. Windows in the building were shattered and a portion of the wall nearest the explosion wrecked.

Three of the bombs tore a great hole in the ground in the east side of the yards near the plant of the Pacific Fruit Express company. The lighting equipment in the yards was put out of commission by the explosions.

Immediately following the explosions, company guards poured shot in the direction from which the bombs were reported to have been hurled. Answering volleys of shot met their firing. More than 100 shots were exchanged.

United States Marshal Sullivan was struck down by a bullet, according to word reaching Roseville following the skirmish. The extent of his injuries was not learned.

Buildings Are Shaken
The explosions shook buildings and houses in Roseville and caused many people to arise, thinking an earthquake had visited the town.

Night Marshal Bob Long in giving a version of the explosions declared the first explosion was the most severe of the five blasts. Marshal Long said he was making his rounds downtown when the explosions occurred.

He hurried in the direction of the yards in company with Deputies Alhocker and Charles LaPorte. As they ran the other blasts went off and the shooting of the smaller firearms began, Long said.

The marshal and his two deputies endeavored to enter the yards to learn the cause of the trouble but according to Long were halted at the points of guns at one of the entrance gates by railroad guards and United States deputies and told to keep away.
