NOW BASEBALL IS TO BE UNIONIZED THROUGHT U. S. A.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 16.—(By the Associated Press)—A ball players' union, designed for the announced purpose of lifting the idols of the diamond from what it termed a position as "pawns of the club owners," to an equal status with the club owners, so far as matters affecting the players are concerned is nearing complete organization, according to an announcement today by Ray Cannon, attorney and former baseball player.

Mr. Cannon announced that he had been retained by players on virtually every major league club and on several minor league teams and that he had already opened negotiations with Samuel Gompers for backing by the American Federation of Labor, Mr. Gompers, according to Mr. Cannon, was favorably impressed and promised his support in any just cause.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 16.—(By the Associated Press)—President John A. Heydler of the National league, who was in Pittsburgh today said he could see no necessity for a baseball players' union.

"With Judge Landis at the head of organized baseball every player knows he can always get a square deal," said Mr. Heydler.

SEATTLE, Aug. 16.—Al Demaree, manager of the Portland Pacific coast league baseball club, had wired Commissioner of Baseball Landis asking for an explanation of Landis' action yesterday in placing him on the ineligible list, he announced today.

"I don't know why Judge Landis has placed me on the ineligible list," Demaree said, "for I can't see where I violated any of the rules of baseball in playing with and against ineligible players when I had permission of the Denver team to try out my arm in semi-professional games around Chicago."
