

FREE LECTURE AT NAT TONIGHT ON SCHOOL MEASURE

Do you know what the Compulsory Education bill on the ballot this fall will mean to Medford and Oregon if it is passed? Do you know how it will affect taxes? How it will affect development in general? Do you know whether this is really a compulsory education bill or whether there is already a compulsory education bill on the statutes?

All facts concerning this measure will be brought out at a free lecture at the Nat tonight by Hon. Dudley C. Wooten of Seattle, ex-congressman from Texas, and said to be one of the most eloquent lawyers on the Pacific coast.

Whether you think you are in favor or against this bill, if you don't know all about it attend this lecture and learn. It is the duty of every voter, man or woman, to be accurately informed.

RACE PROGRAM AT FAIR-PROGRESSING

Work of determining the number and classification of races for the Jackson county fair is going forward rapidly under the supervision of George Gates and Seely V. Hall who are in charge of that portion of the fair program.

Entry blanks will soon be available for the speed demons who wish to participate in the races. A large sum of money has been set aside for the speed entertainments which will be divided into purses sufficiently large to bring out some good talent in each contest.

According to announcement of the fair board a troupe of motorcycle riders will stage the polo games and this exhibition promises to provide thrills galore. Playing polo on speedy motorcycles with exhausts snapping and crackling and players and machines mixed up like a traffic jam ought to provide some real thrills.

DAW-FRICK BOUT CALLED A DRAW ACCOUNT OF FOUL

Lawrence Daw and Battling Frick boxed a four round draw at the Medford Athletic club smoker last night. The bout was full of action from the first gong. The boys were a good match and both anxious to land a sleep producing punch. Frick landed an unintentional foul in the third canto and after a hasty examination Daw was pronounced fit to go on with the fray. Daw had received some severe punishment in the previous rounds and in the opening of the fourth failed to remove his jaw from the path of a sizzling right hand blow that toppled him on the canvas for the count of nine. He was in a bad way the remainder of the round. Due to Daw's gameness in continuing the battle after being fouled the judges gave him a draw.

Joe Harrell and "Young Abe Shadow" (Sonny Austin) fought a tame four round draw in the semi-windup. Young Abe claimed he was not feeling well and was listless in the ring.

Manager Brown announced that Johnny Carlson who refereed the bouts last night would box Frankie Webb eight rounds at the next smoker. This bout should be a hot one as Carlson met the Portland boxer some time ago in a draw at Gold Hill, and the Portlander believes he should have had the decision.

Another one of the excellent band concerts by the Elks' band will be given in the city park tonight. The program consists largely of popular music and a large crowd is expected. The members of the Oregon Exposition caravan will appear at the park also this evening, and it is expected that Mayor Baker of Portland and other important Portland men will have some important statements to make to the people of Southern Oregon.

The concert program is as follows:

The Prince of Pilsen, Selection.....Gus Ludus
Wabash Blues, Fox Trot.....Fred Meinken

Peggy O'Neil, Waltz.....Harry Pease

The fifty members of the Oregon Exposition caravan headed by Mayor George L. Baker of Portland are expected to arrive some time this evening. Mayor C. E. Gates is in charge of the local arrangements and urges that every representative citizen be at the City Park at 8:00 p. m. when prominent Portland men, members of the caravan, will speak.

It is the plan of the caravan to visit Ashland this evening and then return to Medford in time for the program in the park, part of which will be an excellent program by the Elks' band. The caravan has been to Klamath Falls and has come by way of Crater lake. An excellent reception was accorded them in Klamath Falls and it is hoped that Medford will outdo the Klamath citizens in giving a demonstration of real enthusiasm.

A delegation of Klamath citizens met the caravan and escorted the members into the city. However this sort of a reception has not been arranged for in Medford due to the indefinite time of arrival. A real reception at the park tonight is expected however.

The Jackson County Amusement company have announced they have contracted with Herb Launspach to provide the music for any and all dances which they may give in the new Fair Grounds pavilion. This insures the very best dance music obtainable as Herb Launspach needs no introduction to music lovers of the Rogue valley, having conducted orchestras here for the past eight years.

Mr. Launspach has been busily engaged the past few days in assembling a picked orchestra of the best musicians in southern Oregon and has announced his personnel to be as follows: Carl Loveland, saxophone; Don Newbury, banjo; Wilson Waite, cornet; Ed White, trombone; Earl Roberts, marimbaphone and bells; Art Hazelrigg, drums and traps, and last but not least, Larry Mann and Paul McDonald, soloists and entertainers.
