TRIGONIA WELL TO OPERATE SUNDAY

Work at the Trigon Oil well is progressing rapidly and in a very satisfactory manner according to Col. J. F. Mancy, who is now in charge of operations there.

He states that the new tools which are now in the well are being sunk at the rate of 20 feet per day and that they are cutting through oil sand which contains showings of oil.

The well will operate tomorrow and drilling will continue as usual. Visitors are invited to come and view the operations and progress made.
