

FALL BUILDING CAMPAIGN NOW ON IN MEDFORD

There is considerable residential building activity in this city and immediate environs at the present, and the "fall building" will total in the neighborhood of $50,000, counting what is actually under construction, and what is contemplated.

E. H. Lampert has started work on a $10,000 home to be erected on the Pacific highway, four miles south of this city. It will consist of six rooms with basement, fireplace, garage and modern throughout, constructed on the English country style of architecture with long gables, and concrete stucco exterior work. The home is being built in an oak grove with four stately oak trees surrounding it. The contract has been let to Larkin Reynolds, Frank H. Clark, designing architect. The landscape work will be done by William Forde.

Two other handsome country homes have been built in this vicinity this summer.

Mrs. J. S. Vilas has plans drawn for an English rustic home to be erected on the Vilas orchard tract. It will be started in the next two weeks, and will cost $4000.

Work was started Tuesday morning on a home for Milton D. Schuchard on Minnesota avenue, which has been the favorite street for a number of new homes the last year, to-wit: George Porter, Dr. M. C. Barber, Bert Threlford and Lewis Ulrich. The Schuchard home will be in the Dutch colonial style, and cost about $4,000.

Harry D. Mills will start work in a short time on a $6000 home to be built in the Siskiyou Heights district. It will be an English type.

L. D. Bragg will build a home on his orchard south of the city, in the English Tudor style, to cost about $7000.

The spring home builders had a strong leaning for the Colonial type of architecture, but a drift towards the English types is shown in the fall building. A couple of years ago the California bungalow and mission type of architecture were all the rage.

COLVIG CLOSES AFFIRMATIVE IN JEFFREY DEBATE

To the Editor:

Mr. Jeffrey on the 15th instant made quite a furious attack upon me—he even went so far as to call me a "has-been!" With equal verity, permit me to characterize him as a "never-was!"

In his article he tells many falsehoods. He says that during the civil war I enlisted in the home guards. Anyone who is not an ignoramus knows that Oregon had no home guards during that period, and that home guards are not allowed any pension, nor can they belong to the G. A. R. I do not claim that I put down the rebellion, but I did give three years' service under the call of President Lincoln for "300,000 more." Four brothers of us enlisted,—one never came back—he was killed in a battle with Indians at San Carlos.

By the way, Mr. Jeffrey would make a very good looking soldier. He has good health, athletic proportions, and has had two grand opportunities to show his loyalty to country. He could have volunteered in 1898 in the Spanish war, or more recently in the World War.

John, you are wrong. I wore the blue three long years at thirteen dollars per month, and I am getting an old age pension. I have never displayed my patriotism by wearing a "hood and nightgown."

To make my word good that you are known as the I. W. W. lawyer in Portland, that you did violate the city ordinance by speaking to a crowd of "wobblers" from the street corner, that you were imprisoned and gave a bond which was accepted, I herewith append what was said at the time concerning your affiliation with I. W. W.'s and other seditious persons by three of the leading dailies of the city of Portland. I do this so that when reading public here may know which one of us is guilty of falsehood.

Oregon Journal, July 26, 1913, says, that J. A. Jeffrey, attorney, defended Rudolph Schwab, who was convicted for soap box speaking and abuse of the American flag.

Oregon Journal, July 27, 1913, says that J. A. Jeffrey again defended Schwab.

Oregonian, July 27, 1913, says that J. A. Jeffrey, one of the speakers before a crowd of 4000 or 5000 I. W. W.'s in Gypsy Smith's tabernacle, 19th and Taylor streets, abused the mayor and sheriff and started a recall petition against them. (He never succeeded in getting signatures enough to start the recall against these officers).

Oregon Journal, July 30, 1913, says that J. A. Jeffrey defended Ramsey and 19 other I. W. W.'s and that all were convicted.

The Oregon Journal again says, August 2, 1913, that J. A. Jeffrey, attorney for the I. W. W.'s failed to get an injunction against mayor and sheriff enjoining them from interfering with street speaking.

Oregonian, July 31, 1913, says that J. A. Jeffrey defended Frank Schelanski and 19 other I. W. W.'s.

Oregon Journal, August 3, 1913, says that J. A. Jeffrey spoke at the Gypsy Smith tabernacle advising the recall of the sheriff for arresting the I. W. W.'s.

Oregonian, August 16, 1913, says that Jeffrey and Lennon filed suit against Sheriff Wood for $20,000 for arresting I. W. W.'s who were charged with violating the city ordinance in speaking from the street corners.

Oregon Journal, August 25, 1913, says that J. A. Jeffrey defended Henry Lambert, an I. W. W., for trying to speak from the street corner in violation of the ordinance.

Oregonian, October 28, 1913, says that J. A. Jeffrey, attorney for 19 I. W. W.'s appeared in court today and requested a stay in the trial for ten days.

Oregonian, October 23, 1913, says that J. A. Jeffrey was arrested while attempting to address an I. W. W. meeting on the streets of Portland. It says that he came out of the I. W. W. Hall to the court house, where it large American flag and mounted a box and started to speak. That he was pulled from the box by an officer, arrested, and taken to the county jail and LOCKED UP and held until bail was given and accepted by Judge Bell.

Portland Telegram, August 23, 1913, says that Attorney Jeffrey was MADE to carry the American flag that he had brought out of the I. W. W. hall, to the court house, where it was taken from him.

Mr. Jeffrey also says in his letter of the 15th instant that the Portland showing who, among the business men were 100 per cent Americans. This statement is probably true—the Klan ordered 5000 copies of a booklet which was published by one S. C. Berry. The little booklet is entitled "100 per cent American Directory." The business names given in it embrace all lines—it includes seven attorneys, none of whom I believe, have ever been known or recognized as prominent attorneys. Some of them are notorious. I find the following among the seven:

Bowy, 7206 John A. Jeffrey, Trial Advocate, 414.

McKay Block, 3rd and Oak streets. I have a copy of this directory which I will be glad to show any inquiring mind.

Somebody has lied! Now, having had the opening and closing of this discussion, I will retire from the field.

MURDERS SISTER IN-LAW TO GET HER INSURANCE

ENVER, Aug. 22.—With the arrest of Albert J. Lowe, an insurance agent, on a charge of murder, the police of Greeley, Colo., announced today that the warrant was issued as the result of a month's investigation following the death ostensibly through the explosion of a gasoline stove, of Edna J. Skinner, 22 years old, school teacher of Bloomington, Ill.

The authorities stated that they had accumulated evidence tending to show that the young woman, who is Lowe's sister-in-law, was persuaded by him to buy an insurance policy from him, naming him as the beneficiary. Immediately, the authorities allege, Lowe began to plot her murder in a way that not only would enable him to collect the $2,000 death benefit, but also an added $500, payable should the insured meet death through accident.

To accomplish this, the police allege, Lowe beat his kinswoman to death with a heavy stove weight, saturated the body in gasoline wrecked an oil stove to simulate an explosion and set fire to the kitchen of his home, in which the proceedings took place.

This, the authorities said, occurred a month ago, but nothing was suspected until Lowe reached Bloomington with the corpse and it is said objected to the relatives' opening the coffin prior to burial there. Since that time Miss Skinner's mother and the police have conducted an investigation, with the result that the warrant, charging murder was sworn out upon the arrival of the mother at Greeley yesterday.

SPECIAL CAKE SALE AT PUBLIC MARKET

The Red Cross rooms have been opened and the work supervised during the past two months by local people, pending the securing of a trained worker. While the demands of the office are largely met by placing applicants in positions, yet there are many cases of sickness coupled with extreme poverty, in addition to the soldier relief work of many kinds. To carry on the work until the annual roll call in November, it is necessary to supplement the funds. One method will be a cake sale at the Public Market on Saturday, when 50 fine cakes will be offered at reasonable prices. Plan to buy your Sunday cake there and help the organization a bit.

JURY BLAMES STRIKERS

In correspondence seized in raids on the offices of William Z. Foster, radical leader and head of the Trades Union Educational league. Federal investigators asserted that Foster had been under close surveillance for some time.

"The Michigan Central has hastily hatched up an explanation to place the blame for loss of life upon the striking shopmen instead of on the railroad where it belongs. This was more easy because the engine crew was killed and so could not give testimony to the defective condition of the locomotive which they were called upon to drive sixty miles an hour.

"No two reports as to the number of spikes 'maliciously' withdrawn agree. As a matter of fact, it is agreed that a long section of the track was torn up after the engine left the rails. This is a natural case. Drawn spikes and torn rails are regularly caused when a heavy engine rides the rails. Altogether, to a railroad man, as contrasted with private detectives, the real cause was clearly an unfit locomotive."

CHINA MAY DRIVE JAPANESE OUT OF COTTON BUSINESS

TOKIO.—(By Associated Press). Great interest is being evinced in regard to the future of the cotton spinning industry in Japan owing to the rise in the cost of production and the development of cotton spinning in China, says Diamond, a financial newspaper. The remarkable development of spinning industry in Japan was mainly due to the cheap cost of labor and the demand in China but these factors which have made the cotton spinning industry so prosperous are fast disappearing and grave fears are expressed in some quarters that the industry is threatened with a serious crisis. There are three ways in which the cotton yarn turned out of the Japanese spinning mills is disposed of. Thirty to forty percent is exported, a portion is manufactured into cotton cloths by the spinning mills themselves and exported and a greater portion is consumed by the weavers other than the spinning mills.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiful—and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers their worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. All druggists can supply you. Adv.

The output of yarn has been increasing since the withdrawal of the restriction in December last but this has not resulted in an increase of stock owing to an increased amount of export as well as the consumption of yarn by the spinners for the manufacture of cotton cloths for export.

Exports of yarn dropped from 569,990 bales in 1914 to 292,260 bales in 1921. Still cotton yarn does not seem to show signs of over supply but it is quite possible that with the extension of producing capacity adopted by many mills and the establishment of new mills together with the fast increasing output of the spinning mills in China and the consequent falling-off of demand for Japanese yarn time will come sooner or later when the spinning industry in Japan will suffer from a serious crisis.
