

GRAND MASTER OF MASONS BITTERLY SCORES K. K. KLAN

YREKA, Aug. 26.—The Ku Klux Klan was bitterly scored Wednesday night before Masons of Siskiyou county at Sisson by Samuel Burke, grand master of the jurisdiction of California.

Burke declared that he had no sympathy whatever with the Ku Klux Klan nor any of its principles. He declared that the organization was dishonest and unjust in its practices and should be stamped out. Any organization that conducted its work in darkness and in hood to hide the identity of its membership, has no place in a democracy such as ours, he said.

He said it had been told him that 25 per cent of the Klan membership was alleged to be Masonic. He declared such an assertion was a pure fabrication without a bit of truth in it. He said he knew for a fact that on the original membership roll there were not five per cent Masons and these Masons did not know the real meaning of the organization or they never would have joined it.

He said he wished to impress particularly that the Masons had no sympathy with the organization and, furthermore, did not wish the members to become affiliated with the Ku Klux Klan in any way.

"The courts of the United States make enough mistakes," he said, "without having a mob of hoodwinked citizens, so-called, taking the law into their own hands. If this country should ever fall so low that the people had to take the law into their own hands individually, then let us carry on the work without being masked."

The speaker said that there were too many fraternal organizations coming into being and cautioned Masons not to join them all. He said that he held that the home was first of all—and the lodge second.

The speaker said that there were too many men who used their lodge memberships as a means of staying away from their homes at night. He said that they played "hokey" from home just like boys play "hokey" from school. He spoke for fully an hour and a half and a number of Masons from Yreka say it was a masterful address, a veritable sermon on brotherly love, human kindness and big Americanism.

OLD RESIDENT OF JACKSON COUNTY DIES IN ASHLAND

ASHLAND, Aug. 26.—After prolonged illness, Mrs. Jennie Clyde passed away on Friday at her home on Manzanita street, Ashland. She was of Scotch lineage and 89 years of age, a woman of pronounced views, energetic and possessed of a sunny disposition which reflected the personification of cheerfulness, ever ready with a happy greeting for one and all. For over forty years she was a resident of Jackson county, Phoenix and Ashland being equally considered a home. Mr. Clyde predeceased her several years since. He was Presbyterian pastor at Phoenix, and when the infirmities of age dissolved the active pastoral relation, the family altar was transferred to Ashland. A very wide acquaintance in Ashland, Phoenix and other places in this county will have the most kindly recollections of both Mr. and Mrs. Clyde who were endeared to them by Christian attributes and neighborly friendliness typical of the assuring sentiment, "Blest be the tie that binds."

Near relatives they had none in this country, a distant one, Albert Leggett, residing in Portland and funeral arrangements are pending his arrival from that city.

BABE RUTH SURE HE'LL END YEAR HOME RUN KING

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Way back when his home run record was expressed in only a single figure—and when suspensions and fines—and bleachers were more of a daily occurrence than a four-base hit—Babe Ruth said the 1922 season would end with him the champion home run hitter of the major leagues.

In those days back in May, Babe and Mrs. Ruth seemed to be about the only people in the United States confident of Ruth's home run ability. Ruth, with the close of the season a little more than a month away, has twenty-six homers to his credit; Williams 32 and Walker 30. The "Bambino" smashed out four this week while the best Williams could do was a pair. Walker, however, connected with three. Ruth, if he continues his present pace, will make good his prediction, in the judgment of baseball critics.

The race in the American league for batting honors continues to be a merry one with the veterans battling to overcome George Sisler of St. Louis, who is showing the way with an average of .415. Ty Cobb, pilot of the Tigers, is trailing Sisler with .400 and Tris Speaker, leader of the Indians, is next with .379. The remarkable slugging of Harry Heilmann of Detroit the past week has placed him among the first four with an average of .352. The averages include Wednesday's contest.

Smashing out thirteen hits in his last five games, Rogers Hornsby, the St. Louis star, succeeded in widening to nine points the gap that separates him from his rivals in the scramble for the batting honors of the National league as compared to eleven points a week ago. Hornsby, if he maintains his present pace, will be in no apparent danger of being nosed out of the league batting championship and he apparently has the home run honors already tucked away.

N. Y. NATIONALS MAINTAIN LEAD

CHICAGO, Aug. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—The New York and St. Louis American clubs by breaking even in a double header at the Polo Grounds, remained stationary in their fight for the league leadership.

St. Louis, behind Shocker's good pitching, took the first game 3 to 1, and lost the second 6 to 5, failing to solve Joe Bush's delivery until the ninth inning and then falling short in a rally.

Manuel Leibman and wife of Los Angeles, nee Claire Zimmerman, formerly hello girl in the telephone office here, and Mr. Leibman has been among the prominent apple packers of this vicinity and Medford came in Friday and remained until Sunday starting for their home. He complained that the wages were too low here as he could not make more than sixty cents an hour here while down in his home country he could get a dollar an hour. He seems to be an expert fruit packer. They came up a month or so ago to visit her parents, A. B. Zimmerman of Butte Falls.

Messrs. A. J. Baker of the Foster Adv. Co., N. Y. City, and R. D. Henson of Foster and Kleiser company, Medford, were among the diners Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Nichols, pioneer residents of this section, returned Saturday from their trip to the noted health resort, the Willows Mud Springs, where they went some three weeks ago so as to have her try the virtue of that remedy for rheumatism. They make a very favorable report although she is not entirely healed but greatly improved. They expect to return in about another week or ten days as that seems to be the place to take the treatment, for two weeks, and then lay off about the same length of time, then try it for two weeks more. We are all delighted to know that she is relieved to a certain extent at least.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Hoff and son, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Hoyt of Chico, Cal., came in from Crater Lake Friday evening on their way home. And the same evening two young ladies dressed in their coveralls each carrying a small knapsack about large enough to hold a lunch, comb, brush and puff bag and a few more small articles, called for supper. They gave their names as Misses Emma Roseman and E. Anna Rudrauff of Los Angeles, on their way to Portland, that they were hiking it although occasionally they caught a ride and were going to Lake creek to a dance that night. I asked about their baggage and they said they had sent their suitcases on to Portland. The next day they came in and reported that they had secured a ride to Lake creek and were starting for Crater lake that they had started out sightseeing and were having a great time.

There were three more young men came in the last of the week who have charge as civil engineers of all of the market roads, and engaged beds and board during the time they can be here, as their work calls them to be away a part of the time. They gave their names as Pollard A. Smith, Fred A. Smith and Everett A. Smith, the last two being brothers, of Medford.

Last Saturday I went to Medford to consult with Dr. Holt with regard to my case and after a short talk with him started out to attend to a few little matters, one of the first being a visit to the Mail Tribune office, where everybody was too busy to talk, and the editor remarked that he was working night and day. In making a little purchase just as I was receiving the change the merchant remarked, "Mr. Howlett, do you know that that article you wrote on the amendment of the recall law is the best thing I have ever seen on the subject." I thanked him and suggested that there should be some provision made to put a curb on putting the county or state to such an expense and to have the promoters of the recall of an officer to be required to give bonds for the cost in case they failed to gain their point, would be about as efficient a way as I could suggest to put a stop to the abuse of a good law. As I was on my way to another business house I met one of our prominent bankers and he also congratulated me on my thinking of and making such a suggestion, remarking that he was in the office of one of Medford's prominent lawyers and he brought the subject up and remarked that he couldn't see how it ever happened, how the Old Man happened to think of such a plan. I suppose that it happened because some thirty-five or forty years ago I served as justice of the peace in this precinct four years and while in that position had occasion

Planning to celebrate Saturday night by seeing a picture? Well, if you have any time and you are so planning, why don't you run over to the Page tonight and see pictures as pictures were twelve years ago? In other words witness "Going Straight" with Mary Pickford and King Baggett.

Do you by any chance think Miss Pickford is the star of that film? Think again. Mr. Baggett is the large noise and "Little Mary" his humble accompaniment. Doesn't seem possible, but true it is!

You meet in this 1919 model the hero, the heroine, the villain and the vamp as they were "way back when." The subtleties have been taken liberties with by some sacrilegious soul who just had to have a little fun with 'em. He does and so do you.

You will undoubtedly like "The Master Min" with Lionel Barrymore, which is the feature picture, but "Going Straight" you will eat alive!

Western Picture at Rialto Somewhere, tomorrow, you can forget the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker. You can see the whirling dust rise from the sun-baked plains, watch lean, leathernecked men
